

Cue Sheets by Judy Barnhill

We wish everyone a wonderful Thanksgiving this month. It's great to spend time with family & friends. We all have so much to be grateful for and this is a perfect time to give thanks to God.

The latest Round of the Quarter winner for Phase II is "Sukiyaki" by Doug & Leslie Dodge. We looked up the work sukiyaki and it means grilling meat on a plow share. This song sounds romantic. What! We looked up the words to the song in English. We found out it is by a Japanese crooner Kyu Sakamoto released in 1961. The songs original title is "Ue o Muite Arukour" which means: I look up as I walk. Well, that made more sense to a very smooth sounding song. The Lyrics to the song are: "I look up when I walk, so the tears won't fall. Remembering those Spring days, but tonight, I'm all alone. I look up when I walk counting the stars with tearful eyes. Remembering those Summer days, but tonight, I'm all alone. Happiness lies beyond the clouds. Happiness lies above the sky. I look up when I walk, so the tears won't fall. Though my heart is filled with sorrow, for tonight, I'm all alone, for tonight I'm all alone." Well now the song makes sense! Information is from "Microsoft Bing".

We love the music and it dances so smoothly. So, enjoy "Sukiyaki"!
