A Letter From The President

Seasons Greetings,

Those of you who missed the state camporee missed some good dancing and fellowship. We danced on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and had round and square dancing workshops Friday and Saturday. Saturday evening we had so many callers they each called only one tip. We had 10 squares on the floor Saturday night. The sloppy joe lunch we served Saturday noon was well liked. The club members who helped, thought it was easier than all the hot dog prep and serving. Next years theme is Rockin' the Night Away - Fabulous 50's so get your jeans and poodle skirts out.

Our Christmas/Anniversary campout is December 7-9 at Silver Dollar in Odessa, FL. Bring cash so you can pay Hugh for the camp fee of $40.00/weekend. Many of us eat at the restaurant at the club house Friday evening. Friday night will be casual dress. Saturday morning Hugh & Willie Pillon will be cooking pancakes and sausage for breakfast. Bring your own plates, utensils and cups. We will have coffee available. There will be no hot dog lunch so we will figure out a time to have our club meeting. We will have our pot luck dinner at 5:00. The club will provide the turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy and stuffing so bring a dish to share as well as your plates, utensils and drink. Saturday evening dance is square dance attire. After the dance we will have our Chinese Auction gift exchange so bring a wrapped $10.00 gift

Our February 8-10, 2019 campout will be at Red Oaks RV in Bushnell, FL. This will be a combined campout with the Road Runners Chapter 193.
