

Staff, Program, Set for Knothead Reunion, Sept. 1

WITH THE ACCENT on "fun," Florida Knotheads will converge on Clearwater for their fifth annual Knothead Reunion using the facilities of the municipal auditorium, famed Roebling Hall, and the ballroom of the Jack Tar Harrison over the Labor Day weekend, September 1-4.

Bill Muench of Tampa, a member of the charter square of Florida Knotheads, is director of the reunion, and Ruy Camp of East Point, Ga., will again be the featured caller.

Knothead King is Ernest Spencer of Alachua, Knothead No. 5000, and his consort will be his taw, Rose Anne Spencer. The reigning royalty will be guests of the Jack Tar Harrison.

Round dancing will be coordinated by Kay Mack of Clearwater, Jim Galloway of Lutz will coordinate the squares. Helen Galloway is in charge of special events and will serve as registrar. Ruthe Muench will be in charge of exhibitors and Ed Mack will hold the title of "funster." All are members of the charter square.

Sound will be under the direction of Gene Baylis of Miami, and the Dixie Swingers Square Dance Club will operate a refreshment booth. Knothead callers and Knothead round dance leaders from all over the state will handle workshop sessions for both square and round dancing.

The program officially opens at 9 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 2 with Kaller Camp in charge of a workshop in the auditorium. At mid-morning the emphasis will shift to round with Ed and Kay Mack, while Jim Galloway carries on with Knothead callers in the ballroom until noon. During the afternoon all three halls will be active, with separate sessions for easy and difficult rounds, a workshop on arky actions with Bill Muench, and sessions on styling. The Saturday evening program includes request rounds from 7:45 to midnight, in the auditorium and by remote hookup in both other halls. After parties and snacks will follow in the hotel.

Sunday's program includes workshops in the afternoon, a dance in the evening. (Continued on page 6)

Knothead Number 5000 is Ernest Spencer of Alachua who will serve as King of the Knothead Reunion in Clearwater Labor Day weekend. He is shown above with his taw who will serve as consort.

Roundup: Pearson Says His Labor Day Event Not Restricted—

Big Schedule Facing Florida Dancers During September

SEPTEMBER's a rugged month for dedicated square dancers, with activity all over the lot and in grades and sizes to fit every pocketbook and proficiency.

Right off the bat, of course is the Knothead reunion in Clearwater, with a Labor Day Weekend in neighboring St. Petersburg's Ox-Bow hall. Ruy Camp of East Point, Ga., is featured caller for the Clearwater affair which will utilize three halls simultaneously.

Some clubs are booked in a body for the Ox-Bow Labor Day Weekend according to Jim Pearson, who adds that "it's certainly not restricted to non-Knotheads but open to any dancer in the state." He said the Ox-Bow was being readied for up to thirty squares. The Malhiots, Pearsons, and Ed Newton will staff the three-day event.

Also on the Labor Day Weekend is a four-day holiday at Rainbow Lake, near Brevard, N. C., and during the following week Fontana's annual Fun Fest will hold forth.

On Sept. 9 the Sunshine Shufflers of Naples will entertain area dancers with their Autumn Roundup, featuring Hal Ham as master of ceremonies.

On Sept. 13, Northeast Florida Square Dancers Associations will hold their bi-monthly meeting at which new officers will be nominated. And on the 17th the Central Florida Association will hold a Sunday afternoon pot luck at City Island auditorium in Daytona Beach. On Sept. 30 the Northeast Florida association holds its annual Fall Roundup in the Hotel Mayflower.

Sept. 29 will see the regular West Coast association Fifth Friday dance held at the municipal hall in Zephyrhills with Hal Ham and Howard Parrish as callers. A meeting of club representatives is set for 7 o'clock.

Atlantic City will beckon dancers from all over the East for the 7th Atlantic Square Dance Convention in the Hotel Chalfonte-Haddon Hall. Florida's George Campbell will be one of the featured callers, beginning Sept. 29.

The famous Fontana Swap Shop—sold out for months—opens on Sept. 30 for a full week concluding on Oct. 8 in Fontana, N. C.

Jim Rice and Roger Chapman will share the podium for the Oct. 7 dance in Lakeland tying in with the annual meeting of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers.

1000 Squares in a Single Hall at Miami Beach

WITH A main hall large enough to dance one thousand squares, equipped with 200 enclosed 12 inch speakers in the ceiling to insure perfect audio, and numerous smaller rooms to be used for square and round dancing, workshops, clinics and meeting rooms, Miami Beach expects to be able to adequately care for any possible crowd attending the Eleventh National Square Dance Convention in Miami Beach next June.

Committees for the national recently toured the 195,000 air conditioned square feet and were able to see for themselves the two large storage rooms which have been air conditioned for our use, adding 18,000 square feet of space which Gordon Blaum and Les Linn agree is a "perfect hot hash hall."

"But how can we paint this picture to those who can't see for themselves?" ask Frank and Marion Cornwall, publicity chairmen.

Tentative planning provides for 12 or more hours of continuous dancing each day in fifteen locations. Programming will embrace all levels of square and round dancing, workshops, and clinics, and folk, contra, and old time dancing.

All committee chairmen will be expected to present their planning at Clearwater on Sept. 3. Then the first draft will be formulated. All told, more than 300 work assignments for panelists, callers, round dance teachers, folk, contra and old time dancing instructors will be made, and another 2000 assignments will be made to dancers who will help stage the big convention.

Harry Edwards of Gainesville serves as vice chairman in charge of committees for rounds, panels, exhibitions, contras, folk dancing, old time dancing, trail dances and souvenir program.

General Chairman Harry Moore reports that the local area executive committee has concluded that the use of smaller rooms rather than a few large halls will provide better dancing and programming than at Detroit. The Miami Beach Convention hall is flexible in this respect. Contras and folk dancing, for instance, might be centered in the 10th Street Auditorium.

"We have a letter from the Associated Square Dance Clubs of Utah who are interested in chartering two planes to bring their dancers to the convention. Moore told Bow & SWING. They want to stop off at Cypress Gardens."

Moore stated that a group in Macon wants permission to hold an official trail dance; and it appears to be a policy of the 11th national to provide an opportunity for all callers who wish to participate in the program.

Daytona Potluck Starts Off Central Florida Season

CENTRAL FLORIDA Square Dancers will have a full program of activity during the 1961-62 season, according to Al Martin, chairman of the dance committee.

A Sunday afternoon pot-luck at City Island Auditorium in Daytona Beach will be free to members on September 17. Dr. Al Hixon will serve as master of ceremonies and calling will be handled by those present.

On Oct. 7 the Central Florida and West Coast associations will jointly hold a dance in Lakeland coincidentally with the annual meeting of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers. A charge of $1.50 per couple is planned.

On November 4, a dance in the remodeled Winter Garden civic center with Joe Johnson as master of ceremonies is proposed.

On Jan. 13, Marvin Shilling of La Veta Colorado, has been invited to call in the Sanford civic center.

At Ocala on March 31, Bob Mosher will emcee a workshop and the season's program will be dimaxed in May with the 29-annual FCA dance.

¶ I'd like to thank everyone for being so friendly at the Festival of Five Flags at Pensacola where we stopped en route to the 10th National in Detroit.

I enjoyed calling and dancing, and two other Miami couples who attended also wish to add their thanks and praise. They are John and Virginia Dankward (who will have charge of decorations for the 11th National in Miami Beach) and Mann and Zee Jacobson Avicé chairmen of the 11th National. We hope you'll all come down and visit us for the 11th National in 1962.—LES AND RUTH LINN, Miami.

JIMMY SIKES, MANAGER

I DOUBLE DARE YOU is BOW & SWING'S Square of the Month for September—a selection nominated by Jim Pearson which Coordinator Phil White agrees "is a good 'un." The dance was written by Bob Dennington, San Diego, and is available on a flip record (SIO F 111) with call by Lee Helsel:

Open middle break and closer:
Bow to your partner Swing her right there
All promenade You go round the square
Back out, join hands, girls star right then Turn your partner by the left, full turn round and then

Gents star right and walk by your pet
And if that look in her eye means prom-e-nade her
I double dare you to take her home with you
I double dare you
FIGURE:

Head two couples promenade, half way round my friend
In the middle, cross trail, round just one and then
You turn back, swing a girl, lets get friendly

And when you meet, gonna do do again
And if that look in her eye means prom-e-nade her
I double dare you to take her home with you
I double dare you

Florida Caller is Booked for Atlantic City, Sept. 29

WITH Florida Caller George Campbell on the program, the seventh Atlantic Square Dance Convention is scheduled to open for three days on Sept. 29 in the Haddon Hall Hotel in Atlantic City.

Campbell, who calls for clubs dancing in his Hayloft dance hall, and worked a summer institute in the mountains of North Carolina, is booked along with Joe Lewis, Al Brundage, Earl Johnston, Curley Custer, and Ron Schneider. Three round dance couples will handle the rounds.

Atlantic City's traditional excellent transportation facilities are upgraded by excellent air service through the Philadelphia International Airport as well as a network of first class highways and tollroads.

In addition to facilities of the Hotel Chalfonte-Haddon Hall, the Steel Pier Ballroom is provided. The convention is sponsored by the Northern New Jersey Square Dancers Association, and reservations may be made by writing Box 56, Metuchen, N. J.

Nation-wide television and weekly magazine publicity is being developed for the convention, according to Bud Sibbald, president of the sponsoring body.

Squar-O-Rama Planning On Tap for Suncoast Callers

SUNCOAST Callers Ass'n may sponsor quarterly workshop meetings for their members in addition to the third Squar-O-Rama Square and Round Dance Festival, probably to be held in mid February, 1962, as a result of discussion at a directors meeting at the home of Fred Christopher in St. Petersburg July 16.

Quarterly meeting on August 20 was booked for the home of Dode and Dot Thevenir at the Square Dance Corral in Largo, at which time approval of the membership was sought for the proposed workshop series.

Members were to voice approval or disapproval of Squar-O-Rama plans providing for a one-day affair, with afternoon and evening sessions. Christopher is president of the organization.

Florida Callers Clinic To Meet in New Port Richey

FLORIDA Callers Clinic will meet in New Port Richey Oct. 8 with Cliff Rezak as host, it is announced. The Aug. 13 meeting in Tampa saw educational discussions led by Sam Prescott. Rezak, Mel Clark and Roger Chapman. New members were presented with sterling collar tabs and full membership was given to Bernie and Exie Kimbrough of Bushnell. Bill Muench was host for the August meeting.
