Dance Calendar Promises A Bang-Up Fourth

ALTHOUGH THE Fourth of July means firecrackers and watermelon to some people, to most Florida square dancers it means a dance spectacular.

The first July 4 celebration to get underway is the Shin-Dig '67 at the New Everglades Hotel, Miami, featuring callers Chuck Raley and Beryl Main with round dancers Harry Howe and Lee Rimes. Dates are June 30, July 1 and 2. Next on the calendar is the free street dance at St. Augustine July 1, part of the local Jaycees' July Fourth citywide celebration.

In Kissimmee a July 3 and 4 roundup will feature Hank Hancock and Ed Newton. Dancing will be at the civic center.

July 8 Jacksonville area dancers will be treated to a "firecracker fourth" dance at Phillips Highway Plaza sponsored by the Allemandarins, Grand Slammers, Dixie Chain Gang, Jubileers and Friendly Frolics.

July 8 is also the date of the Golden Isles Swingers' July Jubilee with Bobby Keefe and Dick Barker at Guld Auditorium, Jekyll Island.

Other big July events include the July 8 Dixie Federation dance at Tallahassee with Fred Goodner and the Whirl and Twirl Club dance with Jack Lasry in Orlando July 22.

Two area associations, Northeast and Central Florida, will hold their fifth Saturday dances July 29. Check the calendar of events and club news for details.

Caller for the exhibition was L. H. Weise of Orlando. The exhibition was held at the Robert Meyer Motor Inn in downtown Orlando.

Dear

Bow & Swing

WE HAVE IN the Daytona Beach area what we think is a unique idea in area square dancing. Several months ago the presidents of five clubs got together and decided to hold what we like to call a "community dance" where all clubs dance together alternately at each club.

Each club acts as the host club once each month on the host club's regular dancing night. The host club's caller calls the dance and invites any other caller who happens to be there to call a tip.

We feel we have gotten to know the dancers from other clubs and the bickering between the clubs that used to be prevalent is almost nonexistent.

I thought the idea might work in other areas and would be glad to give details to anyone interested.—HOWELL KNIGHT, President, Highland Squares.

WITH A GROUP of square dance friends we attended the Spring Fling in Gainesville, Florida.

We all felt that the committee for this first affair did a commendable job. The nine thousand paper roses made by the committee and helpers was an outstanding feature of the hall decorations. In addition the geniality of the callers and committee created a friendly atmosphere and we're looking forward to attending next year should this become an annual affair.—BILL AND MADELINE ROACH, MILLIE CULLIS, Clearwater.

TOM AND I wish to express our sincere thanks for your prompt and generous gift of twenty-one copies of BOW AND SWING to present to the new dancers whose pictures appeared in the issue.

This was a great moment in the lives of these children to have their pictures published in a state-wide magazine like BOW AND SWING.—MARIANN HIDDING, Jacksonville.

I PERSONALLY think the trial subscription offer is of real value to the new square dancer and to the magazine itself.

It provides a real opportunity for the new dancer to grasp the full picture of square dancing throughout the state and to inform him of current events. By the same token, it provides BOW AND SWING with the necessary "new" exposure it needs to continue its growth as an important news medium for the square dance movement in the state. It is a fine two-way street . . . hope it can continue.—DANNY ROBINSON, Orlando.

VERNE AND I ended up working with mentally retarded and physically handicapped in the opportunity center, a sheltered workshop in Redding, California. Verne teaches woodworking and related projects in the workshop, and I work in the classroom and the letter shop. In the classroom we have a teacher three hours a day and I take over the rest of the time—teaching reading, writing, arithmetic, etc. . . . I also teach handicrafts, which sometimes I learn right along with them. In the letter shop I teach filing, typing and other business procedures.

Verne and I have been teaching the kids (from 18 to 35 or 40) square dancing and they are doing remarkably well. Of course, we have to slow the music and calling down a great deal in order for them to get it, but they are learning and remembering.

We have complete charge of their Friday night recreation and have interested two local callers in coming and working . . . We are on Wednesdays advisers to a club for the physically handicapped that is just getting started. Right now we are on a hunt

Financial Woes Haunt FFSD Meeting in Jacksonville June 18

THE PERENNIAL PROBLEM—the financial support of BOW AND SWING—was a subject of absorbing interest as members of the board of delegates of Florida Federation of Square Dancers held their midsummer meeting in conjunction with the fourteenth annual Florida Square and Round Dance Convention in Jacksonville.

Meeting in the Robert Meyer hotel on June 18, the group first heard Treasurer Al Martin of Orlando report a lack of sufficient cash on hand to meet current obligations for the monthly publication.

Chairman Walter Stoltz of Bartow pointed out that possibly convention profits could be used to meet the deficit. "But where do we go from here?"

BOW AND SWING Committee Chairman Harold Jenkins of DeBary told the board "it's the same old story; we need a better circulation and more ads.

"We talked about a kit for callers, but there was no way to pay $400 to develop it. Callers had promised to help on ads and circulation, but they're waiting for us to move," Jenkins concluded.

Roy Huguley of Kissimmee thought a "chain reaction" might be started in the form of subscription dances—particularly in areas outside of Central Florida where BOW AND SWING is still a part of the annual membership fee. "Perhaps we could develop another thousand subscriptions over the state."

Could callers help to subsidize the magazine? Stoltz said that Joe Johnson of Windermere had been named to head a committee of callers to work jointly with a committee from the federation toward a solution of the problem. He named Virgil Green, Harold Jenkins and himself to serve as members of the joint committee, and proposed Labor Day as a target date for a report.

In the meantime, Al Cody of Kissimmee, offered to see that the next three issues of the magazine incur no obligation to the federation beyond editorial costs. "I don't guarantee color on the cover and I don't guarantee 16 pages," he said. "But you will have three months to work out a final solution."

It was pointed out that in some areas affiliated associations are in the field with competitive publications. "If the effort that goes into these local publications could be put in behalf of BOW AND SWING, we'd be out of trouble," Stoltz said.

Carl Law of Jacksonville said on the basis of tentative reports the Jacksonville convention should produce a profit of $1640. Paid and complimentary admissions totaled just under 2700 people, he said.

Stoltz commended Carl and his committees for "a smoothly run convention.

"Everybody had a good time."

Details for the 1968 convention in Miami were referred to a convention advisory committee which asked Jim Kier of Miami to determine what support cooperating hotels could provide toward auditorium rental costs.

Matt Bryan of Tampa said the 1969 convention is assured with reservations made for the Curtis Hixon convention facility on June 13-14.

And Bob Brown of Orlando formally presented Central Florida's bid for the 1970 convention. The Robert Meyer hotel and the exhibition hall and auditorium have again been reserved. "But I am told that our new downtown convention facility may be completed in time for our 1970 dates."

Traveling Key Program to Promote Close Club-Association Relationship

A FOOT-LONG presentation key—machined out of gold-anodized aluminum and decorated with dancing figures and the name of the area dancers' association—is the outgrowth of an idea of Central Florida Square Dancers' Associations President-Elect John Donnelly.

"It occurs to me that there needs to be a closer tie between the local club and the area association," he said. "This key is to be presented to some couple attending an association dance and will entitle them to attend without charge any dance of any affiliated club.

"This should encourage visitation and should be an invaluable contact between the club and the association."

The idea was formally placed before the board by Bob Brown, federation vice chairman and Central Florida president, who said a number of clubs had already indicated a willingness to cooperate in the venture. It was his idea that the key would be returned to the following association dance and presented to a new "ambassador couple."

It was acknowledged that care might be necessary in selecting the right couples as ambassadors, a problem readily solved by extracting promises of cooperation from winners drawn by lot.

All clubs within the jurisdiction of each association are asked to advise if they will extend courtesies to the bearers of the key.

Brown said a book would be provided so that couples could log their visitations, with the likelihood that special recognition would be accorded the couple making the greatest number of visitations.

Knothead Konvention Next in View

PLANS FOR THE 1967 edition of Florida's Knothead Konvention have been announced by Knothead Chairman Jim Galloway, even though the event is still weeks away.

This year's Konvention, set for September 2, 3 and 4 at Clearwater will feature national callers Harper Smith and Vaughan Parrish. For round dancers, an exceptional program will be headed up by Jack and Na Stapelton.

Following the pattern of past Konventions, the '67 event will get underway with a pre-Konvention dance Friday night where dancers who qualify may apply for membership.

The climax of the Konvention will be the Saturday night dance followed by an Idiot dance.

RDC Plans For Fall Festival

FIVE-YEAR STARS for 33 members were presented at the midsummer meeting of the Round Dance Council of Florida held in conjunction with the Jacksonville square dance convention June 15-17.

Ruth Curtis of Orlando, treasurer, distributed the five-pointed stars bearing the numeral "5" suitable for cementing on the member's identification badge.

President Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne ticked off a number of routine items, then led discussion of plans for the Fall Festival in Lehigh Acres Nov. 3-5.

Room rates at $9 double, limited to 85 rooms, to be held only until Oct. 28, must be arranged through Secretary Fran Malhiot of Clearwater.

Bill Leonard is program chairman, and Chuck Heise is in charge of the trail dance, which will include squares and rounds. Saturday night will be party night. Registration is $7.75 per session, or $2.00 for the weekend.

A business meeting on Sunday Sept. 3 will follow the annual Knothead Konvention in Clearwater, Mrs. Brammeier said.

Text of BOW AND SWING'S "Philadelphia edition" article on the council was read to the group by Mrs. Malhiot.

Windshield and luggage stickers made for the Florida Callers Association by Gerry King of Orlando were shown to the group and Mrs. Curtis was asked to determine cost of a similar sticker for the council.

Square of the month for July:

Two Singing Calls

THERE ARE TWO featured squares this month, both singing calls. Both were selected by coordinator John Saunders' first Sunday workshop, the Outlaws.

The first is "Live and Love," recorded on Hi Hat #346. It's a "rip roaring country tune played Dixieland style."

Four ladies chain across, rollaway and circle left; allemande left, allemande thru, right and left and form a star; slip the clutch, left allemande, do-sa-do, left allemande, promenade.

SEQUENCE

The second singing call is "Open Up Your Heart" on MacGregor #2011. Saunders terms the dance "simple," and comments that the dance patters are interesting.

Join hands, circle left; allemande left and do-sa-do your own; men star by the left; turn it around the land; do-sa-do your gal and weave the land; do-sa-do that gal and promenade; open up your heart and let my love come in.

FIGURE

Heads couple promenade half around; move into the middle; do a right and left thru; star three squares thru three quarters; split two go around one; make a line of four; star thru, partners trade; swing your corner.

Florida caller material this month centers on "Dixie styles" and comes from caller Saunders.
