Letters to the Editor

THE ROUND DANCE COUNCIL feels there is a definite need for Bow & Swing and the Council will support it in every way possible. We assure our advertising support and agree to send in reports of meetings and any news of interest to round dancers. We hope that Bow & Swing will be able to continue its excellent coverage of all angles of square and round dancing in the future.—FRAN MALHIOT, secretary, Round Dance Council of Florida.

ENJOYED THE COVER picture of the October issue. Lovely! —FRANK and LINDA SMAIDRIS, Missile Twisters and East Coast Dancers.

MY HUSBAND AND I attended the Knothead Convention over Labor Day weekend; Saturday, September 2, Fred Christopher, caller from St. Petersburg, called at the Fort Harrison Room—I must say it is outstanding and kept the whole floor dancing—they had callers, Harper Smith and Vaughn Parrish, but "Chris" kept them going all the time. He also called at Largo Fair last March and did a fine job then. We think he should be given some recognition as a caller—he is one of the best.

We are subscribers of BOW AND SWING and wouldn't be without it.—MR. AND MRS. HARRY RASMUSSEN, Clearwater.

ON BEHALF of the officers and membership of the Miami Beach Ocean Waves, I would like to express our grateful appreciation for the honor you extended by featuring us on the front cover of the October issue of Bow & Swing.

I have always considered Bow & Swing to be an excellent source of square dancing news to the entire State of Florida and I believe it to be essential to the continued success and popularity of square dancing in Florida that this magazine continue to operate and flourish.

If you would like to send me some (turn to page 11)

Lane Heads Federation; Miami's Convention Plans are Reviewed

PAUL LANE of Jacksonville became chairman of Florida Federation of Square Dancers, succeeding Walter Stoltz of Bartow, at the annual meeting of the organization at Lehigh Acres, on October 22.

Other officers elected include Al Martin of Orlando, vice president, Mori Sogolow of Tampa, secretary, and George Oglesby of Miami, treasurer.

A new slate of delegates from affiliated area organizations comprised the governing body of the federation for the association year ending next October.

Three delegates are nominated by each affiliated association, and one delegate from that area is named by the federation. Other delegates seated, by associations, include the following:

West Coast—Warren Hyland, St. Petersburg, Chuck Johnson, Bartow, Matt Bryan, Tampa, Sogolow and Stoltz.

Southeast Florida—Jack Lascola, Norman Barron, Dick Baker, and Oglesby.

Northeast Florida — Bob Ross, Chet Vetter, Ken Seefried, and Lane.

Central Florida—Wayne Wallace, Daytona Beach, John Donnelly, Palm Bay, and Martin.

Also serving on the board of delegates are the following past chairman who were formally seated: Virgil Green of Jacksonville, Harry Moore of Miami Beach, Carl Heath of Winter Haven, Frank Cornwall of Miami, Harold Jenkins of DeBary, Hink Smith of St. Petersburg and Al Cody of Kissimmee.

Jim Kier of Miami reported progress on plans for the 1968 convention in Miami Beach, showed bumper strips and leaflets, and asked for co-chairmen in each area who would handle distribution of the advertising and receive advance registrations.

The federation agreed to make available $300 for advance expenses for the convention.

Bryan reported on a bid from St. Petersburg for the 1969 convention; it was not accepted, he said, since plans for a Tampa site had already been confirmed.

Termination of the federation's contract for Bow & SWING was reported by Secretary Paul Lane.

Dr. Al Hixon of Daytona Beach, serving as liaison from the Florida Callers' Association, urged the federation to consider supporting the Florida Callers' Clinic as a means of providing professional improvement for callers throughout the state.

"Most people accept the professional clinic as a necessary device to maintain a high level of proficiency," Hixon said. "And I think most dancers will want their callers to take advantage of the excellent instruction that can be obtained at these callers' clinics."

Dancers could help in two ways:

1. They could give up their weekly dance if necessary so that their caller could attend (and possibly allow his regular fee toward expenses), and

2. Area dances with out of state callers could be planned to coincide with the third weekend in October each year, annual dates of the clinic.

Green presented the report for the nominating committee, which included Cody and Cornwall, and Warren Hyland moved its acceptance and unanimous approval.

The report of Treasurer Al Martin showed an October 16 balance of $588.26, total expenditures for the year of $2863.92, including $1590.68 for supporting Bow & SWING for the first half of 1967.

Dues Are Due!

FLORIDA CALLER'S Association Treasurer Neal Blanchard asks Bow & SWING to carry this message to all members of the organization.

"If each of you will send your dues direct to me at 1511 N.E. 53rd Street, Fort Lauderdale 33308," he said, "it will save my having to write you about it."

Mr. & Mrs. Bill McAdam and Mr. & Mrs. Russ Bartlett display beautiful new banner of South Orlando Squares shortly before Kiss-A-Me Bandits whisked it away to Kissimmee.

Help!

CORRESPONDENTS are urged to send in all news and club activities to Bow & Swing (before the 10th of each month, please). Some areas are falling behind in letting us know "what's cooking", and those that are "on the ball" get the most coverage.

Robinson Crusoe

COORDINATOR John Saunders sends us "Robinson Crusoe" as Square of the Month for November. It's a WW No. 305, Beryl Main.

Perhaps an answer to the question "what did Robinson Crusoe do with Friday on a Saturday Night?" is . . . "they shared a double sundae!"

FIGURE

Allemande left in th' Alamò Style, balance in and out, swing thru-, go forward two, swing thru again; Turn thru and then - Allemande that corner right, weave around that ring. On this island of wild men, there must be wild women - Do-st-do and promenade - What did Robinson Crusoe do with Friday on Saturday night.

Head couples up to the middle, come back to the ring - square thru 4 hands around and then - gonna split the sides around one, make a line of 4. Go up to the middle and back, box th' gran' right and left thru, 4 ladies star by. But that one time around - same man you swing and promenade - What did Robinson Crusoe do with Friday on Saturday night?

Ernest Taylor is now addressed at 2530 South Federal Highway, Boynton

Beach 33453 . . . Hal and Marge Ham are back in Florida after three years at Brevard, N. C. Hal is calling for the Square Knots at Titusville but mostly he's back in school (cost accounting). The Hams can be addressed at 335 Warwick Ave., Ormond 32074 . . . Chamber of Commerce at Marathon is to be location of benefit dance for unfortunate Johnny Walters, hospitalized in Illinois for some time; area callers will preside.

Eddie Millan of Jacksonville sends material using a Left Spin Chain Thru.

STYLE 1

Head couples star thru, pass thru, star thru, ladies lead Dixie style, to an ocean wave, left spin chain thru, balance, then do a left spin chain thru, men trade, left allemande.
