Roundup of Events for January:

Guest Callers Get Top January Billing

OUT OF STATE callers, many of them nationally known, are being billed for dances throughout January.

Frankie Lane, a favorite with Florida dancers, will be touring the state. His bookings include a dance at the Lakeland Civic Center sponsored by the Auburndale Sandspurs January 7, a dance at the North Miami Armory January 6, a dance in Sarasota January 8, and a January 10 dance for the Palatka Kaper Kutters at Ravine Gardens. The Ox Bow, St. Petersburg, has billed Lane for January 9.

Lake City Squares, who often bill national callers, will sponsor Harper Smith January 7. The dance will be held at the Lake City Armory.

Al Aderente will be visiting Florida, calling January 7 at Naples for the Sunshine Shufflers and January 27 at Jacksonville for the Swinging Squares. Louis Calhoun is billed for a return engagement at Lew's Ponderosa, Miami, January 20.

Associations will be active in January. The Southeast Association is planning a meeting and dance the afternoon of January 8, possibly at the Hayloft in Miami. The Central Florida Association will meet at Kissimmee January 15 for an afternoon dance and supper. The Northeast association will discuss its plans at a January 8 meeting at the Ramada Inn, Gainesville.

The Sunshine Shufflers will have their second big affair of the month in a Pirates Ball January 28 at Naples. Frank Bedell and Mel Clark will call.

Two events in Georgia feature Florida callers and will draw dancers from the Northeast area. The first Dixie Federation Dance of the year will feature John Saunders at Albany, Georgia, January 14.

Waycross, Georgia, will host the Okefenokee Square-Up with Floridians Bob Rust, Frank Bedell, Chuck Durant, and Irv Elias. The two-day event is set for January 13 and 14.

Local clubs will be recovering from their enthusiastic holiday efforts. Many plan dances for Friday the 13th.

For most clubs, local effort will be going to new beginner classes being started through January and February and to new graduates who will be joining the clubs.

Guest callers are also on local club programs, with many clubs drawing callers from other parts of the state to their mikes.

Dear

Bow & Swing

Where's the Fun?

A NEW MEMBER of my club asked me "Why doesn't our club grow?" The answer can be divided into two categories: one is the attitude of many of the older members. Too many of them consider themselves in the "high level group" and feel it is beneath their dignity to dance with the "common herd." One such member, an official of the club no less, had the effrontery to tell a dancer in his square, "If you can't dance, stay off the floor!" Other official members, from the president down, deliberately snub a square if there are mediocre dancers in it. They will pass a square being filled to find one composed of their cronies. So where is the fellowship so vital to a club's success?

The caller will compound the problem by selecting calls that are over the heads of many of the dancers. I've seen 50% and more of the squares fouled up, just standing waiting for Allemande Left to get back into action. It is constantly stressed, "square dancing is for fun," but where is the fun in a fouled up square?

I would guess fully 75% of the dancers are in the intermediate group who love to dance just for the fun of it. They do not aspire to be high level dancers. So wouldn't it make sense for the caller to direct his calls to that level?

If he wants to introduce a new call, why not announce it as such and have about a 15-minute workshop? Instead of doing that, many callers start calling a new number, unknown to many of the dancers, resulting in embarrassment to some and irritation to others.

Let's keep every square dancing and laughing.—A MEDIOCRE DANCER.

(This is a complaint we read very often—and we bet you hear it often, too. We'd like to have letters from club callers, officers and dancers, who have satisfactory solutions. We'd like to hear, also, from club members who are happy with their club and want to pass out a few bouquets.—Ed.)

A Beneficial Influence

(The following script was written by Fred Megna, Eau Gallie, an active square dancer before his death last fall. It was found in his personal papers by his wife Virginia, and sent to Bow & SWING by George and Ruth Hinkel.—Ed.)

TODAY WE live in a period of rush and bustle. Most of us do not have the leisure for meditation and reflection. We have, to some extent, lost the ability to properly enjoy our daily lives.

Modern square dancing is a means of enriching our lives as individuals. We need to learn more of how to make effective appreciation of its beneficial influence in our daily lives.

Square dancing teaches that we should have faith to do good and thus exert a good influence. To be a good square dancer does not rest on us alone; behind our determination is the genius of the caller and the friendliness of the members.

We should never be responsible for any word or action that might create a wrong impression in the minds of our members. A single rose for all is better than the loss of a friend. Remember that above all else, charity is your chief virtue and most valuable asset.—FRED MEGNA.

From Out of the State

WE ARE leaving here January 1 to stay the winter in Orlando and would appreciate it if you could send a magazine to us before our departure so we can plan a full season of square dancing.—PAUL AND LILLIAN DROWNE, Manchester, New Hampshire.

WE ARE arriving in Lake Worth, Florida after the holidays for several months and wish to know of square dance clubs in and about that area. We are members of three clubs here and dance every week and more.—MRS. DALLAS LIVELSBERGER.

ARRIVED here last Saturday and am greatly perturbed at not finding any square dancing after coming from San Diego, California, where I danced four and five nights a week. Originally learned square dancing nine years ago under Howard Rohrbacker at Ocala, but that's a long trek from here. Not sure how long I'll be in Florida, but should know within a month. If I stay, I would like a subscription.—CLIFF JACK, Lanark Village.

Still a topic for comment on the West Coast is the Mr. Suns Sets Circus Party Night held at the Ox Bow, St. Petersburg. What a colorful dance this was can be seen above as Joe and Vi Cihak and their seven little clowns emerge from their little car. The club "went all out" with decorations and costumes in the circus theme.

Mary Lou and Don Badowski were among the dancers attending the Auburndale Sandspurs Hawaiian Halloween Square Dance A-Go-Go last October.

Northeast Dancers Collect 200 Toys for Needy Area Children

MANY UNDERPRIVILEGED children in the Northeast area will be happier on Christmas morning this year because of the efforts of the area dancers. Twenty-five squares contributed more than 200 toys to the Toys for Tots campaign sponsored by the Jaycees of Duval County.

The toys were dancers' admission to the Toys for Tots dance held December 7 at the community hall at Phillips Highway Plaza. Arrangements for the dance were handled by George and Annie Millan and Dick and Patsy Tomlinson. Refreshments were furnished by clubs and individuals. Callers Floyd Hazen and Eddie Millan donated their services.

Chet Vetter of Gainesville, NEFSDA president, announced that the dance would become an annual event and thanked the dancers for their response. Representatives of the Jaycees, Mr. Dean and Mr. Shiver, expressed their appreciation.

Door prizes going to the clubs having the most members at the dance were awarded to Orange Park Promenaders (from the Jacksonville area) and to the Ancient City Squares of St. Augustine (from outside Jacksonville).

□ The First annual Spring Fling will be held at the Ramada Inn, Gainesville, April 21 and 22. . . The event is being sponsored by the Gainesville Square Dance Council in cooperation with the Northeast Florida Square Dancers Association and the Gainesville Recreation Department. . . Two callers from Lincoln, Nebraska, Bill Speidel and Ken McCartney, will team up for the two-day event. . . "Bill and Ken call separately and together in great style," say committee members planning the Spring Fling. . . "These two have been singing and calling together on a weekly basis since the fall of 1955. . . They are in demand in the Chicago and San Francisco areas where they have called a number of times. . . They have called the Des Moines Festival and were on the staff of the Lighted Lantern Square Dance Camp at Golden, Colorado. . . Handling rounds will be Ed and Kay Mack, who need no introduction to Florida dancers."

□ Hol'day plans have been much in evidence at the Orange Park Promenaders club. . . The Promenaders held their Christmas party December 16, inviting their class to join them for the festivities. . . Next on the club program will be a New Year's Eve dance to be held jointly with the Western Cutters at the Mary Hammond Youth Center. . . Floyd Hazen and Bobby Keefe will share the calling duties. . . New members of the club board of directors, elected in December to serve for one year, are Darnell and Bernice Harris, Mike and Paul Miklos and Jack and Dot Shapiro.

□ Lake City Squares enjoyed a festive Christmas party December 12 with all members of their new class. . . "This was the best Christmas party held in a long time. The new class did amazingly well keeping up with the advanced dancers, thanks to Bill Camp's instructions," writes correspondent Lillian Gemmer. . . Other visitors at the party were dancers from Gainesville. . . The Squares are looking forward to their January 7 dance with nationally-known guest caller Harper Smith. . . The dance will be held at the National Guard Armory.

□ Dick Gonzales and Scotty Thomas will be at the mike when the Swinging Squares and Sunshine Twirlers, both of Gainesville, get together for a New Year's Eve dance.

□ The Kaper Cutters of Palatka say they are hoping for a great crowd at their January 10 dance with national caller Frank Lane. . . The dance will be held at the Civic Center, Ravine Gardens, from 8:00 to 11:00. . . The Cutters have cancelled their regularly scheduled dance for January 7.

□ The Gainesville Square Dance Council is now headed by President Jimmy Whiteman of the 441 Club, with Vice President Walt Vaughan of the Sunshine Twirlers, and Secretary-Treasurer Ted Grose of the Swinging Squares.

□ Tom and Mariann Hidding are the new callers for the Jax 'n Jills, the Jacksonville pre-teen club. . . 'Lil Tom Hidding will graduate his first class December 17 for his teen club, the Haystack Hoppers. . . January 14 is the opening night of 'Lil Tom's new class, while Tom and Mariann are beginning an adult class January 16.

□ March 31 is the date set for the Rod Blaylock dance at Jacksonville sponsored by the Allemandarins and the Grand Slammers. . . The dance will be held at Phillips Plaza Highway Community Center.

□ The Allemandarins have had a busy month. . . December 2 the club had a "floor wrecking dance" called by Johnnie Robbins. . . A guest dancer from the Western Cutters left allemanded and his heel broke the wood floor. . . Caller Jonnie says he hopes to frame the broken pieces. "It's definitely a first."

Southeast Area News:

Association Discusses Group Insurance Plan for Members

THE SOUTHEAST FLORIDA Square and Round Dance Association is talking about a group insurance plan for its members. The insurance plan under discussion would cover dancers while engaged in dance activity, traveling to or from a dance.

One bid from a well-known insurance company has been received, Association President Jim Kier said. For a cost of $1.75 a year, each dancer would be covered for up to $5,000, accidental death; $2500, dismemberment; and $1500 regular medical. Kier said the Association would solicit bids from other respected companies.

Kier said he believed the policy was a "good thing" for the dancers. He hopes that his Association accepts the policy and that other associations will follow suit. The cost of the insurance would go down slightly, he said, as the group attracts more members.

In talking about the benefits of the insurance plan, Kier said, "Just think what a policy like this would have meant to the Keokuk, Iowa dancers and their families."

Associations in other states have similar plans, Kier commented, and the dancers have been very well pleased with them.

Kier said he also believed the group insurance plan would make the association more attractive to prospective members.

The insurance plan was one of many matters discussed at the Association's December 11 business meeting at Lew Green's Ponderosa in Miami.

The January meeting will be held Sunday afternoon, January 8, possibly at the Hayloft, said Kier. One matter to be discussed then is a subscription and membership dance for the association and Bow & Swing.

□ The Summit Squares of North Miami Beach are planning a "mystery dance" for sometime in January. . . In February the club will hold its annual Kissin' Kousin Dance, February 15. . . The Club's "new hall opening" dance was an overwhelming success with 16 squares dancing. . . Callers participating were Bert Bennett, Neal Blanchard and Bob Cook. . . December 21 the club held its Christmas party and potluck dinner, inviting the beginners class to attend.

□ The Cloverleaf Square Dance Club brought Yuletide cheer to patients at the Ramsey Nursing Home in Miami. . . For weeks club members brought gaily wrapped gifts to the hall. . . December 22 club members visited the nursing home and distributed the gifts.

□ The Hialeah Squares will celebrate five happy years of dancing at their January 7 fifth birthday party. . . December 17 the club enjoyed a Christmas turkey dinner and party. . . The
