Fun and Fellowship Basics of Dancing

WELL DONE, Frank! All square dancers in the state should stand up and give a big hand to our retiring president Frank Cornwall. I know he doesn't care for fancy speeches, so I will let it go with a big "well done, Frank." You did a fine job and I only hope I can do as well.

This is the time of year that square dancing traditionally is well started into the coming square dance year with classes of eager beginners struggling with and having fun with the basics of square dancing, such as allemande left, allemande right, etc. But in a larger sense the real fundamentals or basics of square dancing are fun and fellowship.

Without these two being present in large amounts, square dancing loses its appeal, and many dancers join the long list of square dance dropouts.

A club that stresses these fundamentals has taken a giant step towards success. Naturally a good program and good calling are a must, also, but if the club places its emphasis on the so-called high level of its dancing and on the perfection of its members as dancers, its chances of survival are slim.

It behooves each of us to remind ourselves of these things frequently during the coming year and to remember that our clubs are made up of fine people who are a pleasure to know as individuals and not just good or bad dancers.

If all of us make a real effort to return to the real fundamentals of square dancing we may find that by the time the next season rolls around we will have cut dropouts by a very large percentage, leading to more and larger classes in the coming year.

It's worth a try—in your club!

Virgil Green Elected to FFSD Chairman Post at Orlando Meet

VIRGIL GREEN of Jacksonville was elected chairman of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers as the organization held its annual meeting in Orlando October 23 in conjunction with the annual Callers Clinic of the Florida Callers Association.

Sessions were held in the Robert Meyer Hotel, headquarters for the 1966 convention.

Adoption of the codified by-laws as published recently in Bow & SWING was the first order of business. Bill Fleshman of Jacksonville explained the changes, all of which had been previously adopted in one form or another.

Records for the Tampa convention were formally turned over to the federation by Matt Bryan and Walter Stoltz urged that a means of keeping these records in permanent form be devised by the secretary. President Cornwall thanked Bryan for his fine work in heading up the 1965 convention committee.

Fleshman commented on improvements in Bow & SWING and urged that every dancer subscribe to the publication. It was pointed out that the magazine can be placed in the hands of each beginning dancer if callers will request sample copies in quantity sufficient for each graduating couple. Callers still have the privilege of using Bow & SWING's graduating certificate which includes a six-month's subscription to the magazine at a special rate to be paid by the caller. Use of promotional copies of Bow & SWING was restricted to subscribers by action of the board of delegates.

Only a few places throughout the state capitalized on the governor's proclamation of Square Dance Week, it was pointed out, it was hoped future years would provide opportunity for more complete planning.

New delegates include Carl Law, Paul Lane, and Virgil Green of Jacksonville, and Bob Fulmer of Gainesville (Northeast Florida Association), Walter Stoltz and Chuck Johnson of Bartow, Matt Bryan of Tampa and Hink Smith of St. Petersburg (West Coast Association), Al Martin, Bob Brown, and Don Shell of Orlando, and John Sullivan of Daytona Beach (Central Florida Association). No delegates were named from the Southeast Florida Square and Round Dancers Association. New officers include Green as chairman, Stoltz, vice chairman, Brown, secretary and Bryan, treasurer.

Harold Jenkins congratulated Frank Cornwall on a very successful year as chairman and Green took over the gavel for new business.

Martin and Johnson were asked to make an audit of the treasurer's books. Jenkins reviewed plans to expand Bow & SWING to a 20-page issue and a motion to this effect was offered by Bryan.

The delegates agreed to contact of-officials of the Knothead and Callers groups with regard to a reprint of the promotional square dance folder.

A motion by Smith authorized deposit at savings interest of $1000 of the federation's funds. A suggestion that the 1966 convention registration be set at 50¢ per day higher than usual to include a snack at 11 o'clock was adopted by the board. $2 per day per person will include all admissions and the food.

FCA DUES PAYABLE SAYS TREASURER

AT THE recent Florida Callers Association meeting in Orlando, the group's treasurer Colin Walton, reminded members that dues are due and payable.

According to Walton, checks should be made payable to the Florida Callers Association and should be mailed to him. Walton's address is 632 Riverside Drive, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida 33403.

Florida Callers Elect Joe Johnson To Head New Slate of Officers

JOE JOHNSON of Windermere was elected president of the Florida Callers Association at their annual meeting in Orlando October 24.

The meeting was held in conjunction with their annual Callers Clinic, which featured Les Gotcher of La Puente, California.

Johnson succeeds Ed Newton of Sarasota. Other officers include Mel Clark of Lakeland, vice president; Vern Johnson of Fort Lauderdale, secretary; and Colin Walton of Palm Beach, treasurer. Directors include George Hoyt of Daytona Beach (Central Florida), Sam Prescott of Winter Haven (West Coast), Floyd Hazen of Jacksonville (Northeast Florida), Neil Blanchard of Fort Lauderdale (Southeast Florida), Kent Bartlett of Panama City (West Florida) and past President Newton, director at large.

The organization agreed to purchase a microphone sanitizer from the Dryster Corporation of Boca Raton for use at square dances where the state association equipment is used.

Newton thanked the members for their support during the past year and said 1964 and 65 was the "most successful from the standpoint of complaints, and gripes (or lack of them)."

D. J. Lynch, Jr., was named liaison officer for the Florida Federation of Square Dancers, working with FFSD President Virgil Green of Jacksonville. Green addressed the session briefly. Gordon Blaum will continue temporarily as square dance coordinator for Bow & SWING, Johnson said.

L. H. Weise of Orlando will serve as librarian, and has promised to provide a list of library items (tapes, textbooks, etc.) for publication in Bow & SWING. Members may order the library items without charge.

Mel Clark was named chairman of the education committee.

Sam Prescott took the floor to state that directors unanimously had acted to present honorary life memberships to Joe Curtis of Orlando and Harold Emery of West Palm Beach, and Ed Newton urged that a copy of a special tape of old time dances by Curtis be forwarded to Bob Osgood for the national library.

The meeting agreed to reimburse up to $200 the expenses of a callers clinic in the Southeastern area sponsored by the Southeastern Callers Association.

A March clinic is planned, with details to be announced later; Suncoast members urged the body to avoid March 19 weekend which is the date of the Suncoast Squar-a-rama.

Treasurer Walton urged members to notify Bow & SWING as well as the secretary of changes of address. "1966 dues are now due and pay-

Holiday Dance Fashions

WHAT will the ladies be wearing to the festive holiday dances coming up? A partial answer to this question can be found on these two pages, which feature fashion selections from top Florida square dance designers and clothiers.

Several weeks ago BOW & SWING wrote to these square dance outfitters asking them to submit their favorite holiday dance dresses for inclusion in this special feature.

Each of the dresses was designed especially for square dancing, with wide whirling skirts and lace, braid, ric rac, or glittering metallic trimming. The fabrics are easy to care for, many of them drip dry or wash 'n wear.

Stores and designers submitting fashion selections were Worth, Miami Beach; Bill Bettina, Miami; the Square Dance Corner, Wilton Manors; The Quality Shop, St. Petersburg; Chez Bea Square Dance Creations, North Miami; the Square Dance Shoppe, Sarasota; Plaza Western Wear, Jacksonville; and Parrish's Square Dance Shop, Lakeland.

A beau-catcher at any holiday dance is this 100% Arnel® crepe dress trimmed with ruffled cotton lace and glittering metallic lurex at the v-neck, sleeves and whirling skirt. It's designed by Fay Creations of Denver in pastels or dark colors with gold or silver trim, and available at Parrish's Square Dance Shop in Lakeland. Junior and Misses sizes. About $25.

Fashion designer Bill Bettina designed this dress for dancing. It features wide whirling skirt and braided ric rac and braid. Available in washable Georac in yellow, red, turquoise, taffy, beige, apricot, blue. Available at St. Petersburg, Florida. States and Canada. $25.

A lace trimmed skirt that whirls to a six-yard sweep is topped by a sissy lace bodice with puff sleeves in this Chez Bea design. Available at Chez Bea Square Dance Creations in North Miami, the dress is fashioned in green, pink, hot pink, lavender, blue, aqua, lime, red, white, yellow or black. Sizes 8 to 18 and half sizes. Dacron®-cotton blend, about $24. Cotton, about $19.

A ten-inch tier of lace and metallic sparkle at the skirt and scalloped collar enhances this dress from the Quality Shop at St. Petersburg. Styled with self belt, and cap sleeves, it's available in scarlet, black, light blue, avocado, tangerine, lilac, Nile green, pink, yellow, cinnamon, turquoise, and white. Designed by Bill Bettina in cotton broadcloth. Sizes 8 to 20. About $16.

The Square Dance Shoppe takes a basic broadcloth and adds a nylon dotted swiss trim. It's a signed outfit that can be worn with or without the overdress. Available in blue, pink, yellow, red and white. Overdress, about $9.

ettina of Miami created with rows of flashing metallic trim on the neck and skirt. Fashionette, it's available in white, pink, orchid, apple green, pink, brown, coral and shades of blue. It's throughout the United States. Sizes 8 to 20. About $30.

Half size figures will be flattered by this dance dress with a charm of an earlier era. Trimmings with lace and ric rac at the puff sleeves, neckline and four-tiered skirt, the dress features a slimming sash at the waist. It's a selection from the Square Dance Shop in Sarasota, which carries one of a kind fashions. Wash 'n wear 100% Dacron® whipped cream in maize. Half sizes. About $32.

Gold or silver ric rac and braid trim on the bodice and skirt plus a pert sash make this one-piece, short sleeve dress from Plaza Western Wear in Jacksonville a stand-out at special dances. The 100% cotton fabric is washable, drips dry in a wink and never needs ironing. A Maricapa design, it's available in black, red, turquoise. Misses' sizes 8 to 20. About $13.

ner at Wilton Manors shell and covers it with a dress for an A & B design worn three ways—with or without a blouse. Underneath, orchid, coral, Nile or white. Colors. Shell. Sizes 5 to 20.

A pretty look for festive dances is this two-piece dress from Worth fashions in Miami Beach. Lace and gold or silver trim circle the wide skirt, adorn the collar and create a V design on the bodice. It's fashioned in broadcloth, cotton georgette, Dacron®-cotton or whipped cream and available in white, black, and colors. Sizes 8 to 18 or made to measure. From about $15.

When rows of nylon lace trim a whirling skirt and slim bodice, the result is a dress any taw would love. Bow & Swing's Square of the Month for December:

I Thank My Lucky Stars

THE CALLING of Andy Andrus and the music of the Texans makes December's Square of the Month a stand-out. I Thank My Lucky Stars is recorded by Blue Star on label 1773. Gordon Blaum has created his own breaks for the dance.

BREAK

Do an allemande left like a daisy chain, go forward two and then
Right and left and turn back one, Right hand around again,
Go forward two with a left and right, turn back one and then,
Like an allemande that the gents back up and make a right hand star,
Then slip the clutch, skip one girl and you go left allemande,
Come on back and swing and whirl, then Promenade the land,
If I seem a little bit too much in love it's true I thank my lucky stars that I found a girl like you . . .

FIGURE

Four ladies chain, then you turn that pretty thing,
Reel away and circle left, go walking round the ring,
Head gents and a brand new girl, go forward up and back,
Star thru, pass thru and star thru again,
Then cross trail thru left allemande, then walk on by your maid,
Swing the right hand lady, and then you promenade,
We'll get back home and swing a while, then you'll know it's true,
I thank my lucky stars that I found a girl like you . . .

SLIDE THRU BREAK No. 1

By Gordon Blaum

Heads lead right and circle to a line
Forward eight and back, Pair Off—Peel Off
Slide Thru, All 8 Pair Off
Lead couple go left next couple right

SLIDE THRU BREAK No. 2

By Gordon Blaum

Promenade:
Heads wheel around Slide Thru, Star Thru
Wheel & Deal, Peel Off, Star Thru
Cross Trail thru to a Left Hand Swing
Men Star Right across the Ring

SLIDE THRU BREAK No. 3

By Gordon Blaum

Head two couples do a half sashay
Circle up eight while you're that way
Four boys go up to the middle and back
Slide Thru, Split the ladies
Both turn left single file around one
Down the middle do a Dixie Style to an ocean wave
Balance up and back! Gents turn back

Round Dance Spectacular at Sarasota For Sarasota

JANUARY 9 is the date set for the Florida Annual Round Dance Spectacular at Sarasota's Municipal Auditorium. Fetures of the program will be the presentation of new dances and old favorites by top round dance instructors and leaders, continuous dancing and a panel of teaching couples.

Teachers are being asked to select the old favorite they would like to show and cue at the event and notify Harold Eicher, 4865 Tri-Par Drive, Sarasota. Says Eicher, "This will permit all teachers in Florida to be informed as soon as possible what old favorites will be programmed so that their groups may 'bone up,' thus assuring a full floor for each and every dance."

The Sarasota Municipal Auditorium will provide 350 free balcony seats for spectators, and reports are that a local television station has expressed interest in taping part of the program.

Round Dancers Elect Fleshman

ROUND DANCE COUNCIL of Florida elected Bill Fleshman of Jacksonville as its president and perfected plans for the Spring Clinic in Lakeland's civic center March 12-13, with the Ramada Inn as headquarters, at the Nov. 14 meeting held in Kissimmee.

The all-day meeting included workshop sessions directed by Cliff and Lorraine Hendricks of Clearwater, with a short dance embracing squares and rounds.

Phil Betts of Cocoa Beach was elected vice president of the organization, and Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne and Ruth Curtis of Orlando succeed themselves as treasurer and secretary respectively. Fleshman succeeds Russ Ayrton of St. Petersburg. Former Vice President Frances Junkin of Lakeland will continue to serve the organization as round dance coordinator responsible for Bow & SWING's round of the month. Fleshman also appointed Mildred Uterhardt as publicity chairman.

Attendance at the workshop session, while officially restricted to members and callers, ran as high as 82 during the day, and spokesmen said it was most successful.

Praise for the fine wood floor in Kissimmee's community house was voiced repeatedly, and local arrangements included a luncheon and annual business session in the new Paddle Wheel Steak House.

"An awful lot of people working awful hard," Ayrton said, "were responsible for a very successful year." He especially mentioned his officers and the Hendricks.

Demonstrations included Green Tango by Louella Markle. A Walk in the Black Forest by Bill and Ruth Fleshman, Mardi Gras by the Chuck Richters, Moonlight Tango by the Hendricks, A Touch of Mexico by Helen Crout (who wrote it) and Sam Webb, Ramona by Al and Hazel Armstrong, and Dancing With You by Check and Kathy Heiss.

Techniques of teaching were demonstrated using Maria Elena (chacha) and Rhumba Rehan by Art and Dorothea Brammeier, Mannita Tango by the Hendricks, and a samba written to Tico Tico and taught by Ruth Bartley and Bob Waites.

At the evening dance, rounds were cued by John and Betty Jones, George and Helen Everett, Ray and Lora Bookmiller, and Paul and De-light Trent; and squares were called by Joe Johnson, Cliff Hendricks, Joe Curtis, L. H. Weise and Sam Allison.
