Message from the publisher:

Rates Must Go Up

IN AN EFFORT to maintain the high quality standards which have been set for Bow & SWING the federation's advisory committee has agreed that subscription rates will be increased to $3.00 per year, effective with orders postmarked after December 31, 1966.

This will necessarily affect the wholesale subscription rates granted to affiliated associations.

In making the change the committee pointed out that advertising rates have twice been raised during the history of the publication and that advertisers are bearing their full burden in maintaining the magazine.

Subscribers' renewals for single or multiple-year terms, and gift subscriptions at the special multiple-year rates will be honored at old rates during the month of December. So—save money by sending in your renewal now: One year $2; two years $3, four years $5. Or enclose your gift list with $2.00 for the first name (may be your own renewal) and $1.00 each for each additional name.

Message from the editor:

You Can Help

WITH THE end of another year for Bow & SWING, the staff would like to thank the people who make the magazine possible—the correspondents, dancers and callers who spend time and effort gathering news; the FFSD and association officers who help guide us; the publications committee co-chairmen Hink Smith and Harold Jenkins.

Now that the magazine is on a 16-page format and space for news is less than it was last year, we'd like to ask everyone's help in putting the news to work in a way that does square dancing the most good. Make news reports as brief as possible. Put the most important things (like coming events) first and add accounts of past club events if space allows. Keep in mind that the 10th of every month is the due date for news. With the smaller format, there will be less space for adding late news.

BOW & SWING is published monthly by Cody Publications, Inc., 410 W. Verona Street, Kissimmee, Fla. 32741 for Florida Federation of Square Dancers. Second class postage paid at Kissimmee, Florida. Subscription price $3.00 per year, included in membership for Florida Callers Association, certain area associations affiliated with the federation. Florida Knotheads fee includes subscription for one half year which may be added to any existing subscription upon notice to publisher.

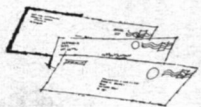

Notice of change of address, subscription renewal, and other circulation correspondence should be accompanied by recent address label. Complete address, including ZIP code is required.

Dear

Bow & Swing

WE JUST encountered the most super de luxe brand of rudeness in our two years of square dancing. We're just fresh down from the north and wanted to attend a good intermediate workshop. We had been invited to attend one last year, but after two sessions decided we weren't up to it with only a year's experience, even though we average two to three dances a week. This year we went again to the same group. It isn't listed in Bow & SWING, but they took our $2 without question. As far as we know, it is not a "closed club."

We noticed that whatever square we joined always had to wave arms to fill up, unless we went to one composed of northern visitors or elderly couples. However, we were having such a good time learning "load the boat," "trail off," "pair, peel and bend," and "swing circulate" that we were prepared to make that weekly workshop a steady date until we went to join a square, beckoned in by one nice couple. After we were there, another woman came to our position and stood there, staring at us, until in embarrassment we left the square. Then her partner joined her and took our positions. If they'd even said, "Sorry, but we four couples like to dance together, would you mind leaving?" we wouldn't have felt so badly. We joined an elderly couple we'd been with before, but no one joined us. The caller noted single couples were needed in several squares, but when we or the other couple stepped their way, couples from the sidelines jumped in and filled the groups before we could get there. I know you'll think, seeing it was our first visit to the group this year . . . that we were so bad we were out of our element. Really this wasn't so. We even helped pull through some of the slower outsiders on several of the new calls.

At the end of the call, we left the hall. Needless to say, we shan't return. If we had enough nerve and forced ourselves on them for a couple of weeks till we were more familiar with the new calls, I think we could prove ourselves acceptable dancers, but who has the stamina to do that in an activity that is supposed to be for fun? A couple more unpleasant episodes like that one and we'd be off square dancing, our favorite recreation, for life!

Please sign me "sadder but wiser" as I don't want to be identified by name or town. The caller was excellent and his wife pleasant when she helped fill out one square with us. We hope to enjoy them when he guest calls at our club, but that won't take the place of learning at his unfriendly workshop!

I don't think there's anything you can do about this. At least it gets it off my chest.—SADDER but WISER.

I WOULD like to thank you for your fine magazine and the assistance it has been to me while forming a square dance program at McCoy AFB (Orlando). I'm on temporary duty at Kadena Air Force Base, Okinawa . . . calling for the Oki-Docers of Naha, a real good group of dancers.

I brought sample copies of Bow & SWING with me and passed them out the other night. Everyone was impressed with them. Keep up the good work, will be back around the 1st of April '67.—BERLON GRAHAM.

(The following letter is an answer to the letter from Thelma and Lawrence Bradshaw in the November issue. The Bradshaws wrote to Bow & Swing asking information about retirement spots in Florida where they can enjoy a travel trailer, a Dachshund pup, and square dancing.)

DEAR THELMA AND LAWRENCE, just read your letter in Bow & SWING and thought we might give you a little information. Enclosed is a brochure on our park. There are places to rent here in the pet section and we think you would like it. We have a dog and will admit there aren't many places that allow pets—unless it is a small dog.

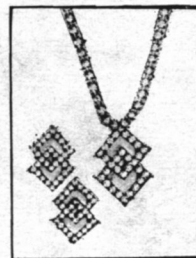

We square dance and Uncle Walt calls here twice a week. We started dancing here two years ago and love it. There are also other dances around with good callers. We have been dancing all summer. Let us know when you are coming and perhaps we can be of some help.—ETHEL and LOU SCOTT, Ranchmobile, Clearwater.

Bow & Swing's Parade of Club Badges

WE THOUGHT it would be fun to show badges from square and round dance clubs around the state. Several months ago we began asking clubs to send their badges to Bow & Swing for this feature—and here they are! One disappointment was that several badges could not be reproduced for the magazine. The names on the badges have been inked out at the request of club members sending them in. Our 'special thanks' go to club members who sent in badges and waited patiently for their return.

'Toys' Dance Set for December 7

NEWLY-ELECTED NEFSDA President Chet Vetter of Gainesville presided over a good attendance of association delegates at the bi-monthly meeting held at the Mayflower Hotel, Jacksonville, November 7. All NEFSDA officers were on hand to hear the report from chairman Bob Ross on final plans for the Fall Round-Up, held November 11 and 12 in Jacksonville.

State Convention Chairman Carl Law reported that arrangements for the 1967 State Convention were nearing completion. Jim Whiteman displayed a flyer which was distributed at the Fall Roundup, advertising the Spring Fling to be held at the Ramada Inn, Gainesville, April 21 and 22, sponsored by the NEFSDA and the Gainesville Square Dance Council.

Congratulations were extended to outgoing FFSD President Virgil Green on his appointment to the executive committee and to Paul Lane on election as FFSD secretary.

Delegates voted to request the Doerings to take over the printing of the Grapevine, at least on a temporary basis, and decided to sponsor a Toys for Tots Dance December 7 for the benefit of underprivileged children.

The Toys for Tots dance will be held at Phillips Highway Plaza, with admission being a toy (either new or in good condition). Toys will be turned over to the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce for distribution to needy children at Christmas. Callers for the dance will be Eddie Millan and Floyd Hazen, both donating their services. The hall is also being donated, given by the merchants of the Phillips Highway Plaza.

Virgil Green made a plea for greater support of Bow & SWING on the part of area clubs, particularly in the Where to Dance section.

The next regular association meeting will be held at the Ramada Inn, Gainesville, January 8.

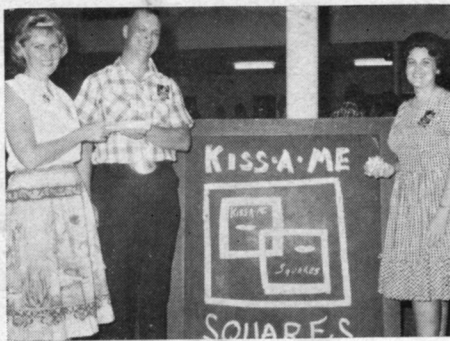

□ Paltaka Kaper Kutters are sponsoring the second annual new dancers' hoedown December 3 at Union Hall, Palatka. . . Kutters say the response to the dance has been enthusiastic and they expect a lively group of "old timers" to attend and dance with the beginners at about an eight-or-ten-week level.

□ Orange Park Promenaders say they are proud of the exhibition given by Floyd Hazen's Young Folk at the Fall Roundup. . . the Young Folk have made many similar appearances this year. . . some of the Promenaders were wearing new outfits at the Roundup. . . the club will continue its custom of inviting its beginners' class to the annual Christmas party.

□ Callers Bill Spiedel and Ken McCartney are billed for the first annual Spring Fling, set for April 21 and 22 at the Ramada Inn, Gainesville. . . both callers are from Lincoln, Nebraska. . . Florida favorites Ed and Kay Mack of Clearwater will handle rounds.

□ Fun and Frolics, Jacksonville, count their October 4 Circus Party a success. . . the dance will become an annual affair.

□ Up in the Panhandle, Capital Squares, Tallahassee, have been busy raising funds for their 5th Annual Cotillion, to be held May 13. . . recent events for the Squares were a Hawaiian luau, an "Arky" Halloween party where prizes were awarded John Catler and Charles Holleman, and a trip to Sasser, Georgia to dance to caller Vaughan Parrish.

Left, the newly-formed Kiss-A-Me Squares of Kissimmee are off to a bang-up beginning. Here, the caller's wife, Mrs. Hank Hancock, and club presidents Roy and Joyce Huguley pose with the new banner made by the Huguleys. Right, Satellite Beach Civic Center was the scene of a surprise party for Allemanders' caller Chuck Durant, honoring Chuck's fourth year of calling.

Central Florida News Notes:

CFSDA to Hold January 15 Dance, Potluck Supper at Kissimmee

THE CENTRAL Florida Square Dancers Association has set January 15 for its first 1967 dance. The event, a covered dish supper and dance, will be held at the Community House, Kissimmee, beginning at 2:00 p.m.

The dancing will continue until a supper break at 5:00, resume until about 7:30. Jack Jackson of Winter Park will call and Ray and Lora Bookmiller of the Klassy Kats will handle rounds.

□ Canaveral Squares, Cocoa, capped November with a Turkey Trot on the 22nd. . . the club's class will join with regular members for a December 13 pot luck supper and dance.

□ Recent events for the Swinging Squares, Mims, have been open houses, a banner-stealing expedition to the Titusville Twirl-A-Ways, and a Sunday afternoon dance and pot luck supper.

□ Two guest callers are billed by the Orla Vista Firehouse Squares for early December. . . December 3 John Saunders, Daytona Beach, will call and December 17 guest Bob Bland will be at the mike for a White Elephant Dance.

□ A fifth anniversary was celebrated by the Missile Twisters, Melbourne, with an afternoon workshop, potluck dinner and evening dance October 15. . . over 150 dancers came to Trailer Haven to dance to the calling of Jim Rice and the live music provided by the Rhythm Rustlers. . . Art and Dorothea Brammeier provided round dance instruction. . . five year pins were presented to original members Madeline and Shep Sheppard, Flo and Leon Wolverson, and to Dorothea and Art Brammeier, Laura and Jim Rice and Phil Magella.

□ Kiss-A-Me Squares, lively new club at Kissimmee, have elected officers . . . Roy and Joyce Huguley will serve as presidents, Fred and Edith Clancy as vice presidents, Felton and Roxie Williams as secretary-treasurers, Milo and Joan Forsmoe as recreation chairmen, and Stanley and Doris Anthony as host and hostess. . . November 21 the club moved its dancing site from the Community House to the Youth Center Building. . . Hank Hancock is caller for the club.

□ A new club is getting started on Merritt Island. . . the Cocoa Poinsettters began classes November 23 at the Kiwanis Club Building with caller Jack Hays instructing.

□ Bill Ford of Maitland will be guest caller for the Orlando Whirl and Twirl club December 2. . . the club will graduate its class of 26 couples the last of December. . . Danny Robinson is club caller, and will be guest calling himself this month. . . dates include December 1 for the Forest Hillbillies, Tampa; December 7 for the Starlight Promenaders, Sanford; December 22 for the Sunshine Shufflers - Kriss Kross Squares' Christmas Dance, Naples; and December 31 for a New Year's Eve dance at Englewood.

□ Allemanders, Melbourne, surprised caller Chuck Durant with a party celebrating his fourth year of calling for the club. . . Chuck was paraded around the hall on the shoulders of Bob McCumber and Kenny Young, was presented with a special cake and trophy served by Estelle and Ernie Tuckmantel and Evelyn and Bill Payette. . . Chuck and his wife Naomi were also given an enlarged colored snapshot of themselves made into a puzzle and serenaded with a song made up by Connie Bratton.

News from the West Coast:

Bryan Gives Seven Point Program

A SEVEN POINT program for the West Coast Square and Round Dancers' Association was outlined by WCSRDA President Matt Bryan at an October 30 meeting. The seven major objectives of the association, given by Bryan, are;

(1) Sponsoring beginner classes; assisting the clubs in forming new classes; assisting the clubs in getting drop-outs back into dancing.

(2) Fostering a spirit of goodwill and cooperation among the clubs, dancers, and callers.

(3) Making the WCSRDA the clearing house for all clubs, dancers, and callers, for the collection and dissemination of information and the settling of complaints.

(4) Securing the names of the clubs affiliated with the WCSRDA, names of officers, callers, dates and places they dance; maintaining this data in a current status to preclude conflict with club dates when scheduling WCSRDA functions.

(5) Getting new people interested in working in the WCSRDA and the state federation.

(6) Urging all dancers and clubs to take a more active interest in Bow & SWING, with the WCSRDA the focal point for all complaints, suggestions for improvement, etc., relative to the magazine.

(7) Encouraging dancers to parparticipate in WCSRDA activities; encouraging clubs to support the association by not scheduling dances for the Fifth Fridays; and issuing an open invitation to all Square Dance Callers and Round Dance Teachers to attend the WCSRDA dances free of charge.

□ Buttons and Bows of Englewood will have guest callers Bill Williams, Bob Dawson and Eric Sohn for regular December dances, and plan to climax the month with their New Year's Eve celebration. . . the dance, called by Danny Robinson of Orlando, will be preceded by a covered dish supper.

□ New beginner classes on the West Coast are underway. . . the classes include Eric Sohn's group at Boulevard Recreation Center, Tampa; Skeeter Chauvin's class at Zephyrhills Civic Auditorium, sponsored by Boney's Western Wear; and Skeeter Chauvin's new class at Temple Terrace Recreation Department.

□ Plans have been completed for the Pirates Dance to be held at Curtis Hixon Convention Hall, Tampa, November 26, with Frank Bedell calling. . . round dancing will begin at 3:00 p.m., continue until 5:00, then resume at 7:00 until the evening dance begins at 7:45.

□ Tampa Toppers say a few tickets are still available for their New Year's Eve dance, and dancers planning to attend should make their reservations soon, Eric Sohn and Jim Rice will call for the event.

□ Sandspurs, Auburndale, are looking ahead to their January 7 dance with nationally-known caller Frankie Lane at the Lakeland Civic Center.

□ Guest callers for the Kriss Kross Squares in December will be Roger Chapman and Frank Bedell. . . the Squares will join with the Sunshine Shufflers for a Christmas Dance at Naples December 22 and a New Year's Eve bash with Ernie Bass at Fort Myers.

□ L. H. Weise of Orlando will be guest caller for the Bar None Squares, Wauchula, December 3.

□ A new club, the Imperial Squares,

Squares and Pairs of St. Pete recently received a pair of wooden shoes from caller J. P. Jett who is on a tour of duty in Holland. Shown with the shoes are: (from left) Russ and Mabel Ayrton, Vice Presidents Ray and Kay Gillan, Treasurers Art and Margaret De Sarmo, Presidents Ed and May Detraz, and Secretaries John and Ruth Kincaid.

was formed this month in Lakeland. . . the club will dance first and third Fridays with guest callers. . . December 2 Bob Arnold of Tampa will call, and December 16 Bob Rust of Daytona Beach will call.

□ Lakeland's Red Hot Trotters have set December 10 for the annual Toys for Tots Dance, with admission being one new toy per person. . . several local callers will share the mike. . . club caller Bill Williams is conducting class and workshop Wednesday nights at the Square Dance Center.

□ Cliff and Lois Rezak will stage their eighth annual New Year's Eve smorgasbord December 31 at the Land O'Lakes Community Center. . . admission is by ticket only with squares limited. . . the Rezaks are busy with open dancing first and third Saturdays at the Community Center, dancing first and third Thursdays at the Roy Haynes Center, and a beginners class at Brandon, sponsored by the Hillsborough County Recreation Department.

□ Squares and Pairs of the St. Petersburg YWCA have started off their dance season with a good turnout to the calling of Ed Newton and guest callers. . . the Ayrtons, Mabel and Russ, are leading round dances. . . the club's annual Christmas party will be held December 16, with dancers bringing gifts for children which will be turned over to the Salvation Army.

□ Lakeland round dancers and friends turned out for a farewell party for Fran and Verne Junkin in October. . . the hall was decorated Hawaiian style and Hazel Reed and Marion Williams gave Verne a Polynesian greeting on his arrival. . . callers Bill Williams and Phil Reed called the squares, and Phil cued the rounds. . . the Junkins are in Oregon training for Vista.

□ Circle Squares, Tampa, gave a surprise party for caller Fred Christophers recently to celebrate "Chris'" 30th year of calling. . . the Squares presented Chris with a large anniversary cake decorated with records and dancers. . . Chris has called for the club for two years.

□ Crosstrail Squares, MacDill Air Force Base, Tampa, have moved their dance nights to first, third and fifth Fridays to permit dancing in base service club Saturday nights. . . Bill Grant is caller for the club.

□ Two big events are coming up for the Sunshine Shufflers, Naples, in January—a dance with Al Aderente of New Jersey January 7, the Pirates Ball with Mel Clark and Frank Bedell January 28.

□ A new group of dancers, all employees of Honeywell in Clearwater, began classes with Bob Arnold of Tampa November 14. . . the new group has been sparked by Charlie Goss, who began campaigning for a recreation hall and square dancing five years ago. . . the recreation hall has become a reality and will be used by 45 couples.

Holiday is 'Best Yet'

WITH A total registration of 94 couples, the 1966 edition of the Holiday for Rounds ranked as one of the best in Round Dance Council history and members gave a standing ovation for Byron Markle of Bradenton who planned the show.

He had an assist from Colin Walton, who made arrangements to use the still incompleated Colonnades Beach Hotel.

At the business session Nov. 6 Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne was elected president of the Council, Markle, vice president, Mrs. Frances Malhiot of Clearwater, secretary, and Ruth Curtis of Orlando to treasurer.

Considerable discussion centered around a tentative report by a special committee on by-laws and charter revision, and Kay Mack of Clearwater asked for additional members on the committee. Al Armstrong of Clearwater, Russ Ayrton of St. Petersburg, and Clare Malhiot were named to serve with Bob Waites and Mrs. Ruth Bartley of Gainesville, and Mrs. Mack.

President Brammeier appointed Markle as round dance coordinator and Bow & SWING correspondent, asked Mrs. Malhiot to serve as Round Dancer Magazine correspondent. Freshman was asked to be in charge of round dance programming for the 14th annual state convention.

After a trail dance featuring the calling of Bill Bliss and Walton Friday night, "Holiday" got down to business Saturday morning with the presentation of their latest dance, Non Dimenticar ("Don't Forget") by Oscar and Frances Schwartz (Dancelong 6061). During the afternoon session Pat and Bill Bliss of Fort Lauderdale taught Suzette (Belco 220), and Art and Dorothy Brammeier taught You and Me (Grenn 14039). At the evening dance Ed 'n Kay Mack taught the waltz, Song of Love (Grenn 14091) and Russ and Mabel Ayrton of St. Petersburg taught Silver Dollar (Hi Hat 833). The Sunday afternoon program featured Houston (WW 302), taught by Bill and Alma Fairchild of Hialeah, and Florida (Decca 28952) by Maurice and Margaret Pavane.

Intermission demonstrations were given by Helen Crout and Sam Webb, Bobbie Dillon and Johnny Gudor.

When does a Ripple become a Wave? Here is the first photo of the "Ocean Ripples"—first beginners dancer class sponsored by the Miami Beach Ocean Waves, under the tutelage of caller George Campbell at the Hayloft in Miami. George reports the Ripples (entire group now numbers almost six squares) are an alert and enthusiastic group of beginners.

Southeast Florida News:

December 11 is Date for Monthly Association Meeting and Dance

DECEMBER 11 is the date of the next Southeast Association afternoon meeting and dance. The event, which is held every month, is set for Lew's Ponderosa in Miami.

The session will begin with a meeting of association officers and delegates and interested dancers. Following the meeting there will be dancing to area callers.

The Association held its Welcome Back Jamboree Dance November 18 at Adelphi Hall, North Miami, with Jay Fenimore at the mike.

□ Cross Trailers Deerfield Beach, will observe the holidays with a Christmas Party December 17 and a New Year's dance and buffet December 31. . . the New Year's affair will be a ticket dance, and tickets are available from club caller Colin Walton and club members.

□ Cloverleaf Squares have a feature tip at their Thursday dances that has proven popular with everyone. . . for this one tip none of the Cloverleaf regular couples can dance together as partners. . . they ask a visitor to dance and try to get into a square that does not contain their regular partner. . . prize winners at the club's Halloween costume party were Bob and Lil Dickman, Bill and Boots Clements and Marjorie Messina. . . club member Betty Meo will be sidelined with a broken toe.

□ Summit Squares, North Miami, will celebrate the move into their new hall with a dance November 30 called by Neal Blanchard, Fort Lauderdale, and club caller Bert Bennett. . . the club's Halloween party saw prizes for winning costumes go to Buddy and Nita Shelton, Dale and Jackie Johnson and Bud and Peggy Reed. . . beginning in December the Squares will dance second and fourth Wednesdays.

□ Rhythmaires, Fort Lauderdale, will be dancing at the Promenade International February 24. . . "More news about this next month", says correspondent Bernadette Dumm. . . the club's Halloween was colorful, with prizes going to Mike and Pat Pownsend, Steve and Barbara Seniw, Harry and Pat Hackett and Regis and Bernadette Dumm. . . an idiot party was held at caller Blanchard's house November 5, and is now recorded on film for posterity.

Grand Squares of Miami won their "bruise and cruise" badges at their first annual roller skating square dance party.

□ The December caller schedule for the Miami Beach Ocean Waves will be: December 5, George Campbell; December 12, Colin Walton; December 19, George Campbell; and December 26, Frank Bedell, at an "after Christmas" dance. . . the Ocean Waves, with its Miami Beach sister club the Sun-Dancers, will again act as co-hosts for this year's New Year's Square Dance sponsored by the Miami Beach Recreation Division, directed by Jack Woody . . . the dance will be held December 31 at the Ocean Front Auditorium, Miami Beach, beginning at 10:00 p.m. . . Frank Bedell will call.

□ Square dancers in Key West were justly proud of themselves November 10 when they won the trophy for the most unique entry in the city's Veteran's Day parade. . . the clubs, Nautical Wheelers and Key West Squares, teamed up to travel the parade route aboard one of the city's Conch Tour Trains. . . 19 times the dancers left the train to dance for the thousands of people lining the streets. . . callers were Henry Purcell and Byron Lowey.

□ Grand Squares, Miami, have set December 23 for a Christmas benefit dance for the Parkinson's Foundation . . . to collect the funds, the club sets up a dollar bill decoration tree, where dancers pin their donations. . . November 5 the club held its first annual roller skating square dance party.

□ Westernaires, Miami, say their Pirates Ball was a big success and they are grateful to Chief Pirate John Donnelly and his wife for making the long trip from Cocoa Beach to help stage the event. . . a pot luck supper is set for the club November 26, and the December 24 dance has been cancelled.

□ The Dixieland Squares, newly reorganized Miami club, are now dancing three to four squares in their new hall and are looking for visitors. . . a new Year's Eve Party is in the making and a class will be graduating the same night, December 31.

□ Star Promenaders, Hialeah, ended the month of October with a gala costume party and dancing called by Frank Bedell. . . the club is keeping "in the swing" with a workshop twice a month.

□ Dixie Twirlers, Miami, recently elected new officers. . . they are Presidents Art and Terry Christopher, Vice Presidents Frank and Margaret Colbach, Secretaries Trudy and Bob Kay, Treasurer Louise Green and Glen Scott, refreshments Betty and Bob Burman, sunshine chairmen Reba and Bob Shaffer, Entertainment Gwen and Charles Peacock, Carol and Lew Green . . . the club's Christmas party will be held December 23, and members are to "bring inexpensive gifts for exchange with the same sex." . . . club members are also involved in an effort to interest new people in dancing a party to which each couple hoped to invite a non-dancer couple was planned for November 18, with Lew Green's classes set to begin November 23, 30 and December 1.

Bow & Swing's Square of the Month for December:

'I Get the Blues'

THIS is a sophisticated modern sound, reports coordinator Chuch Durant. I Get the Blues When It Rains is recorded on Blue Star #1792 by Marshall Flippo, backed up by a group called the "Sugarland Brass."

Chuck says the sound is similar to the brass groups now hitting it off in the popular music field.

INTRO: BREAK: ENDING
Do sa do the partner, join hands make a ring
You circle to the left around, left allemande
Do sa do and promenade this Jane
It rained when I found you
It rained when I lost you
That's why I'm so blue when it rains

FIGURE
Four ladies chain 3/4 round
Heads Promenade 1/2 way round
Lead right and circle, you'll make a line of four
Go forward eight, then come back
Star thru once more
Pass on thru, U turn back swing thru
Ladies trade, swing that little Sue (Prom)
It rained when I found you
It rained when I lost you
That's why I'm so blue when it rains

□ Florida caller material this month comes from Fred Christopher of St. Petersburg. . .

□ Florida callers will be participating in the Okefenokee Square-Up at Waycross, Georgia, January 13 and 14. . . included on the staff are Bob Rust of Daytona, Frank Redell of Mirimar, Chuck Durant of Ormond Beach, Irv Elias and Carl and Joyce Bornman.

□ Two out-of-state callers have written to say they'll be touring the state in '67. . . they are Marty Winter of Cresskill, New Jersey, who will be in Florida next February; and Bob Baillie of Andover, Massachusetts, who will be traveling in the state next August. . . both are hoping to line-up dates. . . interested clubs should write to BOW & SWING.

□ Frank Bedell and Jay Fenimore, just back from their successful 6th Expedition, say the three-day trip was enjoyed by everyone. . . photos of the Expedition will appear in next month's BOW & SWING.

□ Ed Clark says his "calling name" from now on will be Eddie Dollar.

Flunk Goff, caller for the Tallahassee Capital Squares, places a lei on Edith Kelly during the recent Hawaiian luau at the home of Mildred Kearton.

Caller Fred Christopher cuts the huge 30th anniversary cake given him by the Circle Squares at a party celebrating Fred's 30th year of calling.

Bow & Swing's Round of the Month for December:

Oh You Kid

Bow & SWING's Round of the Month for December is Oh You Kid, written by Dot and Date Foster of Decatur, Illinois. It is recorded on Hi-Hat #831.

Oh You Kid was first taught at the September evaluation meeting by Verne and Fran Junkin, where it was runner-up. In the absence of the Junkins, it was reviewed by Tom and Sue McRorie of Gainesville at the October meeting.

It has become customary to consider the previous month's runner-up along with the new dances taught at each meeting.

Position is open, facing the line of direction, inside hands joined. Footwork is opposite throughout.
