Saunders's Class Graduates on April Fools' Day

JOHN SAUNDERS, caller for Daytona's Highland Squares, graduated a new class April 1. Class consisted of 3½ squares, including 1½ squares of teenagers, all of whom are young and full of pep.

This club's recent Fontana Florida Ball was a terrific success with 50 squares. No one wanted to sit out any of the dances because they wanted to enjoy the Fontana Ramblers to the fullest. Callers included Louis Calhoun, Harry Lackey and John Saunders, with Ed and Kay Mack cueing the rounds.

Highland Squares were saddened by the sudden death of a fellow member, George Andress. Deepest sympathy is extended his wife, Betty, and their three children.

Fla. Pirates Spawned as Aid to Club Relations, Adding Fun and Adventure

THE ROAR OF cannon, the clash of swords, walking the plank and raising the Jolly Roger to declare 32 Florida cities under siege by the Florida Pirates would have, at one time, filled one with fear and terror. But of late, pirate landings have brought naught but joy and laughter when swashbuckling, handsomely costumed pirates and their fair ladies invade Florida's wonderful world of square dancing by exchanging pieces-of-eight for squares-of-eight.

The unique Florida Pirates Club was organized in 1962 by John Donelly of Palm Bay, Florida, president of Who Goofed Squares. He was looking for better inter-club relationships, and believed that everyone, at one time or another, has secretly yearned to become a pirate or an adventurer, but never had been able to make his dream become a reality. Where not but in Florida (and why not now), he decided to bring this fantasy out for an airing.

Square dancing, in Donelly's mind, can receive further impetus with colorful parties. So, a Pirates Ball, with its' color and costumes, is a natural.

The first Pirates Ball was held June 29, 1962, with over 100 costumed buccaneers whirling and twirling to the antics of Jim Rice, who called from a full rigged galleon with a mermaid bow sprit. With the honor of all good pirates at stake, stealing into squares was in order. For goofing or conduct unbecoming a pirate, dancers were thrown into the brig or put in stocks.

The proverbial King Neptune held his court and Golden Seahorse awards were presented to the first square to dance across the imaginary equator. A similar award (Silver Starfish) was presented the first square to dance around the North Star at a Florida Pirates Party. The affair came to a close with a hair-raising treasure hunt, led by Billy Bones himself, ending with all hands on deck to dance the Florida Pirates theme song, Barnacle Bill the Sailor.

Donelly became chief of the Florida Pirates at this time, with six petty officers and 86 charter members in his motley crew. A pendant bar was then designed to be awarded square dancers who became members of the Pirates Club.

To date there have been 32 Pirates Parties with swashbucklers hailing from all points of the compass. Each year a Grand Ball or Pirates Conclave is co-sponsored by a club or group of clubs.

This year Florida's Square Dancing Pirates will rendezvous in Orlando for their Grand Annual Conclave. When this fantastic affair gets under way, it will have at the helm, the Orlando Western Square Dance Council, Orlando Callers Guild and Orlando Recreation Department as hosts.

Frank Bedell (Mr. Yo Ho Ho himself) will be calling the tips from aboard the galleon Pandora.

Orlando Ready to be Raided by Fla. Pirates May 10-11 for Annual Ball

ON MAY 10-11 the Florida Pirates Square Dance Club will raise their Jolly Roger to the top gallant of the Orlando Municipal Auditorium to hold their 6th Grand Annual costume ball.

The Orlando Western Square Dance Council, Orlando Callers Guild and the Orlando Recreation Department, co-sponsors for the ball, are really buzzing along making elaborate plans for the most gala affair to be held this season, claims John Donelly, chief of pirates.

Donelly will be giving Jim McDow, chairman, and his giant crew, an assist in programming and decorating with a master plan that will turn the auditorium into a glittering ballroom of authentic pirates' lore, including Spanish galleon, brig, stocks, smoking lamp, and a treasure chest full of bounty, donated by local merchants, to be given as prizes.

The two day dance sessions program a Pirates Party for Friday evening, May 10. Anyone wishing to join Ye Ole Pirates crew may do so at this time, for only those who are members will be eligible to attend the Grand Annual Costume Ball on Saturday, May 11.

Saturday afternoon program calls for a get-acquainted square and round dance workshop from 2 to 5 p. m., with the Grand Ball scheduled for 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

There will be awards for most authentic pirate, the most beautiful pirate, and a prize to the club with largest number of pirates attending.

All ye square dancing pirates will be whirling and twirling to the antics of ye ole buccaner caller, Frank Bedell, who is slated for the Grand Ball with members of Orlando Callers Guild programmed for the Friday night and Saturday afternoon workshop.

Chief Pirate John Donelly and wife, Ruth, pose before the pirate galleon, Pandora. Ye ole pirate galleon has sailed over 1500 miles to decorate many of the halls for Pirates' parties.

DO you plant attending the annual State Convention this year? Get those registrations in early for a big savings and attend the Early Bird Dance.

Will Orlich, Square Dance Choreographer, Visits Florida

by Milton W. Kelly

WILLARD (WILL) W. ORLICH, as most square dancers know, is one of our foremost square dance choreographers. He is associate editor of Square Dance magazine and square dance choreographer for Grenn Recordings. His National Caller Reports, reflecting the exploration and testing of new square dance ideas and new recordings. His National Caller Reports, reflecting the exploration and testing of new square dance ideas and new recordings, is subscribed to by over 500 callers in 48 states and Canada.

While in Sarasota early in April, Orlich conducted an experimental square dance workshop simulating the kind of work being done by his well-known American Squares in his home town of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Over 64 dancers attended the workshop, which was sponsored by the Freelancers. He was assisted by George O. Jabbusch, one of his top callers for American Squares.

Six west coast callers also attended the workshop. They were Bob Norton of Bradenton, Fred Christopher and Jim Taylor of St. Petersburg, Bill Grant of Tampa, Roger Chapman of Winter Haven and Ken Logan from Lehigh Acres.

A recent Orlich endeavor, which has had excellent initial response, is the national Associations Report to serve as a communication medium between S/D caller associations in the United States and Canada. This long needed publication will assist caller associations to encourage member participation, promote learning, trace information sources, and furnish teaching and calling aids in the square dance choreography area. The Reports will be especially helpful to new callers because actual square dance figure material will be restricted to well established basics.

Will is also a member of Sets-In-Order's Gold Ribbon Committee, dedicated to developing practical and good guidelines, including standardization, for all phases of square and round dancing. He serves on the committee for "exploratory dancing."

During an informal discussion period, Orlich was asked his impressions of square dancing in Florida. The following is a summary of his more constructive comments: 1. The prevalence of "making up" complete sets by dancers is undemocratic, unsocial, and not in keeping with the high standards being promoted to assure increasing popularity of square dancing. This matter should be of especial importance in Florida which receives a large number of touring and vacationing dancers.

Our ethical and hospitable profile would be improved by always keeping sets open for at least one, and preferably two, couples who may be strangers or visitors at the club. Voluntary "partner trading" would also help newer dancers to acquire confidence. Complete selection of dancers, however, might be condoned for workshop purposes or for challenge-type tips. 2. Certain styling habits which cause dancers to lose their timing and proper positioning are the growing practice of using a forearm swing for a do-sa-do (to form an ocean wave, for example), interrupted (lazy) promenading, round dance methods of promenading, doing a chain thru for a courtesy turn, and fancy twirls or twists when their use delays others trying to move on beat.

3. Florida callers are in general doing an excellent job. There are many, however, who should be more meticulous (when calling or teaching) to the proper number of beats and steps appropriate for each movement. Florida dancers apparently like a relatively fast dance, but this preference often results in "clipped" timing by callers and dancers alike, which is not conducive to smooth dancing.

4. Florida is one of several states having a problem of accommodating resident dancers who leave their winter homes here for six to nine months each year during which they do little or no dancing. Clubs or callers would do well to institute "brush up" or refresher classes at the beginning of each winter season. This would help to make these dancers more acceptable to the year-round club members. Refresher workshops would also develop new friendship ties and help to renew old ones. 5. Dance and dancer classifications vary considerably from one area to another, especially in conversation. The definition of such words as fun level, low intermediate, high level, and challenge has been arbitrary and causes misunderstandings in advertising and communications. The present trend nationally is to use the following designations: beginners, graduate beginners, intermediate, challenge, and experimental.

Asked if he likes Florida, Orlich said he has been impressed so favorably with the people, the climate, and the enthusiasm shown for square dancing, that he hopes to retire to the west coast of Florida in about three years. He will, of course, continue with his avocation of square dance choreography. Obviously, Will Orlich will be most welcome when he joins Florida's growing list of square dance notables.

Florida Callers Association Spring Clinic, held at West Palm Beach, Square Dance Center, brought 60 callers together on April 7.

FCA Spring Clinic Draws 60 Callers to Palm Beach Gardens

THE FLORIDA CALLERS Association Spring Clinic was held Sunday, April 7th, 1968, at the Square Dance Center in Palm Beach Gardens. The Education Committee was very pleased with the attendance. About sixty callers were present, some having traveled from points as distant as Key West and Valdosta, Georgia.

Following a morning critique session, members and their taws enjoyed a buffet lunch and settled down to hear Willard Orlich expound his views on choreography and program variety, particularly from the dancer's standpoint.

Letters to the Editor

CAN YOU tell me where I can find out the address for a supplier that makes rhinestone badges? Somewhere we've seen a Purple Heart with rhinestones. We would like to have that kind.

Also, we feel that someone, somewhere, must have a list of all the badges that can be earned and what must be done to earn these badges. Can you help us locate this list? Thank you so much for anything you can do to help us.—Lester G. Spring, 6703 Laurina Place, Jacksonville 32216.

Larry Van Orden, 2175 Atlantic Avenue No. 9, Long Beach 6, California, makes a variety of rhinestone badges such as the Huggen Bug. I don't know about the Purple Heart you mentioned. You may write him to inquire. At presstime I haven't been able to locate the list of badges you requested. If any of you "squares" have such a list, will you please contact or send a copy to Mr. Spring?—Editor.

OUR CLUB was delighted with the generous space you gave us last month. Thanks from all of us.—Vera Hunt, publicity chairman, Boots 'n Bows, Ft. Lauderdale.

THE LISTING "Where to Dance" should have an address where contact could be made by mail. This information would provide a cheap method of planning by correspondence. It is possible to obtain a phone number if the name and address is known, even long distance by dialing information, but this is not true to obtain an address if you preferred to write. Thus, it would be a help to drop the phone number of the president or contact person and substitute the address.

If that is possible, I would like to remove our telephone number and substitute the address, or preferred, add the address for an additional fee.—Frank Smadris, Satellite Beach.

The "Where to Dance" advertising column is based on a three line club ad at a rate of $12.00 per year. To include the additional information you desire would add at least one more line to the ad, or increase the cost of the space by 1/3, or $4 more per year. This is permissible and we'll be happy to oblige. We would like to hear from others and their ideas or suggestions on ways to improve our magazine.—Editor.

THIS IS to say a big thank you to Colin Walton on doing such a wonderful job of criticism on the records (Record Review).

He does not shilly-shally around and avoid the issue, but tells us the truth when a record is lousy and this is something we have needed for a long time. If a record is good, he praises it and rightly so. This way we can have confidence in a person and respect him as we know then he has the courage to tell the truth and not be afraid of hurting somebody's feelings. It is so nice to have someone you can rely upon. We need more who will speak out and tell the truth as he is doing, so we can have confidence in our callers.

Thank you again for the good work you are doing, Colin, and keep it up.—Pete Sansom, caller, West Palm Beach.

"SPRING is sprung . . . the grass is riz . . ." it makes a fella awfully lazy and want to do a little "goofing off."

But, come on you club correspondents and reporters . . . make that extra effort to let Bow & Swing have your news. Remember, next issue will be the annual June State Convention issue, as well as the kick-off for a real sizzer of a summer with hot plans and plenty of dancing in the offering. Will your news be in it?

Square Dance Coordinator:

Dancers to Choose from 3

"THE NEW experimental figures released this month have little really worthwhile to offer," reports Jack Lasry, square dance coordinator. "For that reason, I will list several calls and let you decide if you can put one to good use with your clubs."

First is a Turn Thru and $\frac{1}{4}$ More, by Bob Perry.

Dancers do a turn thru, then make a right face turn. Note, left turn thru and $\frac{1}{4}$ more would have dancers make a left face turn after the turn is completed.

The following are some examples of turn thru and $\frac{1}{4}$ more:

Allemande left, with partner turn thru and $\frac{1}{4}$

Promenade with partner. Heads wheel around, turn thru and $\frac{1}{4}$ more, girls turn back, left allemande.

Heads square thru, box the gnat, turn thru and $\frac{1}{4}$ more, girls run, left allemande.

Second, try Trade the Deucey, by Lee Kipman. From an ocean wave or two-face line, centers trade and spread apart. The ends will circulate to the center position.

Heads square thru, swing thru, boys run, trade the deucey, trade the deucey, wheel and deal, dive thru, square thru $\frac{3}{4}$, left allemande.

Next, try Shout, Slip, and Turn Thru, by 'Lil Tom Hidding. From an allemande thar, certain couples are called to shoot the star, while others slip the clutch. Then, do a turn thru with the person you are facing. This call really needs no name, just call it directionally.

On the Cover

Frank and Shirley Bedell (on the left) take time out to join Chief Pirate John Donnelly and wife, Rita, before ye ole pirate galleon, Pandora. Bedell will be caller for the 6th Grand Annual Conclave to be held when the Pirates raise their Jolly Roger in Orlando on May 10 and 11.

The feature figure in April, Spin a Web, is going over exceptionally well. How about sending in some examples of the ways you are using it? Send them to Jack Lasry, 19010 N. W. 11th Avenue, Miami 33169.

Colin Walton's record review for May follows:

What's Her Name?/Inst. (Wagon Wheel 306)
 Caller: Beryl Main—This is a new version of "Y'All Come" and in the Wagon Wheel tradition, superb music and calling.

Wonderful World of Women/Inst. (Windsor

4893) Caller: Chuck Raley—Good music, nice dance, well called by Chuck Raley.

Under Your Spell/Inst. (Windsor 4894)
 Caller: Dave Taylor—Good music again, tune not so well known. Good figure well called on flip side.

Tiny Bubbles/Inst. (Kalox 1078) Caller: C. O. Guest—This is a simple dance to a tune that doesn't adapt well to square dancing. C. O. Guest does a good job on the called side.

Happy Wanderer/Inst. (Top 25164) Caller: Ben Baldwin, Jr.—Another simple dance set to a popular tune which is not readily adaptable for square dancing.

She'll Go Dancing Anytime/Inst. (Top 25166)
 Caller: Paul Hartman—This is real club level stuff with Pair Off, Peel Off, Bend It and Wheel and Deal all thrown in for good measure. Tune is good and also calling on flip side.

Crawdad Song/Inst. (Hi Hat 359) Caller: Lee Schmidt—The Crawdad Song has been recorded many times but this is an extremely well-written dance and it is tailor-made for the music. Lee Schmidt sounds as if he enjoyed cutting this record.
