Let's Support B&S!

FLORIDA square dancers can assure the success of Bow & Swing by participating in the editorial columns of the magazine. For example, subjects of universal interest are ideal for "letters to the editor" material. Upcoming dances should be listed in the calendar of events as far in advance as possible.

Sample copies of B&S are available without charge for distribution to all members of beginner classes. Callers and round dance instructors are urged to advise the editor of quantity needed for their class members.

When writing to B&S, Federation officers or area correspondents, please refer to the masthead for correct names and addresses.

Dancers in Central Florida and Southeast Florida who would like to serve as official Bow & Swing Correspondents are urged to write to B&S Advisory Committee Chairman Hink Smith of St. Petersburg.

Teaching or Just Calling ?

NOTHING DEROGATORY is implied by this message, nor is it my intention to disrupt the relationship between dancer and caller. It is my intention to shed light on a problem that seems more prevalent now as new dancers enter our ranks.

A few weeks ago a group of dancers were gathered having coffee when the remark was made about the number of new dancers—not ready for club-level dancing.

I asked what they meant, stating that we were all beginners at one time and that it was up to us to help the new dancer. They told me they expected to help new dancers, but what they objected to was new dancers who had trouble with left allemande, right and left grand and most of the simple basics that can be learned in 12 weeks. But these new dancers in question had 20 weeks of lessons and apparently still had not learned the basics.

Could it be that some callers are not teachers? Or is it a case of the caller being more interested in showing how well he can call rather than taking the time to teach basics to beginners?

How many callers take time to thoroughly explain a call so that everyone in the class understands what to do? I see so many new dancers finish a call and turn either left or right and sometimes completely around because they do not understand the full meaning of the call.

What is the answer? Are some callers teaching classes just for the money, not caring whether he turns out good dancers? Has square dancing reached a point where 20 weeks of lessons are not enough?

Some clubs who select their dancers are not troubled with this kind of problem. But I believe that anyone wanting to square dance should have the opportunity to do so.

I believe the callers and teachers should examine their teaching method and ask themselves, "am I teaching or am I just calling?"

This problem has a direct bearing on the future of square dancing and I am afraid it will be damaging to dancing if not corrected now.

HAROLD JENKINS, Chairman

Convention Rules Up for Delegate Approval at FFSD Annual Meeting

THE ANNUAL meeting of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers is booked for 10 a.m. Sunday, November 1, at the Holiday Inn, Sarasota, in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Florida Callers Association.

All Federation officers and all local association officers and their wives are invited to be guests of FCA at their Saturday Oct. 31, dance at Sarasota's Civic Center.

Lee Helsel of Sacramento, Calif., will call the event.

The Holiday Inn management has granted special room rates to Federation officers for Saturday night. The charge is $10 per double room, $8 single. Contact the Holiday Inn, Sarasota, Fla., for reservations.

Agenda for the annual Federation meeting will include election of officers, a report of revision of the Federation constitution, and discussion of rules and regulations to guide regional associations in handling state conventions.

Under requirements for submitting convention bids, it is suggested that the bid by a regional association have the backing of the regional membership. A complete brochure citing facilities offered is to be submitted with the bid. A minimum of 18,000 sq. ft. of dance area is required, plus other areas for hot hash, teenage dancing, and workshops.

The regional association will be responsible for electing a convention chairman, who will in turn appoint the convention committee. A representative of the Florida Callers Association and the Round Dance Council of Florida also will serve on the convention committee.

The area association will be responsible for the entire program with two exceptions: programming is to be handled by square and round dance leaders, and sound is to be handled by the callers.

All emceeing will be under direction of Federation officers. The Grand March will be headed by the Federation chairman, president of the FCA, president of the Round dance Council, other officers of the Federation, convention chairman, and presidents of area associations.

Contracts for hotel and dancing areas are to be signed by the Federation. Assignment of complimentary rooms shall be handled by the Federation.

The Federation shall underwrite all conventions. Any losses will be absorbed by the Federation and the FCA.

Division of profits provides that the Federation and the FCA will equally divide the profits. The FCA

Constitution Revision Committee Favors Area Representation Change

CHANGES in the constitution of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers will be recommended at the Nov. 1 Federation meeting at Sarasota.

A Constitutional Revision Committee chaired by John Sullivan of Daytona Beach and including Lou Olsen, Dave Tyson and Al Cody has recommended changes to clarify trouble spots and pave the way for smooth operation of official Federation business.

Representation of affiliated associations on the Board of Delegates concerns most of the recommended changes. A change in Article V, paragraph 1, provides that the Federation chairman, with the approval of the Board of Delegates, shall appoint one additional delegate from each affiliated region to serve as a voting delegate. This will make four delegates from each regional group: three appointed by the affiliated group including their president, and one appointed by the Federation chairman.

Article V, paragraph 6, detailing terms of service on the Board of Delegates by voting delegates of the affiliated groups, is revised to provide that if an appointed delegate is unable to serve his full term, a successor shall be appointed by his regional president to fulfill the unexpired term until the next annual meeting of the Federation.

Under present terminology, the section states that voting delegates shall serve for one year "or until their successor shall be named."

Other recommended changes are will share their half with the Round Dance Council, and the Federation will divide their portion with the host association on a 60/40 basis—60% to the Federation and 40% to the host association.

The host association will be required to file a convention report with the Federation within 60 days after close of the convention. The Federation will issue a full convention report at the annual meeting.

Registration fees will be free to callers and round dance leaders, Federation officers, delegates and association presidents. Cost of registration for dancers is to be set by the Federation.

Complete rules and regulations on convention procedures will be submitted to voting delegates at the annual meeting Nov. 1 at Sarasota.

minor in nature. A change in Article II gives encouragement to square, round and folk dancing clubs, and another change in Article V, paragraph 2, provides for three, rather than two, voting delegates from unaffiliated clubs and dancers in West Florida and South Florida. Article III, paragraph 3, is corrected by substituting the word "disburse" for the word "disperse."

All recommended changes in the constitution will be submitted for delegate approval at the Nov. 1 meeting.

B&S to Welcome Florida Tourists

OUT-OF-STATE square dancers visiting Florida will soon find Bow & SWING in the propaganda kit of literature available to all tourists. Arrangements are being made by Federation officials to have B&S available at the various Welcome Stations located along the Florida state line.

The procedure, when completed, will make the magazine available to interested out-of-state visitors and should enable them to arrange for local contacts with much less difficulty than in the past.

This promotion program is in line with the Federation's goal to broadcast the benefits of square dancing to more potential dancers, and to bring Bow & SWING to state-wide prominence.

Creel, Lackey Helsel, Warrick To Call in Oct.

COOLER WEATHER upcoming for the fall season has encouraged a surge of square dance activities around Florida. Most regional associations slate dances during October, and the schedule is complimented with traveling callers Johnny Creel, Harry Lackey, Lee Helsel and Red Warrick.

The East Coast Dancers in the Indian River area program Harry Lackey to call on Friday, Oct. 16, at Cocoa Armory. The West Coast Association has its Fifth Friday Dance upcoming for Oct. 30 at Lakeland Civic Center. Mel Clark and Roger Chapman will call and Ed and Kay Mack will handle the rounds.

The Central Florida Association has a Halloween dance set for Saturday, Oct. 31 at Leesburg. The local Armory is the site and Chuck Durant is the scheduled caller.

All dancers are invited to the Lee Helsel dance Oct. 31 at Sarasota's Municipal Auditorium. This event is under auspices of the Florida Callers Association which has its annual meeting at Sarasota during the weekend. The evening dance will have limited capacity, so early purchase of tickets is urged.

FFSD officers meet on Sunday, Nov. 1, at Sarasota's Holiday Inn for their annual meeting and election of officers.

Johnny Creel is booked for a Columbus Day Dance Oct. 12 at Sanford Civic Center under auspices of the Starlight Promenaders and the Sanford Recreation Department. Another traveling caller, Red Warrick, is slated to call an Oct. 26 dance at Lake City Armory.

In other dances of more than casual interest, Daytona area callers will sponsor a Surfside Swang Oct. 9-10 at the Voyager Motel, and Jay Penimore and Frank Bedell will hold another evening of merriment on Oct. 17 at Doric Temple, Fort Lauderdale.

Jacksonville area dancers will find much fun at the Oct. 31 Goblin Dance sponsored by the Starlite Shufflers. This annual event is planned for Phillips Hwy. Plaza.

Sarasota's Freelancers slate Frank Bedell on Oct. 14, J. P. Jett on Oct. 21, and Jim Pearson on Oct. 28. Dances are held at the Community House.

Square of the Month for October:

Stairway to Paradise

STAIRWAY to Paradise, Bow & SWING's Square of the Month for October, is a dance that "grows on you," according to Square Dance Coordinator Jay Fennimore of Hollywood. "It is a relatively easy dance pattern but the tempo of the dance is where the challenge lies," states Jay. "It's a rabble-rouser and everyone likes it who has danced it."

The dance was written by Earl Johnston of Vernon, Conn., and recorded on the Grenn label (No. 12064). Johnston also handles the called side.

Intro:

"How to Avoid Drop-Outs" was the feature title in a special issue of the adult education publication

Techniques, which struck the eye of Bill Muench the other day . . . "An adult has to run a physical and mental obstacle course" the article says, to get to any adult education activity . . . "More than two thirds of public school adult education students interviewed came to class for some reason other than the course content . . . Problem, it is concluded, is to find out what personal needs are to be met by—and meet them! . . . It may be a flat tire, an ailing child, poor parking facilities—but as a square dance leader it becomes your problem too!

Bow & SWING's new cover design comes from the talented pen of Bert Bennett of North Miami Beach . . . two years ago Bert was art director for the 11th National Convention at Miami Beach . . . Bert, a commercial artist by trade, also is a caller for the Palm Swingers in Hialeah on first and third Saturdays, and the Summit Squares in North Miami Beach every Wednesday.

Bow & SWING's workshop material for October is the product of Pete Sansom of West Palm Beach. The first figure, called Cleo, was written by Sansom during and for the hurricane of the same name.

CLINIC Held by Southeast Callers

SOUTHEAST Florida callers held their first clinic on Sunday afternoon, Sept. 13, with approximately 25 callers and their wives present. The clinic was the first of a series to help all callers better themselves and to help promote even greater square dance activity in the area.

The meeting was held at Jack Lasry's Trails End Square Dance Center and a buffet luncheon was served during the afternoon. The theme for this first meeting dealt principally with "One Night Stands" with panelist's Colin Walton, Gordon Blaum, Les Linn, Jack Lasry & Gene Baylis offering material, technique and practical suggestions for conducting a one night stand. Jay Fenimore served as moderator.

For the second section of the meeting, Gene Baylis gave a thorough talk and demonstration on sound, equipment, and how to get the sound you need, illustrating the difference in the many types of equipment available.

FCA Slates Lee Helsel at Sarasota

LEE HELSEL of Sacramento, Calif., will conduct the FCA callers clinic Oct. 30-Nov. 1 at Sarasota. Lee has been calling since 1946 and annually travels about 50,000 miles on calling trips.

Among the many square dances composed by Lee are Little Red Wagon, Lazy River, Cotton Candy, Hey Ma, and I Don't Know Why. Lee and his wife Mary have been busy in the round dance field with dances such as Sweet Georgia Brown and The Saints. Many of his numbers are recorded on the Sets in Order label.

Familiar personalities at square dance institutes and clinics, Lee and Mary have been staff members at Asilomar, Kirkwood, Banff, Funstitutes and Brookstitutes.

13th National Sees Over 100 Floridians

CLOSE TO 15,000 dancers attended the 13th National Square Dance Convention in Long Beach, Calif., this summer, making the convention the second largest on record.

Florida ranked 13th in attendance with 127 dancers registered. This compares with 18 Floridians who attended the 1956 convention at San Diego, Calif. "It may surprise some, but Florida has been represented at every National Square Dance Convention on record," reports Harry Moore of Miami Beach, an executive committee member for the National.

The 14th National committee planning the '65 convention at Dallas would like comments from the 127 Florida dancers attending the Long Beach event. Answers to the following questions are desired: Will you attend the 14th National? If not, why? What did you think was outstanding? What should be added to the program, or deleted from it? Did you have any difficulty or did problems arise during the convention that can be corrected?

Dallas wants to profit through experience of past conventions and eagerly solicits advice from Floridians. Write to Bow & Swing or to Harry Moore, 9233 Abbott Ave., Miami Beach, Fla. 33154.

Proof that sponsors of the 14th National are going all out to satisfy square dancers is shown by a Sept. 10 article in National Stamp News sent to Bow & Swing by Norma Darlin of Tampa.

It is reported that General Chairman Roy Long has started a 'Texas size' push to have the post office department issue a commemorative stamp in honor of the 14th National. It will take 'grass roots' action on the part of all square dancers, however, to put the deal across to the Postmaster General.

Florida square dancers are urged to write to Postmaster General John Gronouski, President Johnson, senators and representatives, explaining that square dancers deserve consideration for a commemorative stamp.

Advance registration application for programming and for hotel and Motel reservations at the Dallas convention can be had from the 14th National Committee, Box 8068, Dallas, Texas 75205.
