Message from the President:

September is 'Spring'

TO MOST PEOPLE, September is probably thought of as the beginning of autumn, of cooler weather. However, to square dancing, this month is actually the spring of the year.

Spring is a time of beginning and of renewal and September with its many new classes is truly such a time for square dancing. Without these new classes, our hobby would very quickly disappear, therefore it is of vital importance to all of us to see that our classes are both numerous and large. I trust that dancers in Florida have been actively planning for their new classes and that most of them have friends they intend to bring to class on opening night. I want to emphasize the word bring in reference to getting people into class as there is no substitute for people to people contact in promoting a class. If you just invite them, they can easily say yes but will not show on the opening night. However, if you go out and get them, they often will find it hard to say no. Once you get them into class, square dancing has a way of selling itself, but it is very often necessary to go out and get beginners on their first night.

If each couple in Florida would go out and bring one couple to class during September, Square Dancing would have a very good year ahead of it in our state.

This is also a good time for square dance promotions like shopping center exhibitions, TV appearances, etc. These in themselves will not bring many new dancers into the fold but they do serve a very useful purpose in that they expose many people to our hobby and they will at least know what we are talking about when we try to recruit them for class.

This is a time of renewal for the older dancer as well. It is of no importance whether you are frequent or an infrequent dancer or whether you dance at high or low level, all of us need to recharge the spirit once in awhile and there is no better time to do it than now. If each of us would just watch a class, we would see that the most enthusiastic and happiest dancers anywhere on the average are the beginners. They are being exposed to the fun of square dancing for the first time and it has been a revelation for them.

All of us can take a lesson from these beginners and renew our own spirits with a liberal dose of this beginner enthusiasm. Bringing a new couple to class and helping and watching them get started is a good way to do this.

Good Luck to all clubs and callers with their new classes.

—Virgil Green

Dear

Bow & Swing

THANK YOU for your most complete coverage of the 15th National Square Dance Convention. It showed fine research by you and your staff.

The many congratulations we have received from all over Florida shows us Bow & SWING is well read throughout the state. With our experience I believe that any club or advertiser who is not using Bow & SWING, is missing the best way to get their message to the square dancers. Thanks again—HARRY MOORE, Miami, Chairman of the National Square Dance Convention Executive Committee.

I do wish that the editor or president would comment on this matter. I became involved in square dancing about five years ago. During that time I have seen so much wrong with dancer courtesy that I wonder why some other person has not mentioned it.

When I started class and went on to workshops and dances, I thought that there could be no finer people on earth than square dancers. As a matter of fact, I still do. . . Now here is the thing that irks me and countless other people.

A group of four couples or maybe six couples who refuse to dance with anyone else. They square up together and never offer to help dance with the new or visiting couples. They are always too busy to hold office or to help in club affairs. There is no doubt about their love for square dancing but they take the attitude that the dance is being held solely for their pleasure. They ask visitors to their club and seldom if ever dance with them.

I think it is high time that something was done about the rudeness that is creeping into square dancing.

Keep up the good work on Bow & SWING. I enjoy it tremendously. Maybe the magazine needs a few changes, who knows. You must try a new figure before you can be sure you will like to dance it. So make a few changes in Bow & SWING and let us see—Anonymous

(Although we make a policy of not printing unsigned letters, we made an exception in this case because the letter accompanied a "What do you think about Bow & Swing questionaire—Ed.)

WE WISH to make a correction for the August issue of Bow & SWING.

While the Seminole Squares are renowned for their friendliness and no one has ever been turned away or any member refused to dance with anyone, we are really not a fun level club, as registered in Bow & SWING. We are intermediate to high level, although we do like a few easy ones thrown in. But if any dancer has completed their classes we are sure they will find an evening at the Seminoles well spent — KENNY KENDALL, Miami.

WE APPRECIATE the publicity contained in your note following the letter of Barbara Yacos in the August issue of Bow & SWING. However, we believe that dancers reading the note may gain the wrong conception of our level of dancing.

We try to make all visitors feel at home and see that they enjoy a good evening's dancing, actually our level of dancing is intermediate to high.

We welcome all visitors and try to see that they have a good time. We believe, though, that any couple not dancing regularly may have difficulty with our level of dancing as our caller Gordon Blaum, constantly strives to maintain our interest with new calls as they come out—BOB RICHARD, Miami, Seminole Squares president.

I THINK the history of clubs is a very nice idea. I'm writing to one of our charter members to see if he will write a history of our club for me, then I'll send it along to you. This is the Freelancers of Sarasota, and our club is 11 years old—JOE AND GEORGIA GREENFIELD, Sarasota, club presidents.

AFTER MUCH prodding and coaxing, we finally prevailed upon Don and Gwynneth to write the history of 441. They have been with it from the beginning and are still one of the most active members. They were the first president of the club and did much to shape its present policies—CHET AND JULIA VETTER, Gainesville.

(The history of the 441 Club of Gainesville is featured in this issue. Bow & SWING welcomes club histories. Club reporters or historians should read histories which have appeared in Bow & SWING, send a history of their club to Bow & SWING, P.O. Box 1030, Kissimmee, Florida 32471—Ed.)

Square Dance Week Slated For October 2-8

THE FIRST WEEK of October will have special significance for Florida square dancers. October 2 through 8 has been proclaimed by Florida Governor Haydon Burns as Square Dance Week.

Requesting the proclamation on behalf of Florida square dancers was Virgil Green of Jacksonville, president of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers. Announcing the signing of the proclamation and the dates of the 1966 observance, Green urged Florida clubs and callers to hold special events to mark the week.

All of Florida's associations are expected to celebrate Square Dance Week. For one of the associations, a dance held the last of September will serve as kick-off event for Square Dance Week. The West Coast Square and Round Dance Association will stage their kick-off event September 30 at Lakeland. Caller John Saunders and round dance instructors Ed and Kay Mack are billed for this dance.

This is the second year that a gubernatorial proclamation has made Square Dance Week official. In 1965 Governor Burns proclaimed the observance for October 3 through 9.

Last year's celebration was aimed primarily at publicizing square dancing. In the Northeast area, a group of Fun and Frolics appeared on WFGA TV's Today in Jacksonville show with caller Jack Griffiths. Bill Fleshman was interviewed on the show.

A kick-off dance for the week was held on the carrier Shangri-La with over 450 dancers attending.

In Tallahassee, a city-wide Square Dance Week was proclaimed by the mayor, and a city-wide dance was held at the Florida State University Ballroom.

Last year in the Southeast, caller Colin Walton and National Convention Committee Chairman Harry Moore were guests on WIOD's Larry King Show. Newspapers in Fort Lauderdale and Hollywood carried publicity items about square dancing in the area.

On the West Coast, Lakeland Mayor Lois Searl proclaimed a city-wide square dance week. Local clubs joined for an exhibition dance at Searstown Shopping Center.

PROCLAMATION

State of Florida
Executive Department
Tallahassee

WHEREAS, the square dance has become one of the most popular pastimes in our State, and

WHEREAS, it has proven to be highly entertaining, and affords wholesome recreation for all, and

WHEREAS, it is now time to "Square Up" since it is Square Dance time in Florida, and

WHEREAS, it provides fellowship, and goodwill, bringing close together all folks in all walks of life;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Haydon Burns, by virtue of the authority vested in me as Governor of the State of Florida, do hereby proclaim October 2 - 8, 1966, as in Florida, and heartily commend this form of recreation for all.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Florida to be affixed at Tallahassee, the Capital, this 31st day of March, A.D., 1966.

Haydon Burns
GOVERNOR

John A. ...
SECRETARY OF STATE

At the close of last year's celebration, it was suggested that a coordinated effort be made to hold area festivals for the 1966 event to publicize square dancing in every part of the state.

Florida clubs and callers are being urged to begin planning now for their Square Dance Week festivities. Officials call the event "a golden opportunity" and encourage Florida groups "to make good use of it."

Three Big Ones Lined Up For Labor Day

SEPTEMBER will begin with three bang-up events set for Labor Day Weekend.

Topping the list of events is the annual Knothead Konvention at Clearwater. A complete program for the three-day Konvention appears on pages 10 and 11 of this issue.

A second Labor Day Weekend event for Florida's West Coast will be the annual Ox Bow Spectacular at St. Petersburg. The 1966 edition of the Spectacular features callers Colin Walton, Joe Johnson and Jim Pearson. Round Dance leaders Russ and Mable Ayrton complete the lineup. The Spectacular will begin Friday night with a "fun for everyone" dance at 8:00. Saturday and Sunday dancing will begin at 1:30.

Labor Day Weekend in the Southeast will be highlighted by the second annual Whirligig at the DiLido Hotel. Callers Jack Jackson and Lew Green with other guest callers will be at the mike. The Whirligig gets underway in Miami September 3, ends September 5.

The Florida Federation of Square Dancers and the Round Dance Council will meet September 4, during the Knothead event.

A second September event in the Southeast will be the Association meeting and dance September 11 at the Round-up in Hollywood. The meeting will begin at 2:00 p.m. followed by dancing to area callers.

Another association dance for September is the West Coast Fifth Friday event at Lakeland Civic Center September 30. John Saunders will call. Ed and Kay Mack will handle the rounds.

A feature of September in the Northeast will be the Camp O'Leno Hoedown sponsored by the Starlite Shufflers. Walt Knight, Scotty Thomas and Floyd Hazen will call. The dancing will begin Saturday September 24, continue through Sunday.

Most important to square dancing is the beginning of new classes in September. From the Bow & SWING news desk, it appears that prospective dancers all over the state will have an opportunity to attend classes in their area. A listing of many classes to begin is featured on page 6 of this issue.

How To Get Publicity

THERE'S NO TIME like the present. This old saying applies well to square dance clubs who would like to promote their hobby. New classes should be an incentive to publicity efforts, and Florida Square Dance Week provides a good opportunity.

A quick survey of dance publicity shows that, while many clubs are taking advantage of publicity possibilities, other clubs are not making an effort or are not getting cooperation from local news media. Some of these clubs say they have been disappointed in past efforts.

What should a club expect from a notice in the newspaper or an exhibition dance? Certainly not a rush of prospective dancers pounding at the door, emphasize club officials who have been promoting dancing for years. These people say that the main benefit of publicity is to acquaint non-dancers with square dancing, to make them more receptive to a personal invitation to join a class, and to improve the "public image" of square dancing.

To many clubs the words "publicity" and "public relations" sound expensive and complicated. They don't have to be. In most towns an active publicity committee can get free publicity for a club or class.

Most newspapers, both weeklies and dailies, carry a calendar of events. A listing in this calendar can usually be obtained by contact with the newspaper. Many clubs are featured in articles with photographs in local newspapers. Here personal contact with the society editor is important. Clubs who have had difficulty in getting publicity from newspapers can use Square Dance Week to full advantage.

Square dancing is colorful. Its activities can provide exciting photographs, clever headlines, and light copy—all close to the heart of any society editor or reporter.

In attempting to get newspaper coverage for a special dance or event, notify the society editor well in advance, as much as two weeks. How the newspaper will handle coverage will vary, but the society editor will explain what she wants in material from your club.

Paid advertising in the local newspaper can be helpful. Costs for a small notice in a large daily can be under $10, in a small weekly under $5. Least expensive of all is the classified ad or personal notice.

Local radio stations often feature calendar events type announcements. Here is another opportunity. Many local television stations will feature square dancing on daytime shows, as demonstrated during last year's Square Dance Week and this year's State Convention. A club hoping to arrange this kind of publicity for 1966 Square Dance Week should begin now.

One of the most-used publicity tools is the poster. While printing of posters can be expensive, a club can cut the cost. Several clubs can get together and have a basic poster printed that all can use, sharing the cost. The posters can be designed so that they can be used year after year, with space for filling in details about classes or important dances.

A club with no budget for publicity can have a publicity party. Here each dancer or each couple can create a poster, with the best winning a prize. Afterward posters can be put up in local stores. Effective posters can be made easily with inexpensive poster board, red and black felt-tip pens. An easy illustration would be a silhouette of dancers cut from black carbon paper. Northeast News Notes:

Area Dancers Pack Ballroom For NEFSDA July 30 Dance

FORTY SQUARES of dancers packed the Mayflower Hotel ballroom in Jacksonville at the NEFSDA fifth Saturday dance July 30. Dick Gonzales and Bob Reynolds handled the calling duties, and NEFSDA program chairman Carl Graeff was in charge of the dance planning. Climaxing the dance was an afterparty and skits.

A highlight of the evening was the presentation of a plaque to Bob and Phyl Reynolds for their contributions to the advancement of square dancing in the Northeast area. Association President Carl Law made the presentation. Bob, who has been stationed with the Navy in Jacksonville, will be transferred the last of August.

Northeast dancer's attention has now turned to the 1966 Fall Roundup, set for November 11 and 12 at the Jacksonville City Auditorium. A program of dancing with area callers will kick off the annual event Friday night. Featured caller Joe Lewis will conduct a workshop on Saturday afternoon and call for the big Saturday night dance. After parties are also to be programmed.

New editors of the Grapevine, publication of the NEFSDA, are Johnny and Jeanette Todd. They assumed their duties with the August issue.

Newest members of the NEFSDA are the Dixie Chain Gang of Jacksonville and the Ancient City Squares of St. Augustine. Frank Clements is caller for the Chain Gang, which dances second and fourth Saturdays at Phillips Highway Plaza Community Hall. The Ancient City Squares dance Friday nights at the Chamber of Commerce with caller Oscar Erwin.

September 11 is Date for Dance, Meeting at Round-Up, Hollywood

THE SOUTHEAST ASSOCIATION has set September 11 for its next monthly meeting and dance. The double-barrel affair will be held at the Round-up in West Hollywood.

In announcing the date, Association President Jim Kier said the original date of September 18 had been changed to prevent conflict with the Florida Callers Association meeting to be held in Lakeland. Unless conflicts occur, future association meetings will be held the second Sunday of each month.

Plans for the monthly meetings call for a business session beginning at 2:00 p.m., followed by dancing with local callers. Kier urged dancers and callers to keep the dates in mind and attend; "These meetings are necessary for the betterment of square dancing in the Southeast area."

441 Club Keeps Interest High By Dancing to Different Callers

IN APRIL 1960, in response to continued requests for more fun-level dancing from relatively experienced dancers in the Lake City, High Springs, Gainesville, Ocala area, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Bartley organized the US 441 Square Dance Club. The original intent was to meet one Saturday night a month from October through June and to alternate dance location to equalize travel distance among dancers in the area.

Aubrey and Elizabeth Griffis suggested the design for the badges. Manny Amor, now calling in Lakewood, New Jersey, painted the first club banner.

The new club was an immediate success with a membership of eight squares. The first few dances were held at Buchholz Junior High School in Gainesville. Later dances were held in Alachua and at Camp O'leno near High Springs. Within a year membership had increased to about thirteen squares.

Travel attrition, relocation of dancers, and inter-city club activity conflicts reduced attendance to dancers primarily from the Gainesville-Ocala area. Within the second year attendance dropped to about four squares. This did not provide sufficient revenue for the Bartleys to meet expenses at the existing single dance prices, so a reorganization was initiated by some of the Dancers.

In April 1963 the reorganized 441 Square Dance Club was launched under dancer control. A set of by-laws provided, among other things, for a 40 couple limit, quarterly dues payment, and caller rotation. Some 30 couples joined the club, one-half of whom are still members.

Caller and hall arrangements are the responsibility of the vice-president with the concurrence of the president. All receipts and disbursements are handled by the secretary-treasurer. Host and hostess duties are rotated among members but supervised by the special events chairman. Club officers and past presidents serve as the selection committee for new members. Memberships are extended by invitation after the second dance visit for prospective members.

Present membership numbers 22 couples. All are also members of other clubs in the area. The club dances at Gainesville's Howard Bishop Junior High School Cafetorium on each second and fourth Saturday night of the month. The regular dance year extends from October through June. In the summer the club operates an open workshop session for current and prospective members. Out-of-town visitors are always welcome. The club has had as many as six squares of visitors at a dance.

The policy of engaging a different caller for each dance has kept member's interest high and sharpened their knowledge of new basics and figures. Club members have danced to 23 different callers one or more times in the past three years. Four couples have Century Club badges and several others have danced to the required number of callers.

Club members Don and Gwynneth Brookes commented, "Our visitors have kept us aware of our social responsibilities and encouraged members to visit other clubs and attend special dances. A policy of awarding miniature 441 badges to third-time visitors has been well received. Bill and Ruth Fleshman of Jacksonville were the first recipients.

Most of us travel widely so don't be surprised if your corner or opposite couple at a future dance is wearing a US 441 badge. P. S. We all have Ed Mack's Goofers' permits."

YOUR CLUB'S history can be a feature in Bow & SWING. Read over club histories that have appeared in the magazine for length and style of writing. Send old photographs when possible.

dancing pasted on the poster can show how much fun dancing is!

Perhaps the most popular publicity idea is the demonstration. A suggestion here would be to not wait for opportunities, but to look for them. A first step would be to get in touch with local groups—the Chamber of Commerce, Parent-Teacher Association, and others—and offer to present demonstrations. As in all publicity efforts, clubs should emphasize the non-profit and fellowship aspects of square dancing.

Bow & SWING can also be used as a publicity tool. Each month copies can be placed in waiting rooms, lobbies and the local library. An added touch would be a letter signed by a club member inviting non-dancers to join local classes or visit local clubs. The letter can be stapled to the page featuring area news or Where to Dance.

This issue of Bow & SWING can be put to good use promoting classes. The appropriate classes listed on page 6 can be marked and an invitation letter inserted.

□ Jim Kier described the evening of dancing shared by the Florida Nomads at Pioneer City near Miami: "It was dusk when we arrived at the huge parking lot where the present ends and the past begins. . . Jake the station agent directed us to an authentic 1890 steam locomotive waiting to take us to Pioneer city. . . we caught glimpses of buffalo, elk and a Texas long horn. . . after strolling through the town, we made our way into the Gold Nugget Saloon. . . we ordered an ice-cold mug of beer (root) and suddenly there was walking out on the stage the 'most wanted' caller in the Southwest, Frank Bedell. . . with the call to 'square 'em up' were soon all dancing. . . eighteen squares of colorful 'townsfolk' blended beautifully into the western work of yesteryear". . .
