EDITOR'S DESK

Congratulations to Ed Drexel for a great Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention. Already we are in strong preparations for next year. General Chairpersons Terri Little, Cheryl Miller, Sheila Reid, Jenny Green, and Shannon Reid, will be working to insure that next year will be better than the last.

We strive to grow every year and so far Daytona Beach seems to be a great location. This year we saw many new faces. Some were "Snow Birds", some were recent graduates. All attending were having a fun dance experience.

I heard several comments about the format – most good, some were anxious to get to the different halls. Over all, the dance was a great success! And we will follow that up as we "POWER TO THE FUTURE!"

President's Message

Florida Callers Association

On the Sunday meeting after a spirited debate over the current standing rules we voted in two new White Badge Members, Shaun Perez and Hugh Gibbs. Congratulations to both. We also had a discussion about our website and the current standing of a portion of the bylaws.

At the Convention, the dancers had a lot of fun. Keeping with my continuing theme, Square Dancing is a recreation. I saw dancers smiling and moving with the music.

This message is short because of the limited time for preparation (as the magazine was all prepared except for this and my editorial).

The 66th Convention is going to take the dancers into the "Future"! Same dancing steps, rhythms and beats but the "Girls" will show you that the future of our Square and Round Dancing is just as exciting with new challenges for those who look to grow or keep your beats for those of us who just love to dance... traditions will not change, just a more exciting atmosphere with old and new friends! We are pleased that the 66th Florida State Square & Dance Convention General Chairmen put their "pretty" heads together and decided... Hmmm, the FUTURE is our YOUTH! So, they are offering a special promotion to encourage our families to bring our dancing youth to the 2020 66th Florida State Convention....ANY YOUTH UNDER THE AGE OF 16 WILL GET IN FREE... Yes, FREE! If the youth attends the convention with a parent, grandparent, etc., whom has purchased a ribbon to the 66th FSSRDC Convention. The 66th Convention Chairmen are not setting a limit on the number of youths that can attend with their family. Youth are the future of square and round dancing and our adult dancers will lead the way for them to join in the laughter, smiles and fun just dancing!

With so much excitement at the 65th Florida State Square & Round Dance Convention, I was pleased to be part of awarding the "Extra Mile Award" to Mark Fetzer. We are very appreciative of Callers and Cuers whom go the extra mile in supporting Square & Round Dancing. Congratulations Mark Fetzer!

There are only two cities in the world that have two Nobel Peace Prizes on display within a few miles of each other. One is Johannesburg, South Africa. The other is Atlanta, Georgia!

The preacher's name was Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and he grew up in the city when the city was segregated and there were schools he could not attend, parks where he could not play, and restaurants where he was not welcome. He was a man of peace and he took up the banner and led the marches and the marchers for non-violent social change. He won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. At the age of thirty-five, he was the youngest man to have received this honor. His life was taken in the tragic days of the Civil Rights Struggle in 1968. His dream is alive and well.

Our first destination today is the King Historic District on Atlanta's famous Sweet Auburn Avenue. Here you will see Ebenezer Baptist Church where Dr. King preached his first and last sermon. See the home where he grew up. Visit Freedom Hall for a personal look at the man, his family, and his heroes. Spend some time in the Civil Rights Museum as we remember the struggle and stand before Dr. King's tomb and read the familiar words, "Free at last, free at last, thank God Almighty I am free at last."

Lunch is on your own at Atlanta's iconic Varsity Restaurant.

The President is known far and wide as Jimmy Carter. He grew up in the red clay peanut fields of South Georgia, son of a successful farmer and land holder. His best friend was the child of a black tenant farmer who lived on the Carter farm. The boys, one black and one white, were not allowed to go to the same school or sit together in the local movie theater. President Carter didn't like it as a child and wouldn't tolerate it as an adult. The passion that brought him the 2002 Nobel Peace Prize was born back in the red clay fields of Plains, Georgia.

President Carter's Library and Museum rest quietly on a rise known as Copen Hill overlooking the city of Atlanta. In 1864, General Sherman sat astride his horse on this same hill as the Battle of Atlanta swirled around him – changing the face of Atlanta and the south forever. It is a fitting location for the library and museum of this soft-spoken son of the south who has risen from a bitter reelection defeat to become respected and loved throughout the world as an international negotiator of world peace and a better life.

The tour price of $53 per person includes deluxe motor coach transportation, museum admissions, and tour guide services.

CLUB NEWS

GRANADA SQUARES DENIM & LACE

Ormond Beach...Recently, on Google News, there was an announcement of a square dance, featuring live music, to be held at the Florida Grange. The only problem is that the Florida Grange is in Durango, Colorado. Go figure. Carla Roberts, the caller, is trying to draw in young people. Her experience is that young people find square dancing to be "a blast." I hope Carla shares her secret with the rest of us.

Granada Squares Denim & Lace meets at the Ormond Beach Senior Center. It's in Florida, not Colorado. Our beginner's class meets from 6:00-7:00pm each Tuesday followed by our club dance. We offer about six squares of basic and plus dances interspersed with lines and rounds.

Our club recently gathered together $480.00 to contribute to the Yellow Rock Squares to help them attend the next handicapped convention. It's a good thing for a bunch of good people.

March 12 is our St. Patrick's Day dance. Green is the color of the day. Of course, everybody is Irish on St. Patrick's Day, including St. Patrick, who was born in Roman Britain and brought to Ireland as a slave.

We hope to see you soon. Get happy! Get healthy! Get square dancing!

Ted Frank

HOEDOWNERS "PAIRS & SPARES"

Casselberry...Sunday's dance (the first dance of 2019) brought in a large crowd that resulted in four squares on the floor. A big "thank you" to our caller, Gene McCullough, and our regular guest caller, Rod Barngrover! The round dance program led by Earl Collins, and the line dance floor led by Jerry Baron, was also filled to capacity, and a good time was had by everyone!

We welcomed back the members who were traveling during the holidays and enjoyed the presence of several guests. Michael and Alice Craft were accompanied by our friends from Germany, Heinz and Rosi. Wayne and Susan Goff from Mississippi were also back with us. Dale Eckelbarger brought a friend, Judy Daniels, with him. Norma Newton brought her daughter-in-law, Denise Trulock, who joined in with the line dancing. Then we got a visit from some friendly Space Trackers. They were Pamela Nelson (who was a first-timer at the Hoedowners) and Leo and Bev Murray. We were also pleased to have Virginia Barnes visit us. Thank you to everyone who came out to dance with us!

My mother, Josephine Santoro, passed away on January 6, 2019. Josephine started square dancing in the early 80's in New York with the Pelham Promenaders. She also danced at various clubs in Maryland and Florida. I sure she be truly missed.

Everyone welcome. We love to dance and have a good time! So join in the fun. See you Sunday!

ORANGE BLOSSOM SQUARES

Orlando...Our small but very energetic group of members and friends continue to dance at our new location; the Crystal Ballroom in Casselberry behind Walmart on 436. On February 18, we were very pleased to have the Space Trackers from Merritt Island join us for the evening. And we would love to have you (either single, couple or club) join us any Wednesday or Friday evening.

Our Wednesday program is mainstream with lines between tips and Friday is Plus with rounds. Our class for new dancers is progressing very well and we welcome any dancer to join us on Wednesday evening at 7:30 before our regular dance to angel the students and show them how much fun square dancing can be.

Several of our members enjoyed the State Convention in Daytona Beach on February 22 and 23. Always so enjoyable to dance with old friends and make new one while dancing to new and different callers and cuers. Yellow Rocks!

HANDICAPABLE PROGRAM

This information was developed by the Handicapable Committee of the United Square Dancers of America, Inc. with the assistance of the CALLERLAB Handicapable committee and will provide information on a part of the Handicapable Program supported by USDA.

Identification Names I've heard over the years

Remember, this activity is primarily for the residents. If you want to have fun with the volunteers, perhaps a line dance just for them. Or, get a few extra wheelchairs, put the chauffeurs in the chairs and call one tip that way. But they have to maneuver the chairs on their own.

Generally Nursing Centers, Personal Care Homes and Assisted Living Communities are limited to dancing space and assistance. So, keep the calls very basic for the chauffeurs and have fun with variety of set up formations.

Involve the staff, volunteers, friends and families to partake in this activity. Wheelchair square dancing works very well as an intergenerational program. Enjoy programs that promote many different aspects of life. This activity is an exercise, a sing along, and a reminiscing program all rolled up into one event.

Some residents really enjoy WATCHING the square dance, but do not want to participate. Please respect their wishes.

SOME WHEELCHAIR FIGURES

Heads Square Thru      Swing Thru
Ferris Wheel, Pass thru      Boys Run
Promenade (Short)      Take Corner

Wear a glove on your left hand for two reasons. The direction right and left are too difficult for some dancers. So directions are given as gloved and bare. We also find the gloves help reduce the spread of colds in a group.

Try not to put too many turning movements together. It can cause the dancer dizziness and motion sickness. Squares can get big because of the room a wheelchair takes to maneuver. When doing a wheelchair dance, allow 20 by 20 area per square.

Wheelchair Square Dancing has an additional challenge in that you are not touching anyone. This means the dancers have to keep track in their mind where they are in a square in relation to other dancers.

HELPFUL HINTS

1. It's very helpful if the wheelchairs have foot rests.
2. Make sure the breaks to the chairs are not locked down.
3. Too much spinning of the chairs can make residents dizzy.
4. Gerry beds are a very different to handle than wheelchairs.
5. Sometimes, residents have afghans on their laps. Be careful, they do not get tangled in the chairs.

6. The chauffeurs should not be other residents.
7. The execution time of the calls is longer than normal.
8. Extra staff needs to be on standby in case of emergencies.
9. Motorized scooters work well with a square of all scooters.
10. If you are the chauffeur, introduce yourself to the resident in the chair before standing behind and maneuvering them.

- E. Insurance – Contact USDA Insurance Coordinator for Information and requirements.
- F. Funding – Fundraising helps the dancers have other opportunities.
- G. Clothing – Put the word out to local square dance clubs. Square dancers are very generous people!

HOW DO YOU GET A HANDICAPABLE GROUP STARTED?

- A. Locate dancers – The best way to do this is to contact your local association dealing with individuals with disabilities.
- B. Find a building
- C. Find a Caller
- D. Find angels – Parents, local square dancers, volunteers.

The residents usually get a good laugh out of this special tip. The staff is laughing a lot, too.

Make sure they are capable enough to move the chairs on their own, and keep the tip short.

Being certified in CPR and First Aid is a great benefit to have when you are pitching the ideas to the Activity Directors. Plus, it's just a good thing to learn as a square dance caller or leader.
