FFSD Annual Meeting:

Al Martin of Orlando Heads Federation

A photograph of the newly elected officers is on our cover.

AL MARTIN of Orlando heads the Florida Federation of Square Dancers, succeeding Paul Lane of Jacksonville, as a result of elections held in the organization's annual meeting at Palm Beach Shores Oct. 20.

Mori Sogolow of Tampa is vice chairman, George Oglesby of Miami is secretary and Chet Vetter of Gainesville is treasurer.

Martin was authorized to proceed with contract-signing for the 1970 convention June 11-14 in Orlando, and good reports were heard on plans for the June 19-21, 1969 convention in Tampa.

The knotty problem of complimentary rooms (who gets 'em?) was discussed at some length; some felt the working committees should have preference, others thought the officers of the three sponsoring organizations should have them. It all depends on the number of rooms available and it looked like the three presidents and the convention chairmen would be the only lucky ones in Tampa next June.

The traveling keys presented last year by John Donelly of Melbourne have traveled far: it is expected that one may be brought back from Europe any day now.

The Southeast Florida Square and Round Dance association reported 52 club visitations by the officers and a hoped-for total of 650 members.

Seated as a board of delegates at the Palm Beach Shores meeting were Jack Lascola, Norman Barron, Len Levitt, and the Oglesbys of Southeast Florida, Bob Sinn, Chet Vetter, Ken Seefried, and Jim Whiteman, for Northeast Florida, Martin, John Sullivan, Donelly and another to be named, from Central Florida, and Sogolow, Troy Harre, Warren Hyland and Buddy Ireland, representing the West Coast dancers association.

Act Promptly!

A 1968-69 edition of the Where to Dance leaflet given away at Florida's welcome stations is now being prepared by a committee of the Florida Callers Association. Callers wishing to be listed ($5.00) should mail their contribution — and their name, city and telephone number — to Jack Lasry, 19010 N.W. 11th Avenue, Miami 33169.

New officers of the Florida Callers Association include (seated) Sam Allison, secretary, Vernon Johnson, president, Neal Blanchard, vice president and Cliff Hendricks, treasurer. Directors (standing) include Colin Walton, past president, and Jim Pearson.

50 Register for Annual Callers Clinic at Palm Beach Shores

THE FLORIDA CALLERS CLINIC—annual “short course” which is a vital part of the association’s service to its members—drew more than 50 registrants to hear Jerry Helt of Cincinnati in the ballroom of The Colonnades Beach Hotel at Palm Beach Shores. “It’s our biggest yet,” claimed Vern Johnson, chairman of the organization’s education committee.

At any rate, the limited number of dancers invited for the Saturday night dance, found his package refreshingly different.

Sunday morning, Oct. 20, the callers association held their annual meeting and elected Johnson president, Neal Blanchard vice president, Sam Allison, secretary, and Cliff Hendricks treasurer.

Retiring President Colin Walton thanked the members for an opportunity to serve the association. Allison reported that the Tampa convention committee organized on Sept. 22.

Jack Lasry inquired whether the remarks made to the dancers association in Clearwater were the official position of the FCA and was told “there is no problem; the purpose was to encourage communication.” “We don’t want anyone to think this thing is automatic,” said Allison, “but if there are better facilities available we want to have our dancers there.”

Lasry was authorized to proceed with printing additional brochures for distribution at the welcome stations (20,000 were utilized last year) and Henry Purcell was asked to check on possibilities of operating Bow & Swing under the umbrella of the Florida Callers Association and report back to the organization. A standing ovation greeted Publisher Al Cody, who said he was sincerely interested in finding somebody or some group who would continue Bow & Swing as an effective medium for communication between dancers, callers and round dance instructors.

Warren Hyland, dancer liaison representative, urged callers to consider the needs of the beginning dancers.

It was announced that future fall clinics will include Frank Lane and Earl Johnston, but that plans were open for the spring, 1969 clinic.

Dear Bow & Swing

Through the medium of Bow & Swing, we would like to acknowledge and thank all of our many friends everywhere for their many kinds of expressions of love and sympathy in our loss of Joe A. Curtis.

The love expressed by you was a tribute to Joe that will linger with us a long time. Our heartfelt thanks.—Ruth Curtis and family.

Bill Bliss Heads Council; Festival at Canaveral Hilton

MEMBERS of the Round Dance Council of Florida named a new slate of officers, selected the Cape Canaveral Hilton for their 1969 Fall Festival, and set aside for future action a proposal to provide liability insurance for their members at an additional cost of $2 per year, at their annual meeting in Jacksonville Nov. 3.

Bill Bliss of Fort Lauderdale, who was chairman of the 1968 Fall Festival in Jacksonville, was named president of the organization, succeeding Byron Markle of Venice, who remains on the board of directors.

Other officers (who also constitute the board) include Charles Lovelace of Tampa, vice president, Margaret Patane of Fort Lauderdale, secretary, and Lara Bookmiller of Orlando, treasurer.

Plans for observance of the organization's tenth anniversary in 1969 will include publication of a souvenir memorial booklet, according to Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne.

Bliss reported that relations with the Florida Callers Association are excellent and emphasized that lines of communication between the dancers, callers and round dance instructors, must be kept open in the future. He expressed the hope that Bow & Swing would be continued in some effective form. He said Lovelace would maintain close contact with the Tampa convention committees and thought probably the callers would like to have some control over the Saturday night round selections. "They want simple, easy dances well cued," he said.

Bliss announced that Tom McRorie of Gainesville would serve as round dance coordinator for the new association year, and said K. O. Williams of Titusville will be chairman of the 1969 Fall Festival.

Jim Kier Says $4,353.39 Received From State Convention Registrants

NET INCOME from the Miami convention was $2,789.54, according to Jim Kier's report to the board of delegates of the Florida Federation of Square Dancers at Clearwater on Labor Day.

The financial report of the Miami convention, distributed by Jack Lascola, showed income from registration and spectator donations of $4,353.39. Booth rental brought in $175.00 and contributions from participating hotels toward the auditorium rent amounted to $717.40.

Offsetting total receipts of $5,545.79 were expenses of $2,456.25, leaving the net income figure reported.

Sam Allison, callers' liaison, appealed for financial assistance for the room rent of three officers of the association (the president received one of the eleven complimentary rooms) on the grounds that each was making a financial sacrifice to participate in the convention and that two of the officers were deeply involved in committees managing the convention. This touched off a lively debate which resulted in a committee appointed to make recommendations for improvement of the convention rules in this area.

"Most important," concluded Kier, "is that the people had a good time. I also feel that the callers did an outstanding job in programming."

It was agreed that the mid-June dates for the Florida convention would not be changed; some agitation for adoption of the Memorial Day weekend had led to considerable study. But dancers felt that the new weekend national holiday format would add nothing to the convention, raised the question whether Sunday was a suitable day for convention dancing.

Wally Stoltz reported September 22 was the date for his organization meeting for the 1969 convention in Tampa. Provision will be made for campers, it was indicated. Allison asked that the chairman "notify me of all meetings concerning the 1969 convention."

Regarding the 1970 convention he stated that the Florida Callers Association is "officially proposing that we have future state conventions only in Tampa and Jacksonville because they are the only cities in the state acceptable to us." A verbal storm from Miami supporters and grumbles from Jacksonville people who figure once every four years is enough subsided long enough for the board to approve plans for the 1970 convention in Orlando. Allison pointed out that the dates announced are now the third week in June, and Al Martin, speaking for Orlando, said the dates were set to avoid conflict with the national convention in Louisville.

Winter Festival Sell-Out; Next Year's Dates are Set

45 OR 50 SQUARES filled the DiLido ballroom for the Florida Winter Festival Nov. 1-3, and the sell-out audience included dancers from all over the state.

Calling in the diverse styles of Roger Chapman, Frank Bedell, Jack Lasry, and John Saunders provided variety for the dancers. Bill and Betty Beattie cued the rounds. The program included workshops, challenge and relaxed dancing. The Saturday night afterparty featured skits by the staff.

Plans for the 1969 festival have been announced for the DiLido on Oct. 31-Nov. 2.

Regular dances on Dec. 14 and 28 will be held by the Westernaires of Miami, in addition to a New Year's Eve dance starting at 9 p.m. and including a buffet dinner after midnight.

Nautical Wheelers of Key West danced for the Memorial elementary school PTA Oct. 28, and on Nov. 20 entertained students at a covered dish supper and dance. For December 20, the club plans its annual Christmas Party at the Holiday Inn. According to Marge Rosam Caller Henry Purcell retailed for several idiot parties by holding a Cuckoo party at the home of Margaret and John Garnett.

The Starlighters club of Lake Worth visited the Hamblins in their new hall at the Oakland Park recreation center recently. Kitty and Fran have a workshop beginning at 7:15 with dancing from 7:45 on.

Holiday Steppers are making plans for their Sweetheart Party on Feb. 9 in the Holiday Park Recreation Hall in Fort Lauderdale.

The Castoffs are sponsoring a round dance class for beginners and intermediate dancers with Donald and Marie Trim as teachers. An early bird session beginning at 7:30 each Friday is handled by the Trims who also cue the rounds during the club dances.

The Southernaires of West Palm Beach are now dancing at their new location in the Haverhill town hall, 4585 Charlotte St., one block north of Belvedere Park and one block west of Military Trail. Ernie Bass is the club caller and rounds are cued by Tom O'Brien. Dedication night Oct. 23, saw dancers from many area clubs joining the Southernaires for the occasion.

Southernaires plans Christmas dance and pot luck supper Dec. 22 beginning at 5 o'clock with exchange of gifts. On Dec. 28 the club will enjoy the Jungle Queen boat ride from Fort Lauderdale; Marge Starr (848-8976) has the tickets.

The Pompano Pumpanders will hold their Christmas Dance Friday, Dec. 20 at the American Legion hall in Pompano with Ralph Otis calling. A collection will be taken up for underprivileged children, in place of the exchange of gifts, according to Mary Cooper, club correspondent.

Boots and Bows and Shirts and Skirts will hold their New Year's Eve Party at the Women's Club at Pompano Beach with Bob Bennett of Valdosta, caller. Reservations are suggested: Vern Johnson (566-7755).

Council Plans Charity Ball in Orlando Auditorium Dec. 15

TEX BROWNLEE's appearance in Leesburg under auspices of the Happy Hoedowners on Dec. 6 (and in Daytona Beach Dec. 16 for the Highland Squares) and the Western Square Dance Council's Second Annual Charity Ball in Orlando Dec. 15, highlight the square dance calendar in Central Florida for the month of December. According to Pat McDow of the Council, the dance this year will benefit Primrose School and local callers will participate.

New Year's balls at Eau Gallie (Harry Lackey of Greensboro, N. C.) under East Coast Dancers auspices, in Orlo Vista, and in the Maitland Civic Center (Danny Robinson) for the Whirl & Twirl club, bring a busy month to a climax.

The South Orlando Squares will feature Les Linn of Miami on Dec. 28. The club will dance Dec. 14 to Bill Ford of Maitland, and Erma Ammons reports that 22 squares attended the Columbus Day dance with the Hoot 'n Two.

Beginner classes are underway by the Orlando Recreation Department with Bill Shell calling, and over in Daytona Beach the Highland Squares report 4 squares in classes under John Saunders.

New officers of the Highland Squares include Everett and Lorene Winn, president, Milton and Louise Rippey, vice president, Betty Andres, secretary-treasurer, and Ann and Gene LeMay, Duane and Barbara Cone, Addie and Bill Chapman, and Lenny and Clara Cobos, board members. "There were prizes galore at our Hallowe'en dance," reports Clara Cobos.

The Firehouse Squares will present their annual New Year's Eve Ball on Tuesday, Dec. 31 at the Orlo Vista Firehouse, beginning at 9 p.m. A big buffet supper is planned for after the dance; Bill Ford will call. "Along with the dance there will be door prizes and the Firehouse Gang hospitality," says Jim McDow. For further information call him at 293-1338.

Vero Beach Circle Eights plan a pot luck dinner at 7 o'clock prior to their Christmas Party on Dec. 19. Interested square dancers may participate by bringing a covered dish and a gift for the grab bag.

John Donelly points out the name of the local area association is Central Florida Square Dancers Association. He also adds that the dance listed under March 31 for the past few issues should be listed under May 31. Colin Walton of Palm Beach Gardens will call in Orlando for the association's scheduled dance on that date. The March 29 date will feature Roger Chapman at Sanford's Civic Center.

Kiss-A-Mee Squares Hallowe'en costume ball drew dancers from all over, and the program included a cakewalk, fortune telling, prizes for the best costumes and the calling of Hank Hancock.

Free square dancing on first Saturdays is offered at Ryals Pontiac in Kissimmee, it is reported by the Kiss-A-Mee Squares. The Kiss-A-Mee Squares will have Bill Peterson of Lavana, Mich., as their caller for the Third Annual Rodeo Dance on Feb. 21, in the Upperware Auditorium. Franklin was heard in the same hall on Nov. 18 when he called for the Whirl & Twirl club.

And Harper Smith is booked in the Lake City Armory on Jan. 11.

After the Allemanderins had worked long and hard remodeling their hall and were ready to put the finishing touches on it—it burned to the ground. They vow that a new one will go up in its place!

The Spring Fling slated for Gainesville March 22 and 23 has been cancelled, according to Chet Vetter.

Tex Brownlee will be in Gainesville for his yearly visit Dec. 7.

Swinging Squares of Gainesville have talked Ron Hagan into quite a task. He is calling for them, teaching a class of four squares, and learning to call!

Nov. 30 is Date for Pirate Ball In Panama City

PANAMA CITY'S FRIENDLY SQUARES will hold their annual Pirate's Ball on Sat. November 30 in the Square Dance Center, 110 W. 6th Street, it is announced by Dorothy Smith.

The Center will be decorated in a South Pacific motif, complete with palm trees, a pirate ship, pirates, treasure. Caller will be Danny Robinson of Winter Park.

Members of Florida Pirates from all parts of the state are expected to attend.

The Capital Squares of Tallahassee have enjoyed the teaching and calling of Randy Musgrove during the absence of Flunk Goff whose hospitalization of more than a month has involved two operations.

"We have missed him greatly and are happy to report that he is now on the way back to recovery," says Sara Belcher.

Musgrove is teaching the club's fall class "with more than three squares fast becoming good dancers."

Dancers from the Capital Squares have attended the Peanut Festival in Dothan, the Missile Twister's Harvest Moon Ball, and the Eagle Rock Fling.

Luther and Marie Pumphrey and Bill and Mary Helms are shown as they appeared in the 1967 Panama City Pirate Ball. They're looking forward to the 1968 event on Nov. 3.

The Twirlers are sponsoring a beginner dance class meeting on Sunday evenings, according to Mary Lee Van Valkenburg.

Skeeter Chauvin of Tampa was scheduled caller at a Camporee held at Riverview Nov. 15-16 by the Sunshine State chapter of the National Square Dance Campers Association. If you're a square dancing camper, get information from Clyde and Margaret Hensley of St. Petersburg (526-7903).

The Tanglefoots Square Dance Club of Brandon announces a full schedule for December with Dick Bishop calling for dances on Dec. 19 and Dec. 31.

Those attending the Dec. 19 dance are urged to bring a $1.00 gift, with the ladies gifts to be wrapped in red paper, the men's gifts in green.

The New Year's Eve party will include games, favors, and door prizes, as well as square dancing. All Tanglefoots dances are held in the Civic Center on Sadie Street.

"We're hoping for a good turnout for our Nov. 29 dance," writes Edith Peterson of the Yell-o-Rockers at Zephyrhills, "even though you listed it with the Southeast Florida news and even though you left us out of the Where to Dance page." Mrs. Peterson adds that Hurricane Gladys ruined attendance for the Hallowe'en dance on Oct. 18.

The Strawberry Strollers will feature Tex Brownlee on Dec. 10 at Plant City. Chuck Gerneuser is editing The West Coast Dancer, a new publication sponsored by the West Coast Square

Change a Web

THE FEATURE FIGURE for December, Change a Web was written by your coordinator and has been very well received wherever it has been shown.

"Change a Web has unusually good dancer reaction," declares the National Notes for Callers, "Dancers prefer it over a normal spin web in that everyone is active and it dances very well."

Change a Web is a variation of Spin a Web, using a four hand star instead of the three-hand star of Spin a Web. The setup for the figure is the same as for Spin a Web: a double pass through with the lead couples in an ocean wave . . . the center couples will exchange places with the trailing couple, thus the name, Change a Web.

Like in Spin a Web, the centers turn three quarters and step out to meet the inactives with a right hand star . . . the center ends also step forward to join the outsides in a four-hand star . . . being sure to fall in place in front of the other active.

The star turns once-and-a-quarter and as it does, one of the inactives leads the star, the inactive one leading the star goes into the center and turns three quarters, just as in Spin a Web . . . then simultaneously the person trailing the inactive who moved into the center . . . steps to the left center to become the end of a new ocean wave in the center. The couples have exchanged places, leaving the outside half sashayed. Two times is a zero movement.

The flow of the figure is very smooth and for those who already know Spin a Web it is easily picked up. For those who do not know Spin a Web, it is taught just as easily. A few examples with promoting in parentheses:

Change A Web—(swing half, centers three quarters, ends step ahead . . . four hand star . . . one and a quarter . . . side men center, turn left three quarters . . . side ladies step left, balance)

Change a Web—(swing half, centers three quarters, ends step ahead . . . four hand star . . . one and a quarter . . . head ladies center, turn left three quarters . . . head men step left, balance)

Square Thru Three Quarters—Left Allemande.

Heads lead right . . . circle to . . . pass through . . . wheel and deal . . . centers do-sa-do . . . Change a Web . . . Change a Web . . . step through . . . circle four . . . break to a line . . . pass through . . . wheel and deal . . . centers do-sa-do . . . Change a Web . . . Change a Web . . . step through . . . swing through . . . turn through . . . left allemande.

Set up: a 2-boy, 2-girl line . . . pass through . . . wheel and deal and have the center two boys, or girls . . . start the figure. It is good position dancing and not hard for the dancers.

"It has been fun being your square dance coordinator this year," says Coordinator Jack Lasry. "I hope my small efforts have been helpful to both dancer and caller in making square dancing more fun and smoother."

□ Good to hear Flunk Goff is on the mend and will be back calling again . . . Randy Musgrove has pinch-hit for him at Capital Squares . . . and has taught more than three squares of beginners this fall . . . Carl Geels of Fort Wayne is looking for dates in Florida between Jan. 8 and 15 . . . he's already booked for Boynton Beach on Jan. 10 and Tampa on Jan. 15 . . . his variety program includes yodeling, piano, organ . . . Bill Camp is calling for the Palatka Kaper Cutters . . .

□ The Florida Winter Festival—scheduled "at the near opposite pole from the state convention" will be held in 1969 at the DILido, three days starting Oct. 31 . . . "We believe it fills a need in the Florida dance scene for an additional big occasion," the committee says.

□ Ernie Bass calls on First Fridays for the Rhythmaires in Fort Lauderdale, and will be calling New Year's Eve in Fort Myers for the Kriss Kross Squares.

□ Jim Harness is instructor for the children's square dance class in Orlando's Chess Club on Thursday evenings.

Callers for the Orlando Charity Ball will be Bill Shell, Bill Ford, Danny Robinson and Hank Hancock, with L. H. Weise as master of ceremonies.

and Round Dancers Association.

Sandspurs Square Dance club of Winter Haven which will sponsor the annual Frankie Lane dance in the Lakeland Municipal Auditorium Jan. 4, lived up to expectations with their annual Beer (Root) Party in Nov. 25. There was plenty of beer and pretzels, can dancers, singing waiters, and typical atmosphere including a marvelous twirling sphere of mirrors created from papier mache by Lil Wurzel.

Lasry Tapes Are Offered

New officers for the Kiss-A-Mee Squares include Betty and Red Nace, president, Marion and Clarence Steinhoff, vice president, Marion and Howard Stark, secretary, Becky and Don Carnes, treasurer, and Joan and Mike Forsmoe and Jean and John Hurley, as recreation chairmen.

John and Patty Smoot are taking the lead in organizing a series of 24 taped dances called by Jack Lasry on first and third Thursdays beginning Nov. 21 in the Pinacastle Women's club.

New Dances and Demonstrations Highlight Round Dance Festival

ALTHOUGH ATTENDANCE suffered because of remoteness, the 1968 Fall Festival of the Round Dance Council of Florida in Jacksonville was widely hailed as one of the best planned events of its kind.

Held in the George Washington Hotel the program began Friday evening, Nov. 1 and closed at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon. In the meantime dancers had been taught the waltz Forty Winks (Grenn 1411), the intricate two-step Enchantress (Scope 12), River of Golden Dreams (Decca 25605) and the Heartache Cha Cha (Dance Along P6060).

Helen Crout and Bobby Willis taught the cha cha number, Tom and Sue McRorie taught Forty Winks, Ed and Kay Mack presented Golden Dreams, and Volly and Joan Reynolds taught Enchantress.

Demonstrations included Even on Sunday by John and Phyllis Williams of Falmouth, Mass., Rose Tango by Art and Dorothea Brammeier of Melbourne, and True Love by Bill and Pat Bliss.

Others on the festival committee included Lew and Helen Danklefs, Margaret and Maurice Patane, K.O. and Phyllis Williams and Ray and Lora Bookmiller. Bobby Keefe called squares Sunday morning and Friday evening.

Third Sunday Round Dancing At Sarasota

The Chicago club is under leadership of Art and Ruth Youwer, who wrote both dances, currently at the head of the Chicago Area Round Dance Leaders... The Third Sunday dance is held in the County Agricultural Building in Sarasota and is sponsored by the Gondoliers of Venice (By and Lu Markle) and Desoto Rounders of Bradenton (Bill and Bertha Leonard).

□ Charles Lovelace reports his beginner round dance class in Tampa includes 25 couples... they will help with rounds for the Plant City Strollers' beginners class.

□ Scope Records, the square and round dance recording company which has been operated for the past several years by Jay Orem in Los Angeles, California, has been sold to Mac McCullar of San Luis Obispo, California, effective October, 1968. Jay Orem has retained ownership of the company which produces records for roller skating rinks and has also gone into another field which is taking much of his time. Mac McCullar is a caller and has been a recording artist on the Scope label. He has a knowledgeable background in music as well as in calling and brings considerable experience to the operation of the label. The new address for Scope Records is P. O. Box 1448, San Luis Obispo, California 93401.

"I hope to continue the good reputation of Scope Records and maybe even improve our product as time goes on, McCullar told Bow & Swing." "Any time suggestions for recording will be given my personal attention."
