THE MAGAZINE OF SQUARE DANCING IN FLORIDA

Message from the President:

Promote Square Dancing During Dance Week

Governor Burns has proclaimed the first full week in October as Square Dance Week. This is a good time for all square dancers and callers to plan to promote square dancing on a level we like to see.

With our square dance leaders, dedication is not enough. To make meaningful efforts leaders must be knowledgeable as well as progressive. It would be well to read your constitution and By Laws to find out why they were organized and how they operate. Next, make a list of your plans and projects for the last year or so, and ask yourself if they have been adequate. Have they promoted the growth of square dancing in your area? If not, why haven't they?

A good place to bring your ideas and even failures is the Florida Federation of Square Dancers meeting in Orlando. There you may find out why those bright ideas failed to be the big successes you expected, and you may present an idea that would provide answers for many of the problems that face everyone promoting square dancing in Florida.

Most dancers are interested, also, in how the money your association made hosting the Florida Square Dance Convention is used. (Jacksonville was the first area association to receive part of the profits in 1963). Even though the convention publicity always makes it easier to recruit members for beginner classes, you can always hear someone say that they could really make progress if they had a couple of hundred dollars to spend.

The Florida Federation of Square Dancers election meeting, slated to be held in Orlando, October 23 at 2:00 p.m. at the Robert Meyer Motor Inn is open to all square and round dancers.

As we are on the threshold of splitting up the large associations into smaller localized associations, meetings of this type are even more important. If your area is organized and you represent enough clubs (approximately 16 or 300 dancers) have your elected officers and club delegates attend the Orlando meeting.

As this is a new venture we cannot promise any immediate results. This is a chance to find out what we can do to improve the all-over square dance movement in Florida.

As a point of interest to all subscribers of Bow & Swing, (Continued on page 14)

Roundup of Events for October:

Square Dance Week Is Coming Up

OCTOBER'S BIG NEWS is Square Dance Week, recently proclaimed by Florida's Governor Haydon Burns. Dancers from Miami to Jacksonville will be celebrating this exciting first week of the month.

Among the first Square Dance Week plans to be announced are those of the Tallahassee Capital Squares who will host the Dixie Federation Dance as a highlight of activity in their area. A caravan of dancers from the West Coast will travel to Tallahassee for the event.

The West Coast Association has laid plans to publicize Square Dance Week over radio and television. At a recent Association Executive Committee meeting it was decided that this type of promotion would be a boon to enlistment of new dancers for classes beginning this fall.

As soon as Square Dance Week is over, dancers will be planning costumes for the round of Halloween Balls.

The Starlite Shufflers' Goblin Dance, set for October 30 at the Jacksonville Mayflower Hotel, promises to be a big event for the Northeast.

Many Central Florida dancers will attend the Association dance at Sanford Civic Center with Colin Walton, October 30, while others will travel to Frontier Farms for the Jack-O-Lantern Jamboree, October 29 to 31.

Highlighting West Coast festivities will be the Fifth Friday Dance at Lakeland October 29 with Jim Pearson and the Junkins. Other West Coast dancers will do so-a day at the Sunshine Shufflers Halloween Costume Dance at Naples with Jake Shellnutt October 30.

Business is on the dancers' agenda for October, too. The annual meeting and callers workshop with Les Gotcher is set for October 22 at Orlando's Parliament Inn. October 23 will see the annual meeting of the FFSD at Orlando.

Federation Charter Revealed at FFSD Meeting in Clearwater

THE 1965 Florida Square Dance Convention netted $1025.19, Chairman Matt Bryan told the board of delegates of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers at their meeting in Clearwater during the Labor Day weekend.

A check for this amount was presented to the federation, which in turn presented a check for half to the Florida Callers Association, and a check for $205.04 to the West Coast Square and Round Dancers Association, the host organization. It is understood the Round Dance Council will participate in the Callers' share.

Treasurer Walter Stoltz reported the federation treasury stood at $2100.84 after settlement with the two associations with a few bills unpaid. He called attention to the fact that affiliated local associations are to pay their annual affiliation fee of $10 before October 1.

Chairman Frank Cornwall commented on improved postal service as a result of imprinting the words "second class" prominently on the cover of the August issue of Bow & Swing, asked Al Cody to explain a check for $33 from Cody Publications which represented a clearing of all magazine accounts between Cody's and the federation as of the end of August, 1965. To facilitate bookkeeping each monthly issue will appear on a separate ledger and statement in the future.

Bill Fleschman presented a codified version of the federation charter which is published below as official notice to affiliated local associations that it will be voted upon at the annual meeting of the Federation in Orlando, October 23.

Text of the charter follows:

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION of the FLORIDA FEDERATION OF SQUARE DANCERS, INCORPORATED

(Adopted as amended October 29, 1960, and revised through August 31, 1965)

We, the undersigned incorporators and founders do hereby mutually agree to unite and assemble together for the purpose of founding a body corporate not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, and to that end do make, execute and adopt the following articles of incorporation to be known as the "Charter."

3. The Florida Federation of Square Dancers shall have the power to raise and disburse moneys from such other sources and activities as may contribute to the purpose of this organization.

State Convention Plans to Be Voted at FFSD Meet in Orlando

A PROPOSAL to add 50¢ per day to the registration fee and provide a midnight snack for all dancers present at the 1966 state convention in Orlando was presented to the Florida Federation of Square Dancers and will be formally accepted or rejected at their October meeting.

Appointments to the general convention committee include George Everett, Maitland, pre-convention registration and housing; Howard Miller, Orlando, convention registration; Syd King, Orlando, treasurer; George Barton, Orlando, halls, booths and banners; C. J. Colodonato and Danny Robinson, Orlando, demonstrations; Bob Brown, Orlando, liaison with local officials; Irving Bell, Orlando, Jack Jackson, Winter Park, and Eric Sohn, Winter Haven, after-parties; Bill Beckett, Orlando, and Paul Harding, Windermere, greeters; Ed Sincic, Pine Hills, publicity; and Gerry King, Orlando, decorations.

Committees appointed by the Florida Callers Association and the Round Dance Council of Florida would participate in the programming of the dances and in the arrangement of the sound systems.

Without the refreshment fee, early bird registration would be $5.00 for the entire convention. After June 1 the full convention would be $6.00, one day only would be $3.00, Friday night only would be $2.00, it was proposed.

October 3 through 9 will be FLORIDA SQUARE DANCE WEEK

OCTOBER is a traditional time for recruiting of square and round dancers in Florida, and this year the full force of a gubernatorial proclamation will be added through the designation of the first week in October as Square Dance Week in Florida.

Governor Haydon Burns made it official on August 12 and proceeded to "heartily commend this form of recreation for all."

Just what form the observance of Square Dance Week will take throughout the state depends on the activity of local groups, but jamborees or rallies tying in with the occasion are being planned in Tallahassee and Jacksonville.

Members of the Round Dance Council who tabled action in June, went on record at their Labor Day meeting requesting that round dancing be officially included in any future proclamations. But everyone expected both round and square dancing to profit from the publicity.

Signed by the governor and countersigned by Secretary of State Tom Adams, the proclamation points to the general popularity of square dancing in Florida, adds that "it has proven highly entertaining and affords wholesome recreation for all, bringing close together all folks in all walks of life."

Proclamation Is Climax of Weeks of Work, Waiting

WELL, WE did it!

It was a Thursday morning when Barry Aronovitch, President of the Capital Squares, received a call to round up a photographer—he had an appointment with the Governor at high noon!

At precisely noon, the Governor graciously came into the anteroom where Aronovitch, the photographer and Bob Williamson were waiting. The Governor introduced himself and ushered the trio into his office to sign the proclamation. Shaking hands with the governor and thanking him on behalf of square dancing in general, Aronovitch gave him a badge prepared in advance, making him an honorary member of the Capital Squares, Tallahassee.

As the flashbulbs popped, one thought kept going through Aronovitch's mind—we've got it!

This was indeed an exciting moment for Aronovitch, whose efforts, beginning last January, had sparked a campaign to mark the first week of October as Square Dance Week.

Aronovitch says that the idea came to him at a Dixie Federation Callers meeting held in Georgia in January, when he realized that many mayors proclaim in certain weeks as Square Dance Week for their towns. This gave him the idea of going for the big one—a state-wide proclamation by the Governor for a Square Dance Week for all of Florida.

In order to get the necessary signatures, Aronovitch circulated a letter throughout Florida containing the petition requesting that the respective presidents sign it and mail it back to Tallahassee. Aronovitch says that he had many a concerned moment, worrying that the petition might get lost in the mail.

Finally, after two months of circulating, the petition, with its final signature, made its way back to Aronovitch. The following Monday the petition was presented by Williamson to the Governor's office for his consideration.

Pirates Capture Eau Gallie

THE JOLLY ROGER was flown atop the Eau Gallie Civic Center August 14th as Florida Pirates took over the Harbor City to hold their Spectacular 3rd annual costume ball.

Roaring cannons from the Spanish Galleon "Pandora" belched forth a broadside as the gala and most colorful ball began with a stirring presentation by the Hurricane Drum and Bugle Corps.

All dignitaries walked the plank, where they were greeted, with orchid corsages presented to their ladies fair. With a fanfare of trumpets and drums they were heralded aboard in order. Roy and Jeanne Armstrong, President of the host club Satellite Squares; Mayor and Mrs. Alger Smith who welcomed the Pirates to the Harbor City; Commissioner and Mrs. Vance Bell; Mrs. Barbara Madden of the Chamber of Commerce; Al and Dorothy Cody of Cody Publications and Frank and Marion Cornwall of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers.

After a colorful Grand March of the Pirates, led by the honored guests, callers Bob Rust and Chuck Durant changed 'pieces of eight' into 'squares of eight' as they treated the happy crew to an exhilarating evening of square dancing pleasures, with John and Betty Jones directing the rounds.

For her outstanding work in promoting area Square Dancing, Lucille Kahn, Society editor of the Melbourne Daily Times, was presented the Florida Pirates Honorary Award.

Chief Pirate John Donelly was more than happy with the turn out of his unique crew, and declares that the log book now lists approximately 2,000 Pirates hailing from over 106 clubs.

Round Dance Council Plans at Clearwater

MEMBERS of the Round Dance Council of Florida discussed plans for a national leader workshop in Lakeland in March, and for the annual meeting in Kissimmee November 14, at a meeting held in Clearwater during the Labor Day weekend.

President Russ Aykron appointed By Markle of Venice, Harry Howe of Miami, and Bill Flesham of Jacksonville as a nominating committee and named Clare and Fran Malhot of Clearwater to audit the council's financial records.

The Sunday session in Kissimmee is to include a luncheon meeting as well as panel discussions under the chairmanship of Cliff and Lorraine Hendricks of Clearwater. Pete and Ann Peterman of Fort Worth will be on hand for the two-day session in the civic auditorium in Lakeland March 12-13, it was stated. Ramada Inn will be headquarters.

Plans to participate in state Square Dance Week, which is designated to kick off recruiting of square and round dancers for the fall season, were discussed, and it was asked that round dancing be officially included when future promotions are planned.

Gene and Ima Baylis presented their resignation from the council because of their retirement from active round dance teaching, but the group responded by quickly voting them honorary members. Baylis was a pioneer round dance leader who with his wife presented numerous dances to statewide groups including several of their own choreography.

Nomads Give Dance To Benefit Scholar

A RECENT DANCE sponsored by the Florida Nomads was held to help a young graduate attend college.

Don Rupert, a recent high school graduate, had planned to go to college until his father was stricken with a heart attack. Don's mother is an invalid and is unable to help with college expenses. The Nomads, hearing of the boy's plight, arranged for a dance in his benefit.

Calling for the dance were Ed Clark, Frank Bedell, Bob Cook, Harvey Carver, Bobby Andrews, and Roger Chapman. Brad Strong headed the committee.

West Coast to Promote Square Dance Week

AT THE SEPTEMBER 12 meeting of the West Coast Square and Round Dance Association Executive Committee meeting, retiring President Walter Stoltz introduced officers-elect who will be installed in October.

Presented were President J. Wariner "Hink" Smith and his Tay Marian, Corresponding Secretary. Also on the new team is Vice-President Larry Cleverger. Troy Harre was announced as Treasurer, and Lisle Harre was named as Recording Secretary.

Final details were reviewed on the Fifth Friday Dance to be held at the Lakeland Civic Center on October 29, with Jim Pearson calling and the Junkins handling the rounds.

Plans were made to publicize Square Dance Week through newspapers, radio and television, in time to enlist new dancers in classes beginning in the area.

It was announced that a group of West Coast area dancers are planning to attend the Dixie Federation Dance in Tallahassee. Anyone interested in joining the caravan should contact Walter Stoltz in Bartow.
