Message from the President:

Square Dancing is Fun For Almost All Ages

ONE OF THE happier aspects of modern western style square dancing is its almost universal appeal to all age groups. In Florida we have clubs made up of pre-teens, teen-agers, as well as adult groups and senior citizens. It is not too uncommon to find at least two and often three generations dancing and enjoying their own or mixed clubs. This is a healthy condition and one that should be expanded as far as possible.

The large numbers of pre-teens and teen groups that participate in square dancing in our state augers well for the future of our favorite form of recreation inasmuch as many of these young people continue to dance as adults. Provided, of course, that we manage to keep square dancing as a recreational form appealing to the many and not to the few. This is vital and cannot be stressed too much.

In many areas of our state our senior citizens have their own clubs and to them it gives welcome relief from the boredom of retirement and advancing age. It can be truly said that square dancing appeals to all youngsters from 8 to 80.

I believe that this family appeal is one of the very real strengths of square dancing and maybe should receive more stress than it has received to date. We read all kinds of articles that point up the decline of the family as an important unit in society under the pressures of high speed living and which is contributing to the moral decline in America.

Perhaps the family that participates in square dancing will have some small degree of greater cohesiveness and in its own way help to stem this trend. Most families that have at least some likes in common, whether it is square dancing, bowling, music, etc. have a greater tendency toward close relationships between its members than one that goes strictly in many directions at once.

This, is just one more reason, that we all should do all we can to promote square dancing as a recreational activity for many people regardless of their station in life or their ability to dance frequently or infrequently. There must be room for all.—VIRGIL GREEN.

Dear

Bow & Swing

National Magazine Interested

WE ARE interested in an article which appeared in your July Bow & SWING magazine. It was titled "What's In a Workshop" and was written by Jack Lasry.

May we have your permission to reprint this or excerpts from it in Sets in Order? We would appreciate this and will look forward to hearing from you. Naturally, full credit would be given the source.—HELEN OREM, Assistant Editor, Sets in Order.

(We're always pleased when a nationally-circulated magazine is interested in reprinting articles from Bow & Swing. And we think dancers all over the country will enjoy Jack's article as the Florida dancers wrote to say they did.—Ed.)

JUST A short note to inform you that we have been appointed area reporters (West Coast and Central Florida) for Round Dancer Magazine and it is our desire to report all round dance activities in this area. So, teachers and leaders, let us hear from you! We cannot be everywhere at the same time so must rely on you for newsworthy events. And thanks!—OSCAR AND FRAN SCHWARTZ, 1401 Winchester Rd., St. Petersburg.

Poetic Desperation

'Twas December last when taw Lu and I were transferred overseas. 'Twas November last when I finished my council duties. I've written to your magazine, the council and alas, official correspondence comes from everywhere and Tass! Now if you've got some space and a little extra print, the folks in Pensacola might catch this little hint: 'Tis most time for fall elections if I correctly recollect, And my wish for '67 is that the list will be correct!—BOB BOWIE, U. S. Navy, Pensacola Square and Round Dance Council Chairman for 1965.

Late Magazine Delivery

HAVING NOT received yet the September issue of Bow & SWING (though I know near neighbors who received theirs more than a week ago—their last name starts with "C") it is hard for me to make an appropriate news report . . . —GWEN PEA-COCK, Miami Springs.

(There have been several complaints this month about late magazine delivery in different parts of the state. Magazines are delayed in local postoffices until first class mail has been processed. This delay varies from month to month with the amount of work to be done at the post office. If late delivery is holding up your magazine, check with your post office. Incidentally, all Bow & SWING copies are mailed at the same time and are arranged not in alphabetical but in zip code order to speed delivery.—Ed.)

Visitors Write for Information

WE WILL be in Florida the last week in September and the first week in October, as we are western square dancers, we would like some information on where we could dance.—MRS. WAYNE KISTLER, Clyde, Ohio.

(Bow & SWING receives many letters like this one from all over the U. S. each month. We always tell the visitors that once they've danced with the clubs here, they won't want to go home.—Ed.)

New Square Dance Figures

I UNDERSTAND that the Southeast Florida Square and Round Dancers Association meets once each month and decides which of the new square dance figures are likely to become most popular. As a rule, the week following we have four or five of these figures thrown at us, and then we never hear of them again.

Wouldn't it be better if just one or two (at the most) of these figures were chosen and published in Bow & SWING each month, then called at each and every dance during that month?

Many of our winter visitors and club members subscribe to Bow & SWING and this would enable them to keep up with the figures we are learning while they are away. It would also give many dancers more self confidence to visit other clubs . . . —GENE CUTLIP, Fort Lauderdale.

single couple want an evening's entertainment they cannot dance with these righteous, happily married people. They seem to believe that only married couples are fit to join their club.

In my case, my wife does not dance western squares or the new rounds that we learn every week. I have no trouble getting good dancing partners that have high standards and the best morals. I do not drink or smoke and do my best to live by the Golden Rule. The clubs that bar dancers that are not married to each other are not realistic. Does this give them the prerogative because God has not taken their mate to discriminate against others . . . —H. EMEL, Hamilton, Ontario, a winter visitor.

Happy to Be Back

WE BOTH will be happy to be back in Florida this winter. We especially miss the dancing and calling as we do not have time and we are some distance from any active clubs. The one here dances once a month and though we enjoy the caller the dancing is much slower and rather low level—at least considering that all the dancers have been dancing for over two years and some five or ten. So low level isn't the answer to drop-outs as they have had their share. —RAY AND EDITH CASTLE, West Plains, Missouri.

Club Aims to Grow

WE ARE a small club, have had a few setbacks, and now with your help and a special effort on our part, we are trying to get off the ground and start growing . . . For the past few months we have had a listing in BOW & SWING which I think has helped us. I subscribed to BOW & SWING and have since March, a few months after joining the club. I enjoy every bit of it, especially news of the other clubs . . . —MRS. BUDDY FLETCHER, Pompano Beach Pompanaders.

Extra Copies Requested

WOULD YOU please send 24 copies of your issue of September '66 with Governor Burns on the cover for display in new classes, waiting rooms and lobbies. I thank you.—CASTOFF SQUARE DANCE CLUB, Boynton, Beach.

I WOULD LIKE to request 15 copies of the September issue of BOW & SWING to help promote fall classes in square dancing.—NETTYE KURUCZ, Red Hot Trotters, Lakeland.

A CONTACT tonight with some officers of Dixie Twirlers brought out the fact that they became subscribers when they had received their first free copy! So they thought if these copies you offer are to be free to us, they would like to request 100 copies of the September issue of BOW & SWING. They feel our members can and will dispose of them wisely . . . —GWEN PEACOCK, Miami Springs.

I AM just starting a class in round dancing and at present I have 21 couples enrolled. Would you please send me this number of the August 1966 issue of BOW & SWING.

I know the article on round dance positions and abbreviations will be a big help.—HENRY PURCELL, Marathon, Nautical Wheelers.

PLEASE SEND 25 copies of BOW & SWING with the position charts and abbreviations for round dance classes. —ART AND DOROTHEA BRAMMEIER, Melbourne.

(Requests for copies of the August issue of Bow & Swing with instructional material for beginning round dancers were encouraging. Over 100 copies have been requested by both callers and round dance teachers. The aim in publishing this type of material is not only to be of assistance teaching round dance classes, but to encourage the beginning dancer. We'd like to hear from callers with ideas on how Bow & Swing can help with beginner square dance classes.—Ed.)

Cow County Roundup

WE received our first copy of BOW & SWING last week and want you to know we enjoy it very much.

We are rather new to Florida and have not had an opportunity to do much dancing lately. Both my husband and I have been dancing for at least 10 years but it seems that these new calls are a little too much for us.

My letter concerns an ad I saw on page 19, the Kissimmee Cow County Roundup. If I read right, it is an advanced workshop in square dancing. This is what we have been looking for and so I was wondering if I could get more information about it. The exact address and any other important information. We are much interested as we want to get back dancing.—MRS. P. H. THOMPSON, Merritt Island.

(We have been unable to get in touch with the callers who handle the Cow Country Roundup, Jim Rice and Eric Sohn. However, a dancer who has attended says the dancing is at a level above regular club dancing and the afternoons are enjoyable. The Roundup is held the first Sunday of each month at the Community House in Kissimmee. The Community House is located on Monument Avenue near the lakefront.—Ed.)

Junkins Join Vista

JUST A NOTE to let you know that we leave for Eugene, Oregon, for training October 24. This was by telephone. We will receive further particulars by mail.—FRAN JUNKIN.

(Verne and Fran Junkin of Lakeland, Florida, round dance leaders, have been selected to join Vista, a federally-sponsored program that operates similar to the Peace Corps.

Fran and Verne have been active members of the Round Dance Council of Florida, teaching round dance classes in the Lakeland area, and programming rounds for dances all over the state. Fran has been round dance coordinator for Bow & Swing and her help will certainly be missed by the Bow & Swing staff.—Ed.)

'Golden Age' Caller

ENCLOSED PLEASE find my subscription for one more year. I am an old lady now and will be retiring before many more years, but I still call square dancing once a week for the Tampa Golden Age Club. I am a charter member of the state association, and I believe that I was the first historian.

Following a heart attack last year, I do not square dance but I enjoy calling.

I find the newer patterns too complicated for Golden Agers, as they must move slowly and with very little turning and reversing of direction. We are still doing "Because," "My Pretty Girl," "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," etc. Square thru puzzles them, but we are working on them. If you have any suggestions for working with this age group, please let me know.

I think your magazine is very good.—MRS. KATE TAYLOR, Tampa.

October 2-8 Is Square Dance Week

THE BOW & SWING Calendar of Events for October indicates that this month should be one of the busiest ever seen for Florida square and round dancers.

The month will begin with Square Dance Week October 2 through 8, wind up with a rush of Halloween Balls. In between is a schedule of events to confound the most active dancers.

High points in the extra-busy month will be the 1966 Callers Clinic and dance with Bruce Johnson in Lakeland October 14 and 15, the FFSD meeting in Lakeland October 16, the first annual Football at Orlando October 14, the Ancient City Festival at St. Augustine also on October 14, the Canaveral Squares' Pirates Ball at Cocoa October 18, the Central Florida Association Halloween Ball October 29 at Holly Hill, and the Fifth Saturday dance at the Square Dance Center of Lakeland October 29.

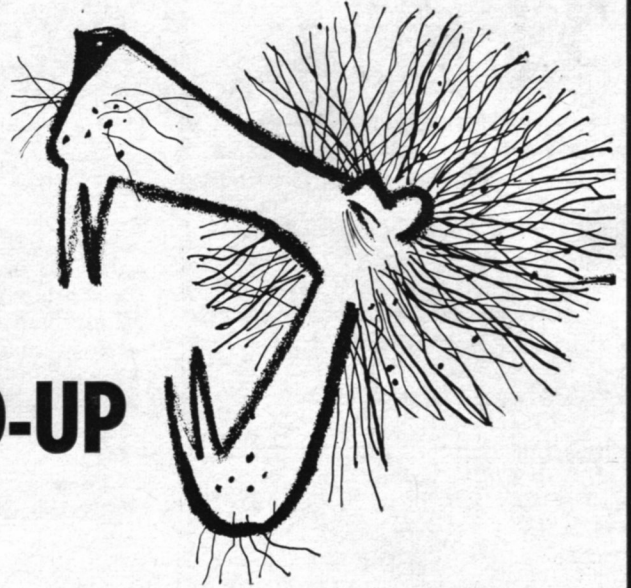

October will see nationally-known callers appearing all over Florida. Singin' Sam Mitchell will be appearing at the Round-Up in Hollywood October 16. Red Warrick is billed for October 15 at the Lake City Armory. Carl Geels of Fort Wayne, Indiana will be calling at Eau Gallie October 8, Hialeah October 12 and also in Jacksonville. Bob Bennett of Valdosta, Georgia is scheduled for the Grand Slammers' dance in Jacksonville October 8, and Bob Arnold of San Antonio, Texas will call for the Plant City Strawberry Strollers October 25.

Other events that promise to make October a month to remember are the Marco Island Weekend with Gordon Blaum October 22, the second annual Round-up at Hollywood October 30 and the Paxon Prancers Dance-athon at Jacksonville October 8.

Regularly scheduled events will include the Southeast Association meeting and dance at Adelphi Hall, Hollywood October 9, the first Sunday Rounds at St. Petersburg October 2, and the Fourth Sunday Evaluation meeting October 23 at the Roque Club in Orlando.

Date for State Convention Is Controversial Issue for FFSD

FLORIDA MISSES the boat by not having an effective promotional effort at the National Square Dance Convention, Wally Stoltz, of Bartow told the board of delegates of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers, and Harry Moore, chairman of the National executive committee, urged Floridians to make plans to be in Philadelphia next summer where there will be facilities capable of accommodating 11 thousand dancers in a single room.

This discussion of Florida's role at the National was made at a meeting of the Florida Federation at Clearwater during the recent Florida Knothead Konvention.

Moore, a past chairman of the Florida convention and chairman of the Eleventh National Square Dance Convention held in Miami Beach in 1964, urged clubs to send their leaders to Philadelphia to participate in the panel discussions and exchange promotional ideas and material.

In Florida, "fun" seems to be a bad word, he said. "We need a change in our philosophy of square dancing," Moore continued, "so that we will accept everyone who dances."

Square dancing must provide an environment for those who want to dance once a month as well as for those who dance several times a week, he added, and quoted one Miami caller as saying that we can have "thinking man's dancing" for an entire year without introducing any new material whatever—simply by providing variations in the arrangement of existing figures.

"Plans for the 1967 state convention in Jacksonville will be firmed after Chairman Carl Law returns from the Sets in Order European tour," Chairman Virgil Green of Jacksonville reported, "but more study must be given establishment of date and site for the 1968 convention, scheduled for Miami or Miami Beach."

Jim Kier, heading the Southeast Florida delegation, told of fruitless efforts to find solutions to several problems, and it was agreed to hold the matter open until the October meeting in Lakeland.

At the same time, a committee was asked to work with the Florida Callers Associations toward flexibility in establishing dates for the state convention.

It was pointed out that state conventions had consistently been held in April and May until June dates were used to provide a dry-run for the National Convention several years ago. It was also pointed out that many dancers leave the state during summer months and that the state convention should be separated by several weeks from the national convention.

Weather is a factor. Both Bay area and Miami area spokesmen felt the earlier dates would be better, while Northeast Florida spokesmen felt that April dates should be avoided because of cool and rainy weather. Bob Brown called attention to the Florida Industrial Exposition which uses Orlando facilities in April each year.

Moore and past Chairman Frank

Registrations at the Konvention Jump

1202 REGISTRATIONS were reported for the tenth annual Florida Knothead Konvention held over the Labor Day weekend in Clearwater, eclipsing the 1039 registrations racked up in 1965. Plans for 1967 include an even larger plywood floor in the Jack Tar Harrison ballroom and doubtless a repetition of the 1966 format in which two nationally-known callers conducted programs in two separate halls.

Vaughan Parrish of Boulder, Colorado and Chuck Raley of Anaheim, California were teamed for the main go this year. Friday night pre-dance calling was by Florida Knothead callers and Li'l Tom Hidding of Jacksonville demonstrated his reverse calling at the Labor Day closing session after giving spectators a taste at the Sunday night skit session.

As usual, round dancing received full emphasis, with daytime workshop session scheduled in the Clearwater auditorium while square dancing workshops were in progress in the Jack Tar ballroom.

Roy and Olive Sprague of Miami revived the Jessie Polka and Bill and Louise Roundtree of Wilton Manors brought back Mannita Waltz (Western Jubilee 45-701A and Grenn 14018 respectively).

Cornwall of Miami, Al Martin, Stoltz and Chairman Green comprise the committee to work on flexible dates.

Financial report of the 13th Florida Square Dance Convention was embraced in the report of Treasurer Matt Bryan of Tampa, who said a net of $1700.70 was distributed between the Florida Callers Association (and the Round Dance Council), the Central Florida Association and the state Federation, which netted $510.60.

Chet Vetter, president-elect of the Northeast Florida Square Dancers Association and Jack Shuler of St. Augustine, recording secretary, were presented as new delegates representing Northeast Florida.

Past Chairman Frank Cornwall, Harold Jenkins of DeBarry and "Hink" Smith of St. Petersburg were named as a committee to present nominations at the Federation's annual meeting in Lakeland in October.

Big 1966 Knothead to All-Time High

New dances taught included Dominique by Ed and Kay Mack of Clearwater (MacGregor 1091B), Connecticut Waltz by Bill and Pat Bliss of Fort Lauderdale (Grenn 14089), Funny Melody by Bob Waites and Ruth Bartley of Gainesville (Windsor 47174), Shall We Dance by Harry Howe and Lee Rimes of Miami Beach (Dance-along), Hey Good Lookin' by Helen Crout and Sam Webb of Jacksonville, and Jamaican Girl also by Mrs. Crout (Columbia 4-43505), Someone by Arthur and Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne (Grenn 14085), At Sundown by Clare and Frances Malhiot (Windsor 47180A), and Monterey with Paul and Delight Trent of St. Petersburg (Windsor 4716-A).

Interludes in the Sunday evening program provided an opportunity for the Sunshine Steppers of Miami to show Spanish Flea in the distinctive style of five couples: Carl and Frieda Englund, Hugh and Mildred Shaw, John Gudor and Bobbie Dillon, John and Donna Olinger, Jim and June Orr. The Gudor and Dillon team encored with their interpretation of Downtown.

In a word of welcome at the Saturday night dance, a representative of the mayor's office hoped when the Knothead 20th Konvention is held "that you will have enjoyed holding all of them here with us."

Parrish and Raley alternated during the daytime workshop sessions, worked separate halls and exchanges podiums at mid-point for the two evening sessions. Dancers generally picked one hall or the other so that both locations were comfortably filled with no overcrowding.

Raley, who works with the Anaheim recreation department, had kind words for the Walt Disney organization, which he said helps support square dancing in the public recreation program.

Holiday for Rounds Set for November 5-6

THE FALL HOLIDAY FOR ROUNDS sponsored by the Round Dance Council of Florida is to be held at the Colonnade Beach Hotel at Lake Park November 5 and 6.

Election of officers will be key business at the organization's annual meeting held at that time, President Bill Fleshman of Jacksonville reported at the Clearwater meeting held September 4. A motion approving the arrangement at the Colonnade was duly approved.

A nominating committee consisting of Bill Leonard of Bradenton, Helen Crout of Jacksonville and Bill Fairchild of Miami was named by Fleshman to report at the November meeting.

A recommendation from the board of directors clarifying the status of honorary, associate and active members was presented to the membership and was referred to a special committee for further study.

Phil Betts was appointed to fill out the term of Vern and Francis Junkin as Bow & SWING coordinator, and selection of the round of the month for November will be made at a meeting beginning at 2:00 p.m., September 25, in the Roque Club in Orlando, it was announced. Betts may be contacted at Post Office Box 20402, (525-7797), St. Petersburg, Florida 33702.

Fleshman reported tentative plans for a flat top dance aboard an aircraft carrier at Mayport September 19 in connection with Governor Burn's proclamation of Square Dance Month.

SAY WHAT you think. Tell FFSD officials what dates you prefer for the annual State Square Dance Convention by filling in the form on page 20.

Raggin' a Call

Joe Johnson, shown with his wife Nancy, will preside at the Florida Callers Association meetings during the Callers Clinic at Lakeland October 14 and 15.

Mel Clark, pictured with his wife Cora Belle, is in charge of education committee planning for the clinic.

Bow & SWING's Square of the Month for October is "Raggin' A Call", written and called by Bob Van Antwerp on Windsor Label 4856. Instrumental includes guitar, bass, accordion, drums and trumpet. The arrangement is in New Orleans style jazz with three key changes.

Florida caller material this month comes from Li'l Tom Hidding of Jacksonville, a junior member of the Florida Callers Association. . . Tom says that Pop the Top has received enthusiastic dancer response in the Northeast area . . . "On the call 'pop the top' the designated couples slide thru and couple up to an ocean wave. . . then they spin the top followed by a swing thru. . . it dances very smoothly and here is a sample called directionally:"

One and three you pop the top that's a slide thru, couple up it's first by the right and then by the left three quarters round it's first by the right, then by the left cross trail allemande left.

Big news for Florida callers this month is the 7th annual Florida Callers Clinic in Lakeland October 14 and 15. . . FCA President Joe Johnson of Windermere announced last month that Bruce Johnson of Santa Barbara, California will conduct the clinic. . . the education committee, headed by Mel Clark of Lakeland, with Helen Everett of Maitland and Jack Jackson of Winter Park, is working closely with the Convention Bureau of Lakeland to insure a constructive session. . . headquarters will be the new Imperial 400 motel and the Lakeland Civic Center, both located downtown. . . the clinic will get underway at 2:00 p.m., Friday October 14, with a dance for callers and their wives scheduled to follow that night. . . on Saturday the clinic will continue with morning and afternoon sessions. . . Saturday night at the Civic Center, Bruce Johnson will call a dance for the callers, their guests and dancers. . . tickets are limited. Clark advises. . . Sunday morning the FCA October meeting and annual election of officers will be held. . . Clark is enthusiastic about Johnson's appearance at the clinic: "Bruce Johnson is outstanding in his knowledge of square dancing. . . not only is he a noted caller, but also heads a recording company, having produced some of the top records."

New club caller for the Flying Eights of McCoy Air Force Base is Jim Harness, who was appointed when former club caller Berlon Graham was transferred.

Square dance coordinator for Bow & Swing Chuck Durant, asks that Florida callers send material for publication in BOW & SWING to him at 88 Lorillard Place, Ormond Beach for publication in the magazine.

FCA librarian L. H. Weise of Orlando writes about a recent hunting trip to Alaska in the Brooks Mountain Range above the Arctic Circle: "For 10 days my world consisted only of myself and three hunting companions. . . we had no communication with the outside world at all. . . only one human being, the bush pilot who dropped us off, knew where we were because the spot we chose was picked from the air while flying in. . . it was a refreshing and wonderful experience. . . oh, yes, I bagged two moose and a grizzly bear."

Palm Swingers of Hialeah welcomed their caller Bert Bennett and his wife Elizabeth with a special dance September 3. . . the Bennetts spent August touring Europe.

Harbor City Squares Have Ups And Downs, Are Growing Now

HARBOR CITY Squares first began dancing in the fall of 1961. When caller Bob Rust came to the mike on those first Thursday night dances, there was an enthusiastic group of dancers ready for an evening of fun.

The club was, and still is, sponsored by the Eau Gallie Recreation Department, and danced at the Eau Gallie Civic Center.

The first club officers were: Jim and Claire Clancy, presidents; Ken and Mabel West, vice presidents; Walt and Ethel Minnerly, secretary-treasurer.

Shortly after the club was organized, the Wests become presidents and remained in that same capacity until the spring of 1963.

About this time, interests in square dancing was growing and other clubs were springing up in the area. Many Squares began dancing with clubs nearer their homes. This decrease in participation caused a re-organization of the club with Bruce and Judy Schultz as presidents and Jim and Bertha Hutchinson as vice presidents. The club caller was Rod Copeland of Eau Gallie.

Despite the new organization and the efforts of club officers and members, the Harbor City Squares didn't grow.

Finally, in November of 1963, with only six couples, the club had to move to smaller quarters provided by the Recreation Department. George Hinkel was signed as club caller.

Through the efforts of these six couples and George and Ruth Hinkel, the club began to grow. At this time, the present badge was adopted and in recognition of the work of this small group, a gold anchor was added to the badges of these seven couples.

George Hinkel graduated his first class of 32 dancers in June of 1964, and succeeding classes helped the membership to grow. In June of 1964 Councilman Vance Bell of the Recreation Department awarded plaques to the group and to George Hinkel for his outstanding services as caller.

Honorary memberships were awarded to Jim and Bertha Hutchinson for their outstanding service to the club. In 1966 honorary memberships were given to Harold and Florence Hennelly for their untiring efforts and help in round dancing.

In 1964, Mike and Nonie Brock became presidents; in 1965, Jim and Betty Hansen were presidents; Bob and Margaret Fisher are the 1966 leaders.

By May of 1966, the club had outgrown the smaller quarters. Activities were moved back into the large Eau Gallie Center, where the club continues to dance every Friday night.

A high point in the club's history was the first annual Sweetheart's Ball February 12, 1966, when the club hosted 40 squares of dancers to the calling of Frank Bedell. Ottis and Eleanor Hendrix of the Canaveral Squares reigned as the first king and queen. The second annual Sweetheart's Ball is scheduled for February 11, 1967, in the Eau Gallie Civic Center.

The Harbor City Squares is an open club and all dancers are invited to join them for an evening of fun and fellowship at their Friday night dances in the Civic Center.

Harbor City Squares treated caller George Hinkel (center) to a surprise birthday party last August. Ottis and Eleanor Hendrix reigned as king and queen of the Squares' first annual Sweetheart Ball February 12, 1966.

Two Poems for Square Dancers

Change the 'They' to 'We'

Ever hear a member say, they ought to run the group this way!
Ever wonder who is they; who get the brunt the live long day?

They are the ones some call a clique;
Plan the work so things will tick,
Prepare the program, open the door,
They handle every needed chore,
They place the flag and meeting stuff;
keep everything right up to snuff.

They line up speakers, pictures too;
and people who will work for you!
They do the leg work; write the mail;
attend the meetings without fail.

To ways and means they must attend;
committee meetings without end,
An evening they could spend at home,
on group business they must roam.

They raise the money, bank it too; pay the bills when they are due,
They phone new members, shake their hand, make them feel at home and
They must manage all the work;
sure will catch it if they shirk.

They donate freely, your duties end?
Or do a helping hand you lend?
As true as God can make a tree, you ought to change the they to we.
—Unknown

Boots 'n Whispers

Listening to the whispers of gingham
—the shuffle of cowboy boots.
The square dance caller singin',
Men dressed in western suits.

It's very exciting to dance in a square;
Being a novice, it seems quite a dare.
I feel that square dancing puts one to a test;
It requires concentration, and you must move with a zest.

It's always a challenge to work as a team;
If you have tried it, you know what I mean.
But I feel so stupid and clumsy as a clown;
And each time I prove it as we "circle 'round."

We are going in a circle and all doing fine,
When all of a sudden, he says "bend the line."
He said, "red wing," he don't mean a bird?
I think it's a call that I never heard.

I dip and dive in a lively whirl—
Wouldn't you know, I've lost the girl.
Where did she go? Where could I be?
Did the caller say "Number One" or "Three"?

I'm greatly embarrassed, but smile with a shrug;
I could ride a bicycle under a rug.
"Left Allemande" and Boxenette!
He's trying to trick me, I just bet.

"Gents star left in the Middle of the night";
Hope this once I can do it right.
But I'll never learn if I don't try;
What did she mean, "keep my hands high?"

Oh! My Gosh! I'm afraid to look,
I just stepped on a dainty foot.
It sure hurt I can tell by her glance;
Guess I'll just never learn how to dance.

What does he mean? "Go Red Hot,"
I'm sure if I knew it would help a lot.
"Wagon Wheel," I did that well;
Poor little girl, she almost fell.

That must be her husband, by the look in his eye;
It could have killed corn at least a foot high.
Oh! I'm sure to learn. I try goodness knows,
But I bet it would help if I kept on my own toes.

We swing and sway to the caller's chant,
I know I'm nervous; my hands are damp.
Thanks for the shove, now I'm getting it,
That's what he said, "A double Boxenette."

It's a lively crowd; I can hardly hear;
Wish I was closer or had a good ear.
"Slip the Clutch," "Allemande' Dar";
He's working the dance, not on his car.

I don't dance well, I admit with no hesitation;
To be a good "square'r" takes much meditation.
So when in doubt, there I just stand—
And wait for the caller's next "allemande."

Stepping to the music, listening to the laughter;
You "cross-trail thru;" I'll be coming after.
Thank you sirs a million, I enjoyed it very much,
Even though I didn't do the "Slip the Clutch."

Now I'm beginning to see what I should;
It isn't the object just to be good.
What I like best is tossed in for free;
It's enjoying myself in good company
—Bernard L. Bash
