March Calendar Roars With Activity for Square Dancers

MARCH COMES in with a roar of square dance events that increase in tempo as the month turns toward April. Always bright with traveling callers and special festivals, the Florida dance calendar offers enough variety to satisfy everyone.

At Melbourne on Saturday, March 2, Ray McVay of Danville, Indiana, is programmed at the Trailer Haven by the six club Brevard Dancers group—Allemanders, Canaveral Squares, Harbor City Squares, Missile Twisters, Satellites, and Who Goofed Squares.

In Miami on the same evening, Jack Lasry is set to warm the Trails End Square Dance Center with an "All Nighter." Dancing begins at 9 p.m. and continues until only two squares are left. Goofy badges, refreshments and door prizes are in the offering, and club callers are invited to participate.

The Starlight Promenaders of Sanford expect a 10 square Knothead delegation from Jacksonville at their St. Patrick's Day dance on Saturday, March 16. And since the Promenaders have extended a statewide invitation for Knotheads-to-be, the Sanford Civic Center may reach its capacity of 50 squares. Chuck Durant has been selected to call.

A mid-week date — Thursday, March 21—finds the Briny Breezes of Delray

Beach headlining Decko Deck at the Trailer Haven north of Delray on highway A1A.

Max Forsyth, well known caller from Indianapolis, Indiana, is featured at the Ox-Bow's annual "Sunday Shop" in St. Petersburg on March 17, and at a Lake City dance March 21 under auspices of the Tri-City dancers.

The West Coast Association slates its regular Fifth Friday dance for March 29 at the Lakeland Civic Center. Ed Newton and Fred Christopher are programmed for the squares, Fran and Clare Malhiot for the rounds.

The first of the "Spring Jamborees" is due to be staged March 30 in Jacksonville. The Northeast Association has Bob Rust booked for this special event. Site is the Outdoor Club on Edenfield Road in the Arlington section.

Marshall Flippo, a national caller from Abilene, Texas, makes his South Florida debut on Sunday, March 31 at the new North Miami Beach Auditorium. Dancing is slated from 2 to 5 p.m., and sponsors are the Buttons and Bows of Hallandale.

Many other top-notch local dances are on the March calendar. Jay Fenimore plans to call for the St. Petersburg Squares and Pairs on March 1 at the YWCA with Fred Christopher following for the same club on March 15. First Sunday Rounds are booked for the Ox-Bow, St. Petersburg, on March 3.

Joe Johnson is booked by the Windermere Squares for March 2, and Don Armstrong calls on March 9 at Tampa's Hunt Center for local clubs. Orlando area dances will participate in a demonstration series March 8 and 9 at Parkwood Plaza under sponsorship of the Orlando Western Square Dance Council.

On March 15, the Sunshine Squares of West Palm Beach have a Pirates Party on tap for Sunshine Corral. Ernie Bass, Ralph Otis and Pete Sansom are slated to call. The Central Florida Ass'n plans an Eau Gallie dance March 30.

Edwards Taps Committee, Program Ready for '63 Florida Convention

DANCING in three halls, workshops, hot hash, and a family room are all on the tentative program aligned for the 1963 10th annual Florida Square Dance Convention June 13, 14, 15 in Jacksonville.

Harry Edwards of Gainesville has accepted the general chairman's berth for the big conclave. Tapped as committeemen were Al Hixon of Daytona Beach, square dance program; Bob Waites, Gainesville, round dance program; Floyd Hazen, Jacksonville, sound arrangements in halls; and Virgil Green, Jacksonville, physical facilities.

to have a TV room in the large convention hall for children and a teenage or family dance set patterned after the successful one promoted by the Round-trees at the 11th National.

A trail dance is programmed for the George Washington Hotel on June 13 with Jacksonville area callers in charge. An after dance is booked for both Friday and Saturday night, plus an after party Saturday night.

Registration forms for the 10th annual state convention are included in this issue of BOW & SWING (see page 2). Up-to-minute details will be published in succeeding issues.

Tentative Program

Thursday, June 13—Trail End Dance, George Washington Hotel, MC'd by Jacksonville callers, all callers taking part.

Friday, June 14
10 a.m.—12 noon—Programmed square and round dance in Geo. Wash. Aud.

2-5 p.m. — Programmed square and round dancing at City Auditorium. Square dance workshop, Mayflower Ballroom.

Round dance workshop, Geo. Wash. Aud. Hot hash session, Geo. Wash. Ballroom. 7:45-11 p.m. — Programmed square and rounds; afterdance, Geo. Wash. Ballroom.

Saturday, June 15
9 a.m.—12 Noon—Programmed square and round dances, City Aud.

Square dance workshop, Mayflower Ballroom. Round dance workshop, Geo. Wash. Aud.

Hot hash session, Geo. Wash. Ballroom. 2-5 p.m. — Programmed square and round dances, City Aud.

Square dance workshop, Mayflower. Round dance workshop, Geo. Wash. Aud. Hot hash session, Geo. Wash. Ballroom. 7:45-11 p.m.—Programmed square & rounds. 11:30 p.m.—Afterparty, Geo. Wash. Aud. Afterdance till??, Mayflower Ballroom.

"We are emphasizing this as a state convention rather than a Northeast area convention," states Edwards, "and committee heads have been urged to avail themselves of the help and assistance of any and all dancers and callers in Florida."

Headquarters for the three-day session is the George Washington Hotel. Dancing will be held there as well as at the Mayflower Hotel and the new Jacksonville Municipal Auditorium. The latter facility can dance 150 squares, and will be remembered as site for the Northeast Ass'n Fall Round-up last November.

"We are going to try something different this year by having a room available at any hour (except when this same room is being used for hot hash sessions) for any square that can get a caller to call for them," reports Al Hixon, president of the Florida State Callers' Association. "This covers a lot of territory, but it was felt it might give the dancers something they've been looking for at conventions."

The tentative program (see box) catalogs rooms or halls to hold both square and round dance workshops, the hours for each, plus a room for hot hash for Friday afternoon and Saturday morning and evening.

Arrangements also have been made

Federation to Study Bow & Swing Finances

ALTHOUGH no suggested course of action has come out of a special federation committee on BOW & SWING's financial problems, Chairman J. Warriner "Hink" Smith of St. Petersburg, plans a conference in Kissimmee within a few weeks to deal with the matter.

Also involved in the conversations will be a special committee of the Florida Callers Association including Phil White of Lynn Haven, Roger Chapman of Winter Haven, and Ed Mack of Clearwater.

Smith suggests that BOW & SWING become a "bible" of square dancing in Florida through inclusion of a complete caller directory, a complete directory of Callers Association members, and a complete directory of dance and caller organizations and their officers, in each issue. These would be revenue functions of the publication. "If this were done, one would have in any one issue a complete rundown on who's who and where in Florida."

Organizations which should be included in the directory include the state federation, the West Coast, Central Florida, Northeast Florida, Southeast Florida associations, the Pensacola Area Council, and the Florida Knotheads, along with Florida Callers Association, Florida Callers Clinic, Suncoast Callers Association, and Southeast and Northeast Florida associations, Smith said.

In the meantime, BOW & SWING has planned a special April issue with extra copies going throughout the Eastern Seaboard, featuring summer square dance institutes, camps, and conventions. "This is an experiment," explains Publisher Al Cody, "and it may lead to development of BOW & SWING as a national news-magazine of square dancing."

"This should not interfere in any way with the future of BOW & SWING as a strong state publication through the technique of local and national editions, with which we experimented on a smaller scale last year."

"CHATEAU WALTZ"

Crafted by JACK and NA STAPLETON of Detroit, this captivating new waltz of French background floats like a cloud in a summer sky, giving everyone who dances it the superb satisfaction of perfectly matched motion and music.

The MEMO BERNABEI BAND made an extra effort when recording the music for this number to get an authentic "Frenchy" effect that is exceedingly easy to the ear. The routine, only 26 measures long, is not at all complicated and is characterized by those subtle little "differences" that mark the choreographical talent of the Stapletons. You just can't afford to miss this one!

—and to double the value of this new release, the other side has...

"CANADIAN SUNSET"

—a brilliant new two-step written by SID and ROSE THORNTON of Quesnel, B.C., Canada, interesting because of really fine choreography and relaxed because of the ever-so-smooth music of the PETE LOFTHOUSE BAND. This is the Thornton's first round dance for Windsor and it is certain to be liked everywhere.

(#1035) with music by The Southerners, it was selected by Square Dance Coordinator Jay Fenimore of Hollywood.

Intro: Break: Ending:
Join eight hands circle to the left now
Circle left around that avenue
Gents back up and make a right hand star
Flip the Church, pass one girl, left Allemande
Right and left hand around that avenue
Promenade that lady home and swing her
Tell her of the things you used to do.

Figure:
One and three go up and back and star thru
Right and left thru turn that pretty Sue
Cross trail thru U-turn back and square thru
Three quarters round swing that corner Sue
I'm thinking of Things . . . like a left Allemande
Things . . . like a right and left grand
Right and left go round that avenue
I'm thinking of Things like a Promenade
Things like a pretty maid
Tell her of the Things you want to do.

Alternate Figure:
Head two couples promenade just half way round
Cross trail thru and you turn back you do
Star thru and square thru three quarters round
Swing awhile now with that corner Sue
Right and left around that avenue
I'm thinking of Things like a promenade
Things like a pretty maid
Tell her of the Things you want to do.

For the callers' workshop material for March, Lester Linn submits a novel variation on the right and left thru which he has been using with much success at his recent dances.

The pattern is called "roll thru" and accomplishes the same end result as right and left thru. For example, take "head couples roll thru": Head couples move to center of the square, taking a right forearm hold with opposite, make a full turn (as in a wheel chain), and then continue on to opposite positions, turning partner with the usual courtesy turn (as in right and left thru).

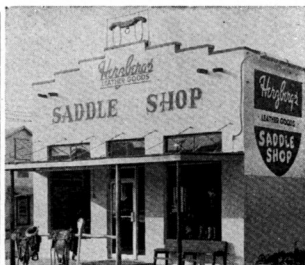

Another illustration is "all four couples roll thru": (as in all four couples right and left thru) pass corner, right shoulders, turn opposite with right forearm hold, full turn, continuing on to opposite position, pass original right hand lady left shoulders, turn partner with usual courtesy turn. All four couples are now in opposite positions.

Use this figure in place of right and left thru whenever desired, allowing, of course, extra time for the added turn in the center. Examples follow:

Heads to the middle and back with you
Forward again—ROLL THRU . . .
Sides to the middle and back with you
Forward again—ROLL THRU . . .
Eight to the center and back with you
All four couples—ROLL THRU . . .

Promenade, don't slow down . . .
(1 & 3) wheel around
ROLL THRU—turn your Sue
Face those two, pass thru, bend the line
ROLL THRU—turn your Sue
Face those two, cross trail thru

Bill Camp is teaching three square dance classes in Lake City, Palatka, and Folkston, Georgia. . . he is the regular club caller for the Lake City Squares and

Square dancers from as far away as Sarasota and Melbourne converged on Cypress Gardens January 20 to participate in a mass demonstration of square dancing for the benefit of color cameras of ABC-Paramount. Beginning at 11 o'clock the dancers performed intermittently until 1 p.m., stopped for sandwiches, and resumed again until mid-afternoon. The scene was a kaleidoscope of action, including a London bobby chasing three escaped convicts, a miniature auto with clowns, sailboats and an out-board in the pool, five bathing beauties on the slides, and at the far end of the pool, pretty girls and funny men working off the high dive! Noise of the helicopter bearing the movie cameramen all but drowned out the voice of the caller. (Photos courtesy Cypress Gardens)

Chuck Ney, caller for Dudes & Dolls of Lakewood Park and Circle Eighthers of Vero Beach receives honorary membership award in Florida Pirate Club from chief of pirates John Donnelly, while scribe Gene MacMahan looks on. New officers of the Windermere Squares posed under club banner for photo at right. Shown are Jack and Belva Quisenberry (left), president; Aubrey and Mary Rhoden (center), secretary-treasurer; Fred and Jean Geitgey, vice president.

Eight couples in a double teacup chain constituted a feature of a Feb. 3 Sunday afternoon entertainment in Lakeland's Mayhall auditorium as members of the Pals and Gals club shared in a program presented by the Lakeland School of Music. In the group, led by Caller Howard Parrish, are the Larcher Neals, the Bill Reuses, the Al Adamses, the Jack Baxleys, the Glenn Capps, the Bick Kolemeirs, the Larry Millers, and the Bud Lowers. The Lee Russells and the Don Binghamms also participated.

Orlando Dancers Plan Exhibition Series

DEMONSTRATIONS at Parkwood Plaza on March 8 and 9 will be followed by a new class for beginners at Rock Lake School, members of the Orlando Western Square Dance Council agreed at their February 14 meeting. Eric Sohn of Winter Haven will conduct the series.

Chairman Al Martin named Clint and Edna Debes and Al and Dot Cody to serve on a publicity committee, and Marj and Woody DeReus and Mary and Ted Vandewater to serve on a special committee to develop contacts with civic groups for demonstrations.

The Orlando Recreation Department will survey the need for square dance activity among the tourist and retirement age groups.

Pat and Larue White and Doug and Mabel Ramsdell were named to handle decorations for the exhibit at the Central Florida Fair and Marme Cole was asked to write for a supply of Knothead circulars from state federation headquarters.

The council agreed to sponsor an open dance on Tuesdays at the Lee school if a caller can be found and if members of the Lee class or other dancers will support it. First dance would be March 5.

Date for the Sanford Centennial dance has been changed to April 26 and suggestions were made for reciprocal promotion of the Sanford and the Orlando Spring Jamboree on April 27.

- The January Round Dancer magazine lists the top 10 rounds of the month as Dancing Shadows, Golden Gate Waltz, Alley Cat (Ski), Anytime, Remember Today, Peggy, Sleepy Time Gal, Seven Moons, Maple Leaf Rag, and Wonderful World.

Dancing Shadows, which was taught by Ted and Lois Mack of Miami at the Holiday for Rounds, is quite popular in Florida with the round dancers, notes coordinator Jones. . .

Dances recently taught to the Mel-Rounders of Melbourne include Wabash Moon and That Happy Feeling. . . currently being danced by the club are Golden Gate Waltz, Alley Cat, Dancing

Shadows, Maple Leaf Rag, Lingingers Lovers plus older favorites.

Round dancers from the Key West Squares and Nautical Wheelers have had workshops this fall on numbers taught by the Johnstons at the Blue Ridge Camp late last summer. . . current presentations are those learned at Holiday for Rounds and the rounds of the month, with Byron Lowery and Jeanne Fouts teaching. . .

Bill and Margaret Tuszynski of Tampa and Rod Copeland of North Carolina received Stars In Orbit R/D Knothead pins for traveling more than 1000 miles to attend a Stars In Orbit dance. . . Phil Betts of Titusville and Jack Seib of Melbourne were presented with Stars In Orbit R/D Angel badges for dancing throughout the 18 week course with partners who were beginners.

TAKE YOUR CHOICE OF THESE WONDERFUL FONTANA SQUARE DANCE VACATIONS—

OR—
IF YOU HAVE
UNLIMITED VACATION TIME,
TAKE BOTH!

The Fontana Ramblers, Black Mountain and Jewel label Recording Stars will play each night for both Swap Shop and Fun Fest.

SWAP SHOP—APR. 27-MAY 5, 1963

A full week of square dancing and round dancing, fun and frolic in Fontana Village, the largest resort in the Great Smoky Mountains of Western North Carolina.

Package-plan rates include lodging, all meals, planned recreation, admission to all dance sessions, scheduled "group" baby sitting arrangements, after-parties, and your registration fee.

A minimum registration of three days, at only $27.00 per person, and the full eight days for only $58.00. No charge at all (except meals) for children under 12 years who do not take part in the dancing.

FUN FEST—MAY 19-26, 1963

Same deal as above, except that this affair only runs for four days and we accept reservations for either one, two, three, or four days. Costs range from $9.00 for one day up to $58.00 for the full eight days. For either event, you have access to the resort's complete recreation program, as well as all the dancing you can stand!
