An Editorial:

Henry Purcell

Callers and Dancers should pay particular attention to several articles in this issue. I will point out some of these to help you find them. First, I am proud to announce that Willard Orlich, Nationally famous Choreographer, has consented to do the Square Dance Coordinating for Bow & Swing. The review figures, he will present, should be used by all Callers throughout the State, as he explained at the beginning of his article.

Second, Bill & Pat Bliss are continuing their "Simple Language" description of the "Easy" Round of the month. This will help Callers, not so experienced in teaching rounds, to be able to teach the ROM and better understanding the "language" of Round Dancing.

Third, is the article on the 1970 State Convention. This should clear up a few points your readers have been questioning in your letters.

Fourth, one of the most important news items (in my humble estimation) is the fact that Bow & Swing is being printed by a different Printing Company. The Florida Keys Star Printers of Key West, Fla. The numerous mistakes, errors and other happenings of the past will be greatly reduced, we hope, to almost ZERO. This will add to the overall cost of the magazine but the quality gained will be well worth the increased cost. It is my contention that a First Class Magazine should be furnished to all the First Class Dancers and Callers of Florida, and other areas. This is the Aim and Goal of Dottie and Myself and

Caller Of The Month

BOB AND LOU RUST

Team traveling, a NICE way to go!
Bob and Lou have traveled over 700,000 miles, meeting scores of new folks each year. Having no desire to travel on a National basis,
Bob is most content to call for six Florida Square Dance Clubs on a regular basis and do several out of State Festivals each year. Bob and Lou, having every day free spend much time with Granddaughter Sheila (a year old), Daughter Terry and her husband Sam who live close by. Terry and Sam are active in Square Dancing also.

Bob's one big hobby, other than Square Dance Calling, is attending the races held at the Daytona International Speedway. Bob says "I'm a racing fan without Peer".

During their thousands of miles of traveling each year, Bob and Lou meet hundreds of people and have drawn this conclusion. "Square Dancers are the nicest, most unpredictable, fun lovingest people of all. This is one of the reasons we love to travel. We meet and mingle with so many nice people,
besides that SQUARE DANCING IS FUN."

1970 Convention Hi Lites

From Lu & Peg Winters, Chairman of the 1970 State Square Dance Convention comes the following news report. (First, let me, Editor, clear up one point. The Callers Association is trying to set the State Convention to an earlier time of year than the June date. Commitments have already been made for 1970 and must be carried out for this year. It is hoped definite changes will be made for 1971.)

CONVENTION PLANS 1970---GO!!!!

A hale and hearty 'thank you' to all attending the first convention planning meeting Sunday, November 16th at the Ben White Recreation Center, Orlando. Talk about cooperation - we had it!!! with committees volunteering even.

Jim and Pat McDow, Roy & Joyce Barton, Nick & Mary Nicholls, Roy & Marge Freshwater and Jack & Pat Tucker all accepted committee responsibilities with anticipation. Terrific! It is hoped the clubs of these committee people will give their full cooperation and support. Needless to say it is extremely important we receive the support of all the Central Florida Square and Round Dance Association clubs and members. We need all of you for a "Swinging 17th in '70".

We would like to sincerely thank Neal & Ruth Blanchard for making such a special effort to attend - we appreciated them. Neal informed our group of the plight of Bow & Swing. May I urge everyone to subscribe - what would we do without it?

FCA President Speaks

Well, the holidays are over and we hope that yours were as enjoyable as ours. A new year is upon us with many of our old friends from the North, along with a host of new dancers coming in to visit with us. It behooves all of us to be especially warm and friendly and make these dancers WELCOME. One of the rewarding aspects of Square dancing is to see these northern friends come down year after year and renew old FRIENDSHIPS and to thoroughly enjoy themselves at our dances. Let's send them home this year. Eventually most of them move down and become our weekly dancing partners.

Sunday, January 11th, will soon be here so mark this date on your calendar. This is the Big Bow & Swing BENEFIT Dance. We have received some advance information and the work and preparation that is going into this dance, well, all that I can say is "DON'T MISS THIS ONE!!!" The Directors of the F.C.A. are putting these dances together in their areas and they are doing a terrific job in getting the Halls, Callers and Round Dance Instructors, (who will donate their time), furnish the sound, take admissions at the door, set up tables to sell subscriptions to Bow & Swing, and a thousand other incidentals that go to making up a good dance. We hereby recognize and thank them. VERN JOHNSON - Director at Large.
HANK HANCOCK - Director of East Coast.

BILL FORD - Director of Central.
BOB COOK - Director of South East.
TOM HIDDING - Director of North East.
BOB BENNETT - Director of North West.

ART SPRINGER - Director of West Coast.

Some of these area dances will not be held on January 11th, as they would conflict with some large activities that had been previously scheduled. These dances will be put on at a later date. Check in Bow & Swing for the date.

Ruth and I went to Orlando, in November, to the first meeting on our 1970 Convention. Next month we will bring you up to date. KEEP 'EM DANCING AND KEEP 'EM SMILING!

Neal Blanchard, FCA President

The Sunshine State Chapter 018 NSDCA, will hold a Camp-O-Ree the weekend of January 16th - 18th with Dick Bishop calling. It will be held at the Royall Park Campgrounds at Riverview, Fla., (South of Tampa on 301). "Pot-luck" supper begins at 5 p.m. on Saturday, followed by a business meeting.

NEWS A-ROUND FLORIDA

Northeast Florida News Items:

Square Dancing lost one of its most enthusiastic supporters with the death of Howard Nelson of Gainesville. Howard has been active in the square dance picture for several years and has always been a hard worker in club and area activities. He passed away in his sleep at his cottage in Suwannee. He will be sorely missed by his many friends and his wife Lucille has our deepest sympathy.

Over sixty-five squares of happy dancers enjoyed the calling of Marshall Flippo at the Fall Roundup. It was the largest crowd ever to gather for an Association Dance in this area and all came away with compliments for the wonderful dance "Flip" and the fine Round dance program under Helen Crout. Next year the Fall Roundup is set for November 20th & 21st in Jacksonville at the City Auditorium with Vaughn Parrish as the featured caller.

In January several good dances are on tap. On January 6th, Frank Lane will be calling at the Joseph Lee Youth Center in Jacksonville. January 10th, Harper Smith will be calling a dance under the sponsorship of the Lake City Squares at the National Guard Armory in Lake City. On February 14th, Ron Schneider will be in Gainesville sponsored by the US 441 club.

Don Smith has been named Chairman of the 5th Saturday dance program for the coming year.

Everyone really got into the spirit of fun. They had sandwiches, cider coffee, tea, cake, candy, nuts and a special blend of Hobo Pork & Beans.

The Pompanos of Pompano Beach have been on a Banner stealing binge. In the past weeks they have visited Boots N' Bows, Rhythm Squares, Shirts N' Skirts and Modernaires. Their Wednesday night classes are progressing nicely with 15 couples "do-si-doing" into the second ten week period.

The Modernaires of Ft. Lauderdale have been delighted with the local and northern dancers visiting the club. There was much preparations for the Gay Holiday Season. Some planned northern and western trips to be with loved ones, but those who stayed in the Sunny South started baking for the seasonal parties.

The Modernaires sponsored a party, with all the goodies, for the new dancers who completed their 10 week course of Neal's beginners class. The new group danced like old pros with the many club members and Square Angels mixing in to give them untold support.

On January 21st, there will be another "Pot-Luck" dinner for the Modernaires at 6:45 p.m. Guests, too - just bring a Pot.

Hallandale Squares announces that their caller, Frank Brooks, has to give up his job because of health. Their new caller will be Don Fackler, who also calls for the Shufflin Shoes of Ft. Lauderdale. The Club dances on Thursday nights at the Hallandale Rec. Center. A new beginners class is scheduled to start on Mondays at the same place, conducted by the new caller. Frank Brooks is still going to continue his calling activities but on a very limited basis until further notice.

Shirts N' Skirts are continuing the policy of having an extra caller one night each month. The past dances have been well received and attended. On January 29th, Frank Bedell will return to work with club caller Vern Johnson. Big plans are being made for the Anniversary and Sweetheart Dance to be held February 12th. Vern's class is going real well and many of the club members are helping out the future club dancers.

The Special Sunday night Dance to be held January 4th in Hagen Hall, Wilton Manors, will see Frank Bedell and Vern Johnson sharing the mike and on February 8th, Colin Walton will come and share the calling duties with Vern and also at Hagen Hall in Wilton Manors.

West Coast Florida News Items:

sa George; John & Mary Stephens have chosen the Left Allamanders as their Home club. After too long an absence Van & Mary VanVoorrest have rdjoined the club. Everyone was happy to see the club's President, John Zellner, back on his feet after having foot surgery last week. Maybe he will be more careful how he stomps his feet in the future.

The Kuntry Euzzins are certainly a traveling club. There was such a good group of them at the Fossil Park Rec. Center enjoying the fine calling of the Left Allamanders club caller, Don Kennedy. Bob Rusk was at the Left Allamander club in November calling to a full house and on December 19th, Cliff Hendricks kept everybody on their toes with his fine calling.

The Cloverleaf Squares and the Cloverleaf Jrs. of Clearwater held their Semi-Annual Beach Picnic at Phillippi Park, where many of the groups danced in the water, on the sand and the grass to earn Special Badges. Fun was had by all and the food was terrific.

There goes the Yellow Rockers Banner back to Zephyrhills. They came to a regular Cloverleaf Dance and recovered their Banner that the Cloverleaf Squares has stolen at the Bob Bennett Dance in Zephyrhills. Fun dancing with you Yellow Rockers.

The Cloverleaf Squares are all set for another year with a brand new set of officers. John Scher is our new President. The club is looking forward to another full year of fun. See Photo Page

The Cloverleaf Squares and Jrs. welcomed the New Year at a New Year's Party held at the Belleair Civic Auditorium.

The Squares & Pairs of St. Petersburg held a Surprise Birthday Party for their Secretary on November 21st. Fred Christopher did his usual fine job of calling. Ed & Kay Mack handled the Rounds. The callers for the club during the next two months are: Eric Sohn, January 2nd; Roger Chapman, January 16th; Bob Rust, February 6th and Skeeter Charvin, February 20th. Ed & Kay Mack on Rounds. Visitors always welcome.

Central Florida News Items:

The Happy Hoedowners of Leesburg are canceling their Friday, January 2nd, dance due to the many New Year activities in the area. Chuck Durant will call Saturday, January 17th. The dancers on the 2nd and 4th Fridays, with Bob Rust calling, are enjoying the nice winter visitors. "Tex" and Jean Brownlee are visiting friends in the state and attending some of the area dances, it's a treat and a pleasure to dance a tip with them.

The Kiss-A-Me Squares are busily making final plans for their Annual Rodeo Dance that will be held in the Tupperware Auditorium, February 20, 1970, on a Friday. Our caller this year will be Johnny Creel from Louisiana.

Election of officers was held November 24th and the Kiss-A-Me Squares will have the same slate of officers: President, Howard & Marion Stark; Vice-President, Clarence & Marie Steinhoff; Secretary, Harold & Ruth Hopkins and Treasurer, Fred & Edith Clancy. The officers did such an outstanding job that the club members just would not let anyone else be nominated.

The Kiss-A-Me Squares were on a Banner stealing bit again and were the first club to steal the newly formed Wagon Wheeler's Banner. Come and get it Wagon Wheelers!

Plantation Squares of Orlando, will have their 1st Anniversary dance on Friday, February 13th, at the Ben White Rec. Center. Come and make your "Black Cat" badges. Caller, Bill Shell. Refreshments and prizes.

The Plantation Squares Dance on the 2nd & 4th Fridays of each month, however on the 9th of January the dance has been cancelled.

Four ambitious members of the Plantation Squares, Chuck & Donna Mayo and Joe & Madeline Augenblick, presented the club with a very handsome Banner which they ingeniously designed and made.

East Coast Florida News Items:

The Allemanders of Satellite Beach, held a "covered dish" dinner on December 20th. Guest caller for the dance was Eric Sohn. In lieu of the usual gift exchange, each member donated canned goods for needy families of Brevard County. The guest callers of the club for January are: Bill Ford, January 10th; John Saunders, January 17th and Bill Ford, January 24th.

The Castoffs of Boynton Beach will not have a dance on January 2nd. The schedule of guest callers for the club is as follows: Bob Cone, January 9th, Marty Vanwart, January 16th; Jack Lasry, January 23rd, and Gordon Blaum, January 30th. The Castoffs in addition to their Friday nite dances, have a progressive workshop every Tuesday, with George Campbell.

The Sandy Shoes Steppers of Ft. Pierce, held their 1st - 5th Saturday Special Dance on November 29th with Jack Lasry calling. Everyone had a real good time. The club's 2nd - 5th Saturday Dance will be held on January 31st at the Lakewood Park Village Hall, with Jack Hosken of Cleveland, Ohio, doing the calling.

The Dixie Squares of Daytona Beach, deserve a few orchids in responding to an invitation to stage a square dance at the Ormond Beach Medic Home Center for the entertainment of the aged patients in this Nursing Home, nearly all of them in wheel chairs or bed-ridden. The Dixies were attired in their most colorful square dance clothing which had great appeal to the aged patients, who seemed to enjoy greatly the tips called. It seemed to bring back memories of the days when they, too, were dancing - evidenced by their smiles and foot-tapping. The dancers felt well-rewarded by the appreciation of the patients and the gratitude expressed by the Director of Nurses and the Hospital Administrator. The Dixie Squares hope to repeat the entertainment from time to time in the future.

The Dixie Squares celebrated Halloween by a big costume party, which brought forth an unbelievable array of all sorts of Ghosts and Horrible rigs worn by the masked dancers. They even had a visit from their former President, Joe Braum and his wife, who flew in from Michigan City, Inc. - just to be with their friends! It was an evening of great fun and merriment, indeed, a great success.

Florida's Round Dance News

The Round Dance Co-ordinators for 1970 are Carl and Joyce Bornman, of Daytona Beach. The following information was enclosed with their selections for January:

The Round Dance Council of Florida voted at their fall meeting at Cape Kennedy to choose a new "Easy" dance only once every three months, rather than one every month. The term "Easy" replaces the previously used "Square Dancer's" round. The Council hopes that this new plan will enable more dancers to learn this round and dance it more often. There will continue to be a new "Round Dancer" level selection each month. Therefore, the January "Easy" selection should be printed in the January, February and March issues but the "Round Dancer" selection will be for January only and there will be a new selection each month.

The Klassy Kats of Orlando, held their Christmas party in conjunction with their graduation exercises of 14 couples on December 9th. Their new class will begin January 6th.

The Holiday Steppers of Holiday Park, Ft. Lauderdale, are proud to have as new members Josie & Ed Smith of New Orleans, Jane & Byron Wilson of Boynton Beach and Conn., Fred & Esther Praekelt of Ft. Lauderdale. Recent guests at Holiday Park were Al & Irene Duester of Minn., Sally & Vince Mitsche and John & Mary Tucker of Mich., John & Phyllis Williams of Cape Cod, Mass., Lorraine & Paul Howard of Winter Park, Fla. It was good to see Don & Marie Trim at the Bruning Workshop. They are Teachers from Briney Breezes and Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Gordon Moss will be happy to hear his "Mr. Fire Eyes" was selected as the "Round Dancers" Round of the month for Florida.

Ted & Lois Mack are teaching Chick & Ileen Stones' beautiful waltz, "One Rose". Intricate English Waltz but well worth the effort. Holiday Steppers are dancing "A Pretty Girl", "Riviere De Lune", "The Gang", "In The Gloaming", "Who", "Tango Maya", "All Night", "That's Life", "Walking to K.K.", "Symphony", "You Knew All The Time" and the new dances from the Bruning Workshop.

Mary Leitheusers Starlighters of Lake Worth were happy to have as guests John & Mary Tucker of Mich. and John & Phyllis Williams of Cape Cod, Mass. They do "Flo An's Blues" beautifully. John & Mary Tucker did "My Dear" and "Indiana Beach Swing" both nice dances and very nicely done.

Carl & Clare Brunings Workshop, sponsored by the Florida Round Dance Council, will be long remembered in the Ft. Lauderdale area. They taught the Lugenbuhls "One

 Carl predicted this dance will make the TOP TEN shortly. This was written for Pat on the occasion of their Anniversary. The Brunings method of teaching is so explicit that the most intricate steps become simple. They meticulously stress styling. Several of their club couples traveled along with them to be in on the teaching.

Ted & Lois Mack and their group of Mack Dancers did a medley of dances,
 "Fascination", "Tango Bongo"
 and the lovely "Blue Danube Waltz".
 Beautifully done and the colorful outfits drew many compliments.
 The Macks are quite proud of this

 "Exodus". Compliments and thank

REVIEW FIGURE FOR JAN-FEB By Will Orlich, Bradenton, Fla.

All Florida callers are asked to use the review figure of the month with their dancers for the next TWO months when setting up their programs. This will tend to have all Florida dancers well trained to know and understand the movement. It can then be used by ALL callers during their dance programs anywhere in the State. The movement chosen to review this time is:

PASS TO THE CENTER (1966)

An equivalent to "centers arch, dive thru". FROM TWO COUPLES FACING in an 8-chain-thru set up, the OUTSIDE couples PASS thru the inside couple (right shoulders) into the CENTER of the set. The couples finding themselves facing out will do an automatic partner trade (Calif. twirl without hands) to face back toward center of set. Movement ends in a double pass thru formation. FROM TWO PARALLEL OCEAN WAVES, on call to PASS THE CENTER, the dancers STEP thru, those facing out do a partner trade, all again ending in a double pass thru formation. NOTE- It's a no-hand movement, avoids active couples from crowding in between the inactive couples and can be used in comfort from right-hand or left-hand waves. EXAMPLES
